JUNE 21.—Mrs. Montgomery Moore gave a large "at home" and garden party at Bellevue house on Wednesday afternoon of last week, which proved a complete success. Mrs. Montgomery Moore entertained her friends in her usual charming manner, and all present enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The weather was fine, but not particularly warm, therefore tea was served in the house. It is said that Mrs. Montgomery Moore intends to spend the winter in England.

Mrs. Townshend, wife of Judge Townshend, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. Robb, at Amherst. Miss Annie Stevens, who has been in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. William Torrance, has returned to her home at St. Stephen, N. B.

Rev. Dr. Pollock has been nominated to succeed Dr. MacKnight as principal of the Halifax college. Rev. R. E. Knowles, of Ottawa, is the guest of Mr. W. H. Waddell, and on Sunday preached to an attentive audience in Fort Massey church in the morning, and in St. Matthew's church in the evening.

Mr. Lauchlin MacLean, of Chicago, and a former resident at Lake Ainslie, is making a visit to his friends and relatives in the Annapolis valley, after an absence of over twenty years.

The death of Captain Henry C. Delby in Dartmouth occurred on Monday evening, after a long and tedious illness. The deceased was a man of sterling habits and one of the oldest and most efficient shipmasters in Halifax. He was of a kind and jovial disposition and well liked by all who knew him. The funeral took place on Wednesday from his late residence.

Although no word has been received, it is understood that Lord Aberdeen will arrive in this city about the first of July.

Rev. J. W. Smith, of Birmingham, England, spent this week in the city.

Mr. J. L. White is in the city, renewing the acquaintances made during his visit here last summer. Mrs. Downie, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. McKay, at Shelburne, has returned home.

A pleasant picnic was held at McNab's Island on Friday last. The usual amusements made the time pass pleasantly, and tea in the open air was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The members of the Ramblers' Cycle Club enjoyed a pleasant moonlight run to Bedford on Monday evening.

St. Patrick's church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday morning, when Mr. Robert F. Keltie and Miss J. Penny were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Gerald Murphy. The bride was given away by Mr. Marshall, and was dressed in a handsome gown of cream crepe, trimmed with Brussels lace, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Lucy Penny, was dressed in a gown of shell pink, with trimmings of lace and ribbon, and also carried a bouquet. The bridesmaid and Miss Keltie, who acted as maids of honor, wore dresses of pale blue and cream, with hats to match. The bride's brother, Mr. M. Penny, assisted the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's father, where a breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Keltie left for a trip through the province, followed by the wishes and congratulations of their many friends.

Many handsome presents were received, among them being a marble clock from Mr. William Lawson; art muslin screen in oak frame, Mr. M. Penny; hand painted silk mantel drapery, Miss L. Penny; fancy berry dish, Mrs. J. M. Ingles; lemonade set, Miss L. McDonald; silver coffee spoons, Mrs. W. A. McCreary; silver and hand painted glass cheese dish, Mr. M. Marshall; silver sugar stand, Mr. H. B. Mackasey; silver cream jug, Mr. A. M. Payne; pair darned net pillow shams, the Misses Kennedy; British plate glass mirror on easel, Mr. W. M. Ingles; silver pie knife, Mrs. Robert O'Mullin; silver pepper and salt shakers, Mr. A. McCreary; five o'clock tea set, Miss M. Griffin; silver toilet stand, cut glass bottles, Mrs. J. E. Butler; five o'clock tea table, Mrs. M. J. Griffin; lemonade set, Miss L. Cashen; silver card receiver, Miss J. Mosher; biscuit jar, Mrs. J. M. Ingles; lemonade set, Miss L. McDonald; silver coffee spoons, Mrs. W. A. McCreary; silver ornaments, Masters Jack and Philip McGuire; water service in basket, Miss F. Power.

The recital of the Halifax Conservatory of Music, on Tuesday evening, was the best ever given by that institution. The programme, an excellent one and admirably carried out, was listened to by an appreciative audience, and warmly applauded. The convocation took place on Wednesday afternoon, addresses being made by Governor Daly, Rev. E. P. Crawford, Prof. Charles MacDonald, and Hon. W. S. Fielding.

Mr. James Grant left this week for Boston, where, it is said, he is to be one of the principals in an interesting ceremony. He will be absent about a month, and will visit New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Niagara Falls, Washington, Montreal and Toronto.

Mr. T. R. Clougher, of Toronto, spent some days this week in the city, going to St. John on Thursday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Clougher.

An interesting ceremony was performed by Rev. F. M. Webster at an early hour on Wednesday morning in St. Stephen's chapel, the principals being Mr. Eldridge, T. Hammett and Miss Desiss Butler. The bride was becomingly attired in a fawn travelling suit, while the bridesmaid, Miss Florence Little, wore a dress of brown. Mr. Thos. Woolrich supported the groom. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hammett took the morning train for a trip through the Annapolis valley. Many valuable presents were received by the young couple, among them being a handsome silver tea service from the members of the Crescent Amateur Athletic club, of which Mr. Hammett is president.

Mr. T. J. Brown, president of St. Mary's young men's society went to Quebec this week to make arrangements for the grand excursion to that city next month.

The wedding of Mr. Clifford Smith to Miss Anzel Corey took place on Thursday, the 14th instant, at the residence of the bride's parents, Providence, R. I. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. C. Holyoke.

AMHERST.

[Progress is for sale at Amherst by Charles Hillcoat and at the music store of H. A. Hillcoat.]

JUNE 20.—On Tuesday afternoon of last week another "quite smart" June wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hicks, the parties in the happy event being the daughter, Miss Lizzie Hicks, and Mr. David J. Clarke of Joggins Mines. The Rev. Dr. Steele performed the ceremony that gave to a neighboring town an Amherst bride who looked particularly well on the occasion in a very stylish gown of dark blue covert cloth. The groom, who looked the personification of happiness gave to the bride a very pretty and costly brooch of diamonds set in gold. A large number of presents both useful and ornamental were received from upwards of forty guests who were served with the usual collation, after which Mr. and Mrs. Clarke were accompanied to the depot by a host of friends who sprinkled rice and showered good wishes on them as they departed on the evening train for their home at Joggins Mines. The Willing Workers of the Church of England, have made preparations for a sociable this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Townshend's, Victoria street, which without doubt will be a success if spacious parlors, and a good tea charmingly served count for everything. Mr. L. R. Ripley is a prominent figure in a pleasant event that takes place today at Nappan, where, I am told, he is to take Miss Rosa Phips as a life partner and straightway start on a journey to the land of Evangeline and other points of interest in Nova Scotia. Music hall was simply packed with "star-gazers" on Wednesday evening, to witness the capital performance under the auspices of the band. The stars of minstrelsy were of such unexpected magnitude and dazzling brilliancy that I fear I could in no way particularize the movements of the different luminaries, or give an adequate description of anything short of the Lick telescope. I am glad to hear that the unique galaxy (not the milky way) will appear again next week, when they will again be objects of great interest. The following are the names of the different stars who gave such great pleasures to observers: Dr. C. O. Tupper, Pompey Squash; Messrs. J. M. Curry, Sunrise Waterbury; A. Pelton, Strapback Jim; C. Main, Michelmas Outake; David Logan, Rusher Mather; H. J. Logan, Mr. Jimson; Russell Embree, Bogus Mose; Arthur Sharpe, Canabrake Crossbones; M. Curry, Huckleberry Dick; H. W.

SYDNEY, C. B. [Progress is for sale in Sydney by John McKenzie and G. J. McKinnon.] JUNE 19.—Miss McKay and Miss Purves were up from North Sydney on Wednesday. Mr. Leavitt, of Glace Bay, was in town last week. The Misses Cameron, of St. John, were in town last week on their way to Cow Bay. Mr. W. Voight, of North Sydney, is spending a few days at home. Judge Townshend, of Halifax, arrived by Saturday night's express. Dr. A. H. MacKay, superintendent of education, arrived Monday night, and today he inspects the academy. The engagement is announced of a rising young barrister of Sydney to a talented Halifax lady. CHERRY RIFE.

An event which has been looked forward to with much interest took place last Wednesday morning in Falmouth street church, when Miss Ella Muriel McGilivray, second daughter of Dr. McGilivray, was united in marriage to Mr. Clifford Brown, Webster, Mass. Long before the hour appointed for the wedding the spacious edifice was filled, every seat with the exception of those reserved for the guests being equipped. The church was artistically and beautifully decorated with flowers, potted plants and ferns. Bows of white satin ribbon separated the seats of the guests from the rest of the congregation. At eleven o'clock the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, and was a picture of beauty in her rich bridal gown of wedding lynn and Mary burrill lace. The train was sprinkled with orange blossoms, the conventional veil and wreath of orange blossoms was worn. She carried an immense bouquet of pink and cream silk roses, ornate of amyboth silk and cream lace; she carried an elegant bouquet of maroon roses and wore a large hat of pink chiffon and violets, while Miss Muriel McGilivray wore a very handsome green with white guimpe and large leghorn hat trimmed with white satin ribbon and yellow tips. She carried a profuse bunch of pink and cream silk roses. The bridegroom, Mr. Clifford Brown, was most impressive. The choir sang a wedding march in good style. Following the ceremony and reception, breakfast was served to about thirty of the immediate friends of the family. The tables were tastefully arranged and banded with a profusion of roses. After the usual toasts and congratulations, the bride and groom departed for their home in the United States. Among the guests were the venerable archdeacon and Mrs. Smith, Judge and Mrs. Tremaine, Rev. E. B. and Mrs. Rankin, Dr. and Mrs. McLeod, Hon. E. T. and Mrs. M. A. Hearne, Mr. and Mrs. F. Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. W. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hearne, Mrs. Dunkin, Truro, Mr. D. J. McLeod, Miss W. W. Colman, Colman, Mr. D. A. Winterbotham, Mr. Leaver. The bride was the recipient of many choice and costly gifts; among them was an elegant brooch, set with diamonds and pearls, from the groom's hands; some solid silver pudding dish from the groom's hands; substantial cheques from the father of the bride, Judge Dood, Mr. D. A. Winterbotham, Dr. E. H. McGilivray and Col. Granger; a lovely mother-of-pearl and lace fan, Dr. J. McDonald; an elegant solid silver fork, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rigby; a very pretty epergne with silver stand, Mr. H. Rigby; Duchesse lace fan, Miss Dood; silver fish slice, Mr. Crowe; pie slice, Miss Weeks; Dr. and Mrs. Tremaine, malloica urn and basket; a lovely bamboo music stand from Falmouth street; a solid silver sugar shell and butter knife, Miss J. Beston; handsome fruit dish in silver stand, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hearne; a very neat and pretty card receiver, Mr. L. McDonald; pickle dish, Mr. Stirling; Mrs. Bayne (Halifax), silver five o'clock spoons; Miss A. M. McGilivray, silver coffee spoons in case; Nina McGilivray, Egyptian urn; silver and gold sugar spoons, Mrs. Donkin (Truro); white ostrich feather fan and elegant pearl pen, Mrs. Brown; large silver salver, Mr. and Mrs. Rankin; an exquisitely worked centerpiece, Miss Alexis McNeil; plush and silver dressing and manicure set, Gordon McGilivray; silver and glass pie dish, Mrs. E. T. Moseley; handsome silver butter cooler; Dr. and Mrs. Smith, gold and silver cream jug; Miss Ormond, gold and silver berry spoon; Mrs. McKean, silver wash strainer; Miss Driscoll (Glace Bay) a very pretty piano scarf, beautifully worked; a silk sofa pillow, Mrs. Richardson; solid silver table cover, Mrs. McGilivray. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was an elegant brooch thickly set with pearls, and a pearl and ruby ring to the maid of honor.

ROGERS, LAMÉD JACSON; H. A. Hillcoat, Whale back Hawker; C. McNutt, Gumbo Clay; E. M. Marston, Jim Gooseberry; A. Curry, Pete Rossini; Fred Lawson, Waydown Beebe; C. W. Main, Rastus Whangdoodle; H. Lushy, Julius Caesar; W. McCoy, Chairman. Mr. A. S. Curry was manager, and is receiving compliments in abundance for successfully bringing out to the public so much latent talent and excellent coloring which created the sacrifice of a good many cherished moustache, which in some cases could hardly be spared from a beauty point, but, like the star minstrel, their next appearance will be very welcome. Mr. G. Henry, of New York, was in Amherst last week. Miss May Townshend, of Halifax, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Townshend. Miss Crane is gladly welcomed home from Boston by her numerous friends. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. Tremaine, Havelock street. Mrs. George Cole went to Parrsboro on Wednesday for a long visit. Miss Page is paying a visit to Miss Miles, Victoria street. Mrs. Charles Townshend, Halifax, is in town, the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. Robb. Mr. McKenna arrived today from Parrsboro. Mrs. Stopford and family have moved from Tidnish to Amherst, and are located in a pretty cottage on upper Victoria street. Mrs. Hebert, Mrs. Mac Sterne and little Miss Marion were in town for a few days and returned to their home in Lower cove today. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moore returned from their wedding tour on Monday evening. Miss Morrison of St. John, is visiting at her brother's, Mr. J. H. Morrison. On Friday evening of last week, Mrs. J. B. Gass gave a small but greatly enjoyed tea to the several of Miss Helen's young friends. Mr. Harry Canfield who is engaged in a business firm in Truro came to town last week to remove his furniture and take Mrs. Canfield and child on to a new home. Their many friends here regret the move, but Truro will gain a bright and genial host and hostess. The opening of the new Methodist church at Fort Lawrence was attended by quite a number from Amherst who attended the afternoon service. The Methodist conference and supreme court has brought very many representatives of the law and gospel to town this week which makes times unusually stirring.

NORTH SYDNEY.

[Progress is for sale in North Sydney at the store of Messrs. Copeland & Co.] JUNE 19.—Miss Grace Ingraham returned on Tuesday from Acadia Seminary. Miss Piant is staying in Sydney with her sister, Mrs. Chaloner. Mr. Hatfield spent Sunday here. Miss Bedwin and Miss L. Robertson, were in Sydney on Wednesday. Mrs. Fitzgerald is staying with Mrs. V. E. Brown, and leaves tomorrow for England. Miss Annie Ingraham, who was staying at George's River, returned this evening. Mrs. Snider spent Wednesday with friends in Sydney. Mr. J. Grant, of the People's Bank, who has been here a fortnight, returned to Halifax today. Miss MacKay and Miss Powers were in Sydney Wednesday. Mr. Frank Robertson has returned from Boston. The children of St. John's church sang Sunday evening. The audience was so large there was quite a crush in the hall and a number could not gain admittance. The performance consisted of tableaux, dialogues, and recitations, interspersed with music. Mrs. Rigby played the accompaniment. The two dwarfs caused much amusement and acted admirably. There was also a somewhat chorus which was a very spirited performance indeed. As this is their first appearance before the footlights the young people feel flattered at the encouragement they received. The proceeds are for the Sunday school library. Mr. who has not tried it can know what a weary task it is to write for a paper when you live in a small town. There is such a dearth of news, and the realm of imagination is forbidden to a correspondent. If, in your search for information, you appear too eager, they mark you out as one who writes for Puffin and tell you how. Sussins hath a lean and hungry look—Such men are dangerous. DALLAS.

MAITLAND.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James McLeann.] JUNE 20.—The principal topic of conversation for the past week has been the coming wedding. The contracting parties are one of our most accomplished and popular young ladies, and a young gentleman now living at Parrsboro. The wedding takes place on Tuesday next. I hope to send in a full account for next issue of Progress. Miss Cassie Scotney, of St. Paul, Minn., is spending her vacation at her home here. Maitland has now direct telephonic communication with the outside world, a cable having been laid across the Shubenacadie on Tuesday last. The distance from shore to shore is 1,300 feet. A large driving party is being arranged by

MOITTS CHOCOLATES & COCOAS. COMFORTING TO OLD OR YOUNG ROBUSTOR FEELING

In war, it is a name, not an army. In politics, it is a name, not a mob. In commerce it is preeminent by a name for peculiar distinction. The name of Priestly is associated with the manufacture of fine dress fabrics, as Worth is associated with the cut of a gown. Priestly's fabrics are now sold in Canada by first class dealers. They are made of wool, and wool and silk, and are distinguished by an exquisite fineness of texture and a beautiful draping quality. Ladies should ask for Priestly's dress fabrics. The trade mark is "The Varnished Board" on which the goods are rolled.
