St. John-South End. Trinity church was thelf scene 1 of Ra 3 brilliant wedding on Monday evening, when Miss A. Paul-ine Clarke, youngest daughter of Mr. W. Walker Clark, and Mr. W. Henry Scovil, son of Mr. E. G. Scovil, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Mr. Eatough performed the ceremony. Long before the appointed hour the church was thronged to the doors, and very many who were unable to obtain admittance contented themselves with a chance glimpse of the bride as she passed in. As the bride entered, the choir rendered "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." She wore, a handsome gown of ivy satin, and duchess lace, with tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Helen Parks, as bridesmaid, and Miss Mabel Scovil, as maid of honor, wore dresses of pink crepon, and carried bouquets of pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. John I. Fobertson. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to th residence of the bride's parents, Wellington row, where a reception was held. The rooms were tastefully decorated in pink, with natural flowers and ferns. At the conclusion of the supper Rev. Mr. Eatough proposed the health of the bride, and the groom responded. The health of Chief and Mrs. Clark was proposed by Sheriff Sturdee and responded to by the Chief, while that of the groom was proposed by Mr. John I. Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. Scovil left on the C. P. R. for a trip to Montreal and Toronto, after which a short dance programme was carried out. The groom's present to the bride was a beautitul bracelet of gold, while to the bridesmaid he gave a pretty ring, and to the maid of honor a gold stick pin. The present from the parents of the bride was a handsome gold stick pin, and
