Aug. 8 .- The "Fete of Nations," an entertainment given in the St. Croix skating rink by the W. C. T. U., has taken up the attention of nearly all the ladies in town during the past week, so much so that other entertainments and amusements are quite forgotten. The "Fete" ends this evening, and those who enjoy picnics and water parties will again have an opportunity to indulge their fancy. The "Fete" has really been the most beautiful affair of the kind ever given on the St. Croix, and although not strictly a society event, it deserves to be mentioned in my letter and a brief description will be most interesting. The rink building is beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and flowers. The centre is dotted with groups of spruce trees, near by are dainty tables from which ice cream can be eaten most comfortably, there are also quaint chairs and garden seats placed about and visitors can rest and view the gay scene about them. The promenade is devoted to the different booth representing the nations. First on the left, one's attention is drawn to "Great Britain," Scotland, with her fishwives who offer "caller herrin" for sale, the young ladies who represent the fishwive being Miss Annie Stevens and Miss Lenna Markee. "England," a drawing room to represent tthe "Homes of England," here we gaze upon a most beautiful room filled with brica-brac paintings, statuary, soft easy chairs and a seat in the corner, rich draperies and a five o'clock tea Miss May Robinson, of Pine Grove, is visiting | table where tea is dispenced by Miss Cora Algar, Miss Reta Ross, Miss Alice Graham, Miss Florrie Sullivan, and Miss Florrie Cullinen, who are a have been in St. John attending a family gathering. lovely picture in their pretty white gowns as they move about among their visitors. The dairy maids are dressed in green and white and the sham. Mr. James Tibbitts is visiting his son, Mr. H. H. rock is most conspicuous in their attire. This booth attracts much attention. But the idea is excellent. It shows the forest with its hunter's game. The sports of Canada-The lakes, Indians and their wigwams. Grain and wheat fields. It is well gotten up and execites much admiration from visitors "Iceland." This booth is admired by all. In the back ground, is a large picture of polar bears, and sea lions. The whole booth, is covered with white, and is a glittering mass, that looks like frost. Seats made of whale bones, are placed about with numerous curiosities from Arctic regions. Ice water is orange groves, and will spend the balance of the served from a huge block of ice, and ice cream of any flavor can be brought to one's order, on snow shoes. Here we see the type writer, the sewing machine, the quill pen, the spinning wheel, a tallow candle, and the electric light. The hangings of this booth are in red, white and blue, and the stars and stripes; a large eagle at the top holds red, white and blue ribbons in his beak, which are festooned across the front, here at hand is a "Yankee" restaurant, where hot peanuts, doughnuts, and pies are tor sale, "20 minutes for refreshments" being mos noticeable at different points. This is in charge of Mrs. W. H. Todd, who is ably assisted by Mis Mary Newton, Miss Mabel Burns, Miss Maxwell as "America" and Mr. Adam Gillespie, as "Uncle Sam." Master Neil Cole, dressed as Washington, with a shining hatchet, could be seen cutting the cherry tree. The entertainment is the best ever given here, and the ladies who have spent so much time in its arrangement deserve many congratulations.

Mrs. S. H. Blair gave a very pleasant whist party last Friday evening for the entertainment of Mrs. Whitehead, and Mrs. Frederick Thompson, the guests of Mrs. Clarke, and Mrs. Mitchell.

A large number of ladies and children are out of town today on the excursion given by Trinlty church Sunday school to St. Andrews.

Very pleasant news is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Edith Smith, of Cherry Valley, Worchester, to Mr Guy Whidden. Their friends on the St. Croix wish them every happiness. The society event of the week in Calais was the reception given by Mrs. A. H. Sawyer, at her beautiful home, from seven until nine o'clock. The lawn and piazza w re hung with Japanese lanterns, and the long parlors were beautiful with floral decora tions. Mrs. Sawyer received her guests in an elegant costume of white ottoman silk, trimmed with black velvet and point d'alencon lace; she wore diamond ornaments. She was assisted by her friend, Mrs. Helen Kelly, of Boston, who looked most charming in a gown of black silk, cut square neck, trimmed with old thread lace; corsage bouquet of white casnations. The dining room was artistically decorated in green and white. Here the guests were prettily and daintily served by Miss Mabel Murchie, Miss Grace Nichols, Miss Millie Sawyer and Miss Mattie Nichols, who were all prettily attired in gowns of white. The orchestra was hidden in the upper hall, and strains of sweet music were heard throughout the evening. Among the guests present were, Mrs. Charles Newton, Mrs. W. B. King, Mrs. S. Murchie, Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mrs. Ned Murchie, Mrs. George Hinds, Mrs. Harry Grant, Mrs. Edwin Todd, Mrs. C. E. Swan, Mrs. Fred Waite, Mrs. Fred Lowell, Mrs. Downes, Mrs. Percy Lord, Mrs. W. A. Aug. 8.-The tennis club tournament which has been engrossing the attention, not only of the tennis players of Moncton, but also of a very large body of non-participants, whose interest was only second to that of the players themselves, was brought to a close on Monday afternoon. The primary object of the tournament, which was merely a friendly strife confined to members of the Moncton club, was to promote interest in the game and encourage the members to practice, and the secondary object was to attain sufficient will to make it worth their while joining in a more serious tournament in September. The fortunate couple who carried away the laurels, were, Miss Maley, of Montreal, and Mr. R. W. Simpson, of the I. C. R., engineer department.
