

AMHERST.

[Progress is for sale at Amherst by Charles Hillcoat and at the music store of H. A. Hillcoat.
Aug. 8.—My letter of last week was evidently on an outing to some unknown resort, and I fear I cannot call to mind all the gay events it should have announced as last week was quite the busiest of the summer in society.
A large number of visitors were entertained with a variety of very smart teas both outdoor and in.
On Wednesday Mrs. Main gave an afternoon tea at "Helen Cottage."
Mrs. Curry, of "Seven Gables," gave a large five o'clock tea on Thursday and Friday, was just a little crowded but all managed to come off successfully.
Miss Black had a large and much enjoyed lawn party at her home on Victoria street.
Mrs. Sherman Rogers served tea to a number of friends in honor of her guest Miss Black, St. John, and Mrs. R. C. Fuller, very pleasantly regaled the Tennis club.
Miss Edna Moffatt, was at home on Saturday and entertained a party of friends at tea among whom were Miss Kennedy, Halifax, Miss Flo Anderson, Sackville.
Miss Jennie Kennedy is the guest of Miss Hickman; they drove to Tidnish last week for a fortnight's stay. Miss Maggie Christie accompanied them and returned on Monday; the rest of the party will return the latter part of the week.
Col. Stewart came up from Halifax to meet Mrs. Stewart on her return from England via Rimouski. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dickey for a few days and went to Halifax on Monday last.
Mr. H. G. C. Ketchum who has been in England for several weeks has arrived in Amherst after spending a week in Ottawa in the interest of the ship railway. Mr. Dickey, M. P., who spent last week in Ottawa returned with Mr. Ketchum.
The picnic for the Presbyterian Sabbath school which was planned to go to the Joggins on Tuesday was vetoed on account of inability of railway authorities to provide a train for that day. It was rather an unpleasant turn in affairs for the little ones especially as a sumptuous repast had been made ready and the day unusually fine.
The church of England picnic is announced to come off at Parrsboro on Tuesday.
Mrs. H. J. Logan, Miss Ella Purdy, Mr. Logan and Dr. McQueen who have been among the visitors at Tidnish shore for the past week returned to town on Tuesday.
Mr. Fred Moore has arrived from Boston to spend his vacation.
Judge and Mrs. Townshend and the Misses Townshend, of Halifax, are visiting their friends in town.

Mrs. Rufus Bent came home on Wednesday from a pleasant trip to Shediac.
Mrs. B. D. Bent and children and Miss Moffatt are in Pugwash. Mr. Bent spent Sunday with them in that delightful resort.
Mrs. George and her sister Eleanor, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. Mack Curry.
Mrs. W. Corey, of Chicago, and Miss A. Corey, of Boston, are visiting Mrs. Calhoun, Terrace Hotel.
Mrs. E. J. Lay and children are enjoying the sea breezes at Tidnish.
Quite a number of small picnics have been enjoyed in Blacket Grove during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Hewson and guest Miss Hillard, of Boston, and a number of friends took tea on Thursday. The Misses Munroe and party of little folks were there on Friday.
Miss Embree and the Misses West organized a picnic which met in Curran's Grove on Thursday.
Rev. Dr. Steele and daughter Grace drove to Tidnish on Monday where Miss Steele will remain for a fortnight.
A party comprising Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Geo. Christie, Mrs. M. D. Fride, Mrs. Cahill, Mrs. Alex. Christie, Rev. Mr. McDonald, Mr. Fride, Messrs Christie and many others drove over to Tidnish on Wednesday for a day outing.

Mr. Barron of Toronto, and Mr. Laurie McLaren of Woodstock were among the visitors at last week who met a very cordial welcome on all sides from their host of friends.
Mr. D. Douglas gave a garden party at her home on Victoria street on Wednesday evening which included about the matrons and young ladies generally met at such delightful gatherings and a goodly number of gentlemen, which was a very appreciative variation to the general rule of things here. Dame Fashion seemed to have lent an individual charm in the way of elegant gowns of all the newest shades while collectively one could scarcely wish to look at a prettier group. The courteous hostess and genial host were tireless in their efforts to please their guests and the weather was perfect for enjoying an outdoor repast. Mr. and Miss Sleep, the Misses Main, Miss Purdy and a number of others assisted in serving tea. Mr. Main, Mr. L. T. Chapman, Mr. Hay, and Mr. S. Rogers were most impartial distributors of cake and sandwiches.
On Monday evening Miss Ida McCully gave a most enjoyable party which was attended by several visitors but I failed to ascertain who they were on account of guests but presume it was very pleasant for all present as her home is among the largest and prettiest places in town.
Amherst presents a very busy appearance today, it being a very rare occasion when such a large number comes to town but when a circus is on the tapis and one that is as good as that performing here today about everybody is anxious to see or hear something of it.
WINDSOR, N. S.
[Progress is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' Bookstore and by F. W. Dakin.
Aug. 8.—The Lawn Tennis club has come into greater prominence this summer than for many years past, chiefly owing to the renewed interest taken in the game by some of the oldest and most popular members. The club grounds have again become the favorite resort of a large section of Windsor society, and Saturday afternoon teas are quite an institution. A very natural consequence of this increase of popularity is a corresponding increase of energy on the part of the players, which should result in giving Windsor a good standing in the Maritime Provincial Tournament, which is to be held here the first week of September.
Last Saturday a large party went with the tennis teams to Kenville and were entertained most hospitably by the ladies of the rival village, while their players defeated ours by many points in the same friendly spirit. The Windsor teams were Mrs. Paulin and F. Ouseley, Mrs. Bradford and Rosier. Mrs. Clarence Dimock and Miss Lawson, Misses Wiggins and Paulin, of whom the last only managed to score a victory. There is some talk of the Kenton club playing us another visit during the month, when we hope to give a better account of ourselves.
There are a good many visitors staying here, and several leading residents away from home: on the whole it has been a pretty bright week.

Mrs. William Curry looked very well in a white duck suit with pink reticent which set elegantly. Mrs. Drysdale was charming as ever, in pale blue frock and the most chic of French hats. Mrs. Russell was gracefully gowned in mauve, while Mrs. Norman Dimock and her sister Mrs. Kaye wore the prettiest of light summer gowns. Mrs. Mackinnon was a becoming dress of black and white, and Mrs. Paul in a smart black gown which fitted to perfection. At 7 o'clock the guests adjourned for short time to the tennis field after they were entertained by Mrs. Norman Dimock at Highfield, where a perfect floor and good music contributed much to a delightful evening.
There is to be a little dance at Mrs. Drysdale's this evening, which is sure to be very pleasant. Those interested in King's college will be glad to hear that a successful year is expected, in spite of all its late troubles, and the outlook for the future is, at least, more hopeful than it has been for many years.
We shall all be glad to see Dr. and Mrs. Willets back again in our midst.

Attention in the world of homoeopathic medicine has been its very soul of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinion and the individuality of men have been parent to the disagreements by which the standard of these bodies have been elevated. So with most of famous preparation—treatment in illustration of which truth stands the world's most remedy to general debility and languor "Quinine Wine,"—and which, when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite, vitality and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system. Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has been the first discovery of the virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tones and natural life giving stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the preparing of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skillful observation and scientific opinion have pointed out in the popular preparations of the past. All druggists sell it.
