

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

[CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.]

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sussex by G. D. Martin, R. D. Bond and S. H. White & Co.]

May 16.—Mr. T. E. Arnold spent Friday in St. John.

Mr. Clarence Spooner has moved to Hampton, where he intends starting a weekly paper. Mrs. Spooner and children have not moved yet. They are staying with Mr. W. H. White.

The Misses Grace and Alice Robertson were visiting friends in St. John last week.

Mr. C. W. J. Upham has moved his family to the Morrison property, near Upper Corner.

Mr. Atherton, who lately moved here from Amherst, is occupying the Upham house.

Mr. Geo. H. Barnes was in Amherst last week.

Miss Ida Pearson, of Apolquo, was the guest of Mrs. G. N. Pearson on Sunday.

Mr. Geo. E. Fairweather, of St. John, spent Sunday at the Knoll.

Mrs. J. J. Daly and daughter paid a short visit to friends in Petticoat last week.

Miss Alice Pearson and Miss Manchester, who have been visiting at their homes for some months, returned to Newton, Mass., to complete their studies in nursing at the hospital there.

Mr. Geo. Ryan, of Moncton, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Klinecar spent Sunday in St. John.

Dr. R. I. Robertson, St. John, was at his home here on Sunday.

Miss Carrie McLeod and Miss Carrie Drummond are studying shorthand at the business college in St. John.

Mrs. M. A. Ferguson and daughter, of Martin Head, are visiting Mrs. Ferguson's sister, Mrs. Price at the Depot House.

Miss Bertha Creighton, of Chatham, paid a short visit to her sister, Miss Creighton, this week.

Miss Helen Robertson, of Robesay, is visiting Miss Fairweather at the Knoll.

Mrs. Lawrence, Truro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Daly.

Mrs. E. Hickson and children, who have been spending the winter at the Knoll, left this evening for Campbellton where they go to join Mr. Hickson and make their home there.

Miss Alice Barnes has returned from her visit to Moncton.

GREENWICH.

May 15.—A rare event occurred on Friday last, when Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walton celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Walton are still hale and hearty and from appearance, may live to enjoy many more years of life together. Out of those who received invitations about eighty were present including their ten children. Mrs. George Nutter, Mrs. R. Ross, Mrs. P. D. McKenzie, Mrs. D. A. Richards, Miss Sara Walton, Miss Ada Walton, and Messrs Ford, James, Earnest and Allan Walton, and fifteen grandchildren. The guests were entertained in a very enjoyable manner; the young people dancing, while the older ones enjoyed themselves in a quieter manner, several musical selections were given by Miss Day and Miss Ollie Golding; and several duets on the violin and organ were rendered by Mr. Earnest Walton and Mrs. Ford Walton which were very much appreciated. During the evening supper was served after which speeches were made by the Rev. D. W. Pickett and Mr. J. N. Golding after which three cheers were given for the host and hostess. Light refreshments were served in the evening. Besides the names of the family mentioned before these were present. Rev. D. W. and Mrs. Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Price, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Flewelling, Mr. and Mrs. Sancton Belyea, Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. N. T. Peatman, Mrs. A. L. Peatman, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. W. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Sault, Mr. and Mrs. W. Le. Belyea, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Belyea, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Richards, Mrs. Ford Walton, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Vanwart, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Richards, Dr. J. B. Gledhill, Mr. Willard Vanwart, Mr. D. Richards, Miss Ada Nutter, Miss Maggie Ross, Mr. J. Lynch, (Greenwich), Rev. O. T. and Mrs. Wetmore (Clifton), Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Golding, Mr. and Mrs. E. Puddington, Mrs. J. N. Golding, Jr., Miss Maggie Day, Miss Ida Roper, Miss Jessie Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weston, Mrs. Sloan, Mr. F. Puddington, Mr. B. Puddington, Miss Ollie Golding (St. John), Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McKenzie and Misses Lottie, Dottie and Daisy McKenzie (Frederickton). A large number of beautiful and costly presents were received, among which were, from Rev. D. W. and Mrs. Pickett, a gold and silver watch, silver headed cane, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Flewelling, gold and silver fruit spoon, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Price money, Mr. and Mrs. W. Le. Belyea, silver and gold egg set; Mr. and Mrs. Zebulon Richards and Mr. and Mrs. F. Walton, gold and silver sugar and orange spoon; Mr. George and Mr. James Lusk, gold and silver goblet; Mr. and Mrs. Gorham, set of gold and silver coffee spoons; Miss Wetmore, clock with gold work, 30 years old; Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, leonard set; Mr. and Mrs. W. Wasson, gold and silver fruit spoons; Miss Alice Price, gold and silver salt cellar; Rev. D. T. and Mrs. Wetmore, gold and silver sugar spoons; Mr. and Mrs. Ross, parlor lamp; Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, easy chair; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Belyea, gold and silver fruit spoons; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Richards, money; Mr. and Mrs. M. Berry money; Miss Gertrude Price, gold pin; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Vanwart, gold silver egg; E. M. Dickie, money; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Richards, fancy picture; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Golding, easy chair; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Golding, Jr., rocking chair; Mrs. Sloan money; Mrs. A. Richards, table scarf; Mr. and Mrs. Nutter, lamp; Mr. and Mrs. H. Belyea, gold linen cake baskets; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Belyea, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richards, gold and silver picture, and machinery.

May 15.—Mrs. Meagher and Miss Florence Meagher passed through here last week from Quebec, where they had been spending the winter, en route for their home in Carleton, P. Q.

Mrs. G. A. Vire of New Glasgow, N. S., is the guest of her friend Mrs. Williams.

Mr. Louis Commaux of Moncton spent Friday and Saturday in Campbellton.

Er. C. N. Doherty of Jacques River was in town a day or two last week.

Rev. Mr. Campbell has returned from a short visit to Chatham.

Rev. Mr. Sellars of Bathurst occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

Miss Eugenie Le Bel of New Carlisle P. Q., was the guest of Mrs. Henry McIntyre for a few days last week.

Mr. Thomas B. Clapperton's friends were glad to see him in town last week. He returned to Marla P. Q. on Monday.

Mr. George Frenette went to Petit Rocher on Saturday and spent Sunday with relatives.

Mr. Stockton Barberie, of Dalhousie, paid friends a short visit on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gross, of Moncton, were among the visitors in Campbellton on Sunday.

Mrs. Jardine is quite ill.

MAY.

Who first beholds the light of day In spring's sweet flowery month of May, And wears an emerald all her life, Shall be a loved and happy wife.

We have a large assortment of

Birthday and Gift Rings

ALL PRICES AND QUALITIES, NONE TOO CHEAP.

All good value. Repairs a specialty.

W. TREMAINE GARD, 81 King St., St. John, N.B.

Miss Emma Thompson left on Saturday for New Richmond, P. Q., where she will remain a week or so.

Miss Elsie Doherty, of Escanaba, spent a week with friends at the Lansdowne.

Mr. Thomas Matheson went to Quebec on Friday last to meet his brother-in-law, Mr. Bliss Lutz, who came down from Montreal, where he has been for nearly six months for treatment. Although Mr. Lutz may not be out for some time, yet his friends are delighted to know that he is greatly improved in health.

Mrs. William Commaux and baby left on Saturday for Petit Rocher, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. Thomas McNeill, of Vancouver, B. C. is on a visit to his home at Maple Grove.

Mrs. A. N. Des Brisay, of Bathurst, was here on Wednesday, returning from Marla, P. Q., where she was called on to the death of her brother, Mr. George Rudolph.

Mr. John Mowat has returned from a weeks visit to Ottawa, where he made arrangements for the Governor General's summer trip up the Restigouche.

Master Norman Stewart, of Dalhousie, was here for a few days last week.

Rev. W. C. Matthews, pastor of the Methodist church, preached a sermon on behalf of the educational society at Bathurst, on Sunday.

Mrs. Evan Price who has been in Montreal for the last three weeks is expected home tomorrow.

Fishing parties seem to be the order of the day. Several spent Saturday at the "Battery" and returned laden with speckled beauties. Among the number were Messrs. Harry B. Patterson, Herbert Alexander, James M. Johnson and Warren McLellan.

Mr. C. A. Kennedy, Mr. Evan Price and Dr. Lushington were fishing on Saturday at Tide Head.

The annual meeting of the Campbellton bicycle club was held last Friday evening, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mr. William Renneis, honoree president; Mr. D. J. Bruce, president; Mr. H. H. Bray, vice-president; Mr. John White, secretary; Mr. W. A. Mowat, captain; Mr. A. D. McKendrick, lieutenant; Messrs. F. F. Matheson and T. W. Brown, executive committee. Mr. W. A. Mowat was elected the prize for the series of races last year. It was unanimously agreed that the club will join the Canadian wheelmen's association.

Campbellton has always maintained her prestige and been noted throughout northern New Brunswick as a go-ahead lively town in respect to her observance of the Queen's birthday, but this year the 24th will undoubtedly be much more quietly celebrated than has been the custom for some time. However, arrangements have been made for a five day, which will of course be an attraction for those who are interested in the wheel.

Mr. William Miller is erecting a neat cottage on South Andrew street. Dame rumor asserts that Mr. Miller will shortly join the ranks of the beneficiaries.

HAMPTON.

May 16.—Mr. S. F. Murphy, of Mount Uniacke, N. S., spent Thursday at the village, the guest of his niece, Mrs. Geo. O. D. Utty.

Mr. R. LeB. Treadwell, who has been confined to his bed for the past week, is able to be about today.

Miss Jessie Arnold, of Sussex, is visiting Mrs. N. M. Barnes.

Rev. C. H. Paisley, of west end, St. John, spent Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. Geo. Brown, and occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church, morning and evening, the pastor, Rev. S. Howard, spending the day at the west end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLeod, of St. John, were in town on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Palmer, of St. John, arrived last week, and will spend the summer here.

Mrs. William E. Raymond and children, who were spending a few days at the hotel here, returned to their home in St. John on Monday.

Mr. Charles Spooner late of Sussex, has become a resident of Hampton, and will, with his family, occupy the Sprague house at "Sunny Slope" in a few weeks.

Mr. Arthur N. Shaw, of North End, City, was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilechrist, of Bloomfield, and Mr. John March, of St. John, were in town on Sunday.

Miss Bessie Bent has returned and will in future reside here.

Mr. Harry P. Otty, St. John, spent Saturday with relatives at the village.

Mr. Noah M. Barnes and family have removed from Linden Hills, in the house formerly occupied by his sister, Miss R. W. Barnes, opposite the station.

Rev. Mr. Burns has returned from his trip to the United States.

Mr. W. H. White, of Sussex, was in town on Tuesday.

Rev. Ezekiel Hopper, of Gagetown, visited his daughter, Mrs. W. March here, last week.

Three weddings are to take place in the near future on a young lady prominent in musical circles, a barber, a resident here; another a very young lady, daughter of a well known citizen, and whose sister was recently married; and now music and a resident, to a young man merchant of this town and brother of the young lady first mentioned; the third is a young and handsome school teacher at Passadung to a young man residing between the station and village and engaged in business as a baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor, and Rev. S. Howard, went to the city today to attend the funeral of the late Rev. D. Currie.

Mr. William Marter, of St. John, was in town over Sunday.

DORCHESTER.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Dorchester by G. M. Fairweather.]

May 15.—Mrs. Campbell returned home from St. John on Tuesday.

On Thursday evening a thoroughly enjoyable soiree was given by a few of the young ladies of the place. It was held at Mrs. Wallace Turner's residence.

Mrs. M. G. Teed is visiting her brother Mr. H. Haning on in Moncton.

Mr. W. R. Racey inspector of the merchants Bank was in town on Saturday.

Miss Butler of St. John and Miss F. White of Sackville are the guests of Miss Nellie Palmer.

Mr. Douglas of Amherst spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Hickman.

Mrs. Woodman is the guest of Mrs. C. Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison of Sackville and Mrs. Lawton of St. John were the guests of Mrs. G. Chandler on Sunday.

A small party of young people went to Sackville on Wednesday, to be present at a soiree held there.

Mrs. Landry and her sister, Miss McCarthy, went to St. John on Wednesday.

Mrs. D. L. Hanington gave one of her pleasant little evenings on Tuesday, for a few friends in town.

Mrs. Church of Moncton spent Thursday in town, Miss Peck has returned from Truro, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Buck.

Mrs. S. A. Richards is visiting Mrs. Church in Moncton.

Miss F. Chandler, of St. John, is the guest of Lady Smith. Miss Chandler's friends are always glad to welcome her back.

Mrs. Robb, Mrs. and Miss Palmer drove to Sackville on Friday to attend a concert given there.

Mrs. Hanson returned to Moncton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chandler spent Friday in Sackville.

Mrs. H. Palmer gave a small entertainment for a few friends on Saturday evening.

Miss Rannie, of Sackville, spent Sunday with friends here.

MILLTOWN, N. B.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Milltown at the Post Office.]

May 15.—Mr. Geo. A. Hill has gone to Washington, D. C. to make an extended visit.

Mrs. Garland and little daughter, of Lynn, has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. Ripley.

Miss Mand Rand has gone to Portland on a visit.

Miss Gillmor, of St. George, who has been visiting friends has returned home.

Mr. F. W. Emmerson, of Petticoat, was in town last week. As Mr. Emmerson was a resident here some years ago a number of friends were pleased to welcome him again.

Miss Florence Hanigan, of Oak Bay, spent a few days with her friend, Miss Minnie McGroddick, last week.

Miss Mary A. Bohan, of Bath, Me., is spending a few weeks here as guest of Miss Mame Walsh.

Mr. Frank Gillmor, of St. George, has been visiting his uncle Mr. Geo. I. Hill.

Mr. Lewis Dexter has been in Montreal for the past week.

Rev. Mr. Williams of the congregational church is spending a few weeks in Scranton, Pa.

Mrs. Lovely is visiting friends in Provincetown and Lowell.

Mrs. M. G. Robinson who had just returned from a week's visit in St. John, left on Monday night's train for Amherst.

Mr. Chas. Hill, of Fredericton, is spending a few days with his sister Mrs. Hester Ray.

Mr. Edward Hickey and Misses Margie and Nellie Hinchey left on the train last evening for New Hampshire where they will make their future home.

Miss Maude Blake is visiting friends in Princeton.

SACKVILLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville at Wm. J. Goodwin's Bookstore. In Middle Sackville by E. M. Merrill.]

May 16.—Mrs. Ayer, of Boston, is visiting her daughter, Miss Ida Ayer, at the Ladies' college.

Miss Jean Bruce, of Moncton, spent Sunday in Sackville.

Mr. Ted Smith, of the Halifax banking company, has been promoted to the Treasurership, and left for that post on Monday last. Mr. Smith was very popular and will be greatly missed by his many friends. Mr. Aubrey Lund takes Mr. Smith's place in the bank here.

Rev. C. F. Wiggins, who has been absent for some weeks in the interest of the "Bishop Medley memorial fund," is expected home on Thursday.

Mr. Hayes, curate of Amherst, has fulfilled Mr. Wiggins' duties at the rectory.

Mrs. W. H. Lawton, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. J. Fred Allison, at "Acacia Grove."

Alexander, James M. Johnson and Warren McLellan.

Mr. C. A. Kennedy, Mr. Evan Price and Dr. Lushington were fishing on Saturday at Tide Head.

The annual meeting of the Campbellton bicycle club was held last Friday evening, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mr. William Renneis, honoree president; Mr. D. J. Bruce, president; Mr. H. H. Bray, vice-president; Mr. John White, secretary; Mr. W. A. Mowat, captain; Mr. A. D. McKendrick, lieutenant; Messrs. F. F. Matheson and T. W. Brown, executive committee. Mr. W. A. Mowat was elected the prize for the series of races last year. It was unanimously agreed that the club will join the Canadian wheelmen's association.

Campbellton has always maintained her prestige and been noted throughout northern New Brunswick as a go-ahead lively town in respect to her observance of the Queen's birthday, but this year the 24th will undoubtedly be much more quietly celebrated than has been the custom for some time. However, arrangements have been made for a five day, which will of course be an attraction for those who are interested in the wheel.

Mr. William Miller is erecting a neat cottage on South Andrew street. Dame rumor asserts that Mr. Miller will shortly join the ranks of the beneficiaries.

NEWCASTLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Newcastle by Max Aikin.]

May 16.—Mr. Waters, Inspector of the Bank of Nova Scotia spent Sunday and Monday in town.

Mrs. Hunter, of Buffalo, daughter of Mr. Jno. Fish, of this town, died at Strirling, N. Y., at 11 o'clock this morning.

The young people of the town are already planning a picnic to Redbank on the 24th.

The W. C. T. U. intend holding a concert on Monday next. The performance ought to be especially good as the "local talent" have been diligently practising.

Mr. R. B. Bennet, barrister, of Chatham, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday last.

It is reported that a company from Moncton intend having an entertainment here on the evening of the 24th. It is hoped that this attempt will be better than their last.

Messrs. Grant and John Stewart Benson were in town on Saturday.

It is reported that Rev. Mr. Sweet is desirous of forming a cricket club. It would be a great benefit to the men of the town.

HARCOURT.

May 16.—Mr. John Wathen went to Greenwich, King's Co., last week, and purposes remaining there part of the summer.

Mr. James Graham, of Bay du Vin, was here today.

Mr. Edward Walker, of Bass River, left here on Monday for P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Palmer, of St. John, arrived last week, and will spend the summer here.

Mrs. William E. Raymond and children, who were spending a few days at the hotel here, returned to their home in St. John on Monday.

Mr. Charles Spooner late of Sussex, has become a resident of Hampton, and will, with his family, occupy the Sprague house at "Sunny Slope" in a few weeks.

Mr. Arthur N. Shaw, of North End, City, was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilechrist, of Bloomfield, and Mr. John March, of St. John, were in town on Sunday.

Miss Bessie Bent has returned and will in future reside here.

Mr. Harry P. Otty, St. John, spent Saturday with relatives at the village.

Mr. Noah M. Barnes and family have removed from Linden Hills, in the house formerly occupied by his sister, Miss R. W. Barnes, opposite the station.

Rev. Mr. Burns has returned from his trip to the United States.

Mr. W. H. White, of Sussex, was in town on Tuesday.

Rev. Ezekiel Hopper, of Gagetown, visited his daughter, Mrs. W. March here, last week.

Three weddings are to take place in the near future on a young lady prominent in musical circles, a barber, a resident here; another a very young lady, daughter of a well known citizen, and whose sister was recently married; and now music and a resident, to a young man merchant of this town and brother of the young lady first mentioned; the third is a young and handsome school teacher at Passadung to a young man residing between the station and village and engaged in business as a baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor, and Rev. S. Howard, went to the city today to attend the funeral of the late Rev. D. Currie.

Mr. William Marter, of St. John, was in town over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Palmer, of St. John, arrived last week, and will spend the summer here.

Mrs. William E. Raymond and children, who were spending a few days at the hotel here, returned to their home in St. John on Monday.

Mr. Charles Spooner late of Sussex, has become a resident of Hampton, and will, with his family, occupy the Sprague house at "Sunny Slope" in a few weeks.

Mr. Arthur N. Shaw, of North End, City, was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilechrist, of Bloomfield, and Mr. John March, of St. John, were in town on Sunday.

Miss Bessie Bent has returned and will in future reside here.

Mr. Harry P. Otty, St. John, spent Saturday with relatives at the village.

Mr. Noah M. Barnes and family have removed from Linden Hills, in the house formerly occupied by his sister, Miss R. W. Barnes, opposite the station.

Rev. Mr. Burns has returned from his trip to the United States.

Mr. W. H. White, of Sussex, was in town on Tuesday.

Rev. Ezekiel Hopper, of Gagetown, visited his daughter, Mrs. W. March here, last week.

Three weddings are to take place in the near future on a young lady prominent in musical circles, a barber, a resident here; another a very young lady, daughter of a well known citizen, and whose sister was recently married; and now music and a resident, to a young man merchant of this town and brother of the young lady first mentioned; the third is a young and handsome school teacher at Passadung to a young man residing between the station and village and engaged in business as a baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor, and Rev. S. Howard, went to the city today to attend the funeral of the late Rev. D. Currie.

Mr. William Marter, of St. John, was in town over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Palmer, of St. John, arrived last week, and will spend the summer here.

Mrs. William E. Raymond and children, who were spending a few days at the hotel here, returned to their home in St. John on Monday.

Mr. Charles Spooner late of Sussex, has become a resident of Hampton, and will, with his family, occupy the Sprague house at "Sunny Slope" in a few weeks.

Mr. Arthur N. Shaw, of North End, City, was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilechrist, of Bloomfield, and Mr. John March, of St. John, were in town on Sunday.

Miss Bessie Bent has returned and will in future reside here.

Mr. Harry P. Otty, St. John, spent Saturday with relatives at the village.

Mr. Noah M. Barnes and family have removed from Linden Hills, in the house formerly occupied by his sister, Miss R. W. Barnes, opposite the station.

Rev. Mr. Burns has returned from his trip to the United States.

Mr. W. H. White, of Sussex, was in town on Tuesday.

Rev. Ezekiel Hopper, of Gagetown, visited his daughter, Mrs. W. March here, last week.

Three weddings are to take place in the near future on a young lady prominent in musical circles, a barber, a resident here; another a very young lady, daughter of a well known citizen, and whose sister was recently married; and now music and a resident, to a young man merchant of this town and brother of the young lady first mentioned; the third is a young and handsome school teacher at Passadung to a young man residing between the station and village and engaged in business as a baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor, and Rev. S. Howard, went to the city today to attend the funeral of the late Rev. D. Currie.

Mr. William Marter, of St. John, was in town over Sunday.

Mr.