ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of S. Wall and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

Oct. 31.—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith was this evening the scene of a most brilliant gathering, it being the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Helen L. Smith (Nellie) to Mr. Charles Freeland Beard, son of Hon. Allison Beard of Boston. The house was most beautifully decorated with flags and flowers, pink and white chrysanthemums being used most profusely. The table decorations, and indeed all decorations were pink and white, which gave a most beautiful effect. At seven o'clock the bride entered the reception room. She was attired in a wedding gown of ivory colored satin, the skirt in train, and adorned with orange blossoms, the corsage trimmed most richly with pearl trimmings. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms, and a veil of tulle and carried a lovely bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Bertie Smith, maid of honor, who looked most charming in a gown of pale pink silk crepe, and Miss Mary Nickerson, of Somerville, Mass., as bridesmaid, who wore a pretty dress of white silk. The groom had for his best man his friend Dr. A. K. Brown, of Boston. The ushers were Messrs. Hazen Grimmer, Harry Pelthick, Harry Graham, Mark Hills, George Downes, and George Dexter. The bride was given away by her father, but as he is an invalid, she entered the church on the arm of Captain John D. Chipman, a friend of the family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Bryan, of Trinity church, the bride party standing under an arch of beautiful pink and white chrysanthemums, from which hung wedding bells of white flowers. There were but few guests to witness the marriage, but from eight until ten this evening, there was a reception, which was attended by some two hundred guests. A sumptuous supper was served throughout the evening. At half past ten the happy pair left in the train, for their home in Belmont, Mass., amid a storm of rice, shells, and hearty congratulations. The bride's going away gown is a most stylish one of novelty cloth, with hat to match. The presents are most rare and valuable, among them are several checks for goodly sums; a beautiful ring of pearls from Mrs. Beard, mother of the groom, and an elegant diamond brooch, the gift of the groom, who also presented to the bridesmaids pretty diamond pins as souvenirs of the happy occasion. Among the guests from abroad were Hon. Allison Beard, of Boston, Miss Mary Nickerson, and Miss Gertrude Nickerson, of Somerville, Mass., Mrs. E. U. Gore, and Mrs. Greene, of St. Andrews. At the time of writing the guests are enjoying a dance, and the house is turned into a ball room. The wedding has been the most brilliant affair St. Stephen society has enjoyed for months.

The Church of the Holy Rosary was the scene of a pretty and quiet wedding yesterday morning when Rev. W. Dollard united in marriage Miss Ellie Keating and Mr. P. A. Breen. The bride who is fair and tall looked most lovely in a stylish traveling costume of novelty cloth of heliotrope and with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Sara Keating, who was attired in a pretty gown of dark green. Mr. Fred Short supported the groom. After the ceremony the bride party returned to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Keating, where a wedding-breakfast was served. At eleven o'clock they left in the train for Butte city, Montana, where they will make their future home. The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome gifts, from her friends, of whom she has many, her winning manner and attractiveness making her a general favorite, and it is to the deep regret of all that she will make her home so far from her native town.

THELMA.

Like a Miracle Consumption—Low Condition

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get out of the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her hands and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

Said She Was Past All Help and wanted me to send her to the 'Home for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my hand up she should not go. We then began to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She is getting strong, walks around, is out doors every day; has no trouble with her throat and no cough, and her heart seems to be all right again. She has a first class appetite. We regard her cure as nothing short of a miracle." W. WYATT, 89 Marion Street, Parkdale, Toronto, Ontario.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Sold by all druggists. 25c.
