J. W. ALLEN - - - - -On Tuesday afternoon Miss Stairs gave a small boating party on board the steam-yacht "Eulala." It was composed altogether of young people.

Mrs. Mat. Morrow's very successful camp fire dinner came off on Wednesday. Despite the closeness of the weather it was enjoyed very much by the many guests. The arrangements were perfect. After partaking of a very sumptuous dinner, the guests wandered around the shore or went out in boats; later a bountiful ton-fire was lighted, around which the guests gathered and listened to the beautiful music discoursed by Amerino's band. Some of the younger ones danced the lancers on the sail cloth which had been spread over the lawn. The grounds looked remarkably well, being all lighted with Chinese lanterns. There was a small dance at Mrs. Taylor Wood's, Morris street, Wednesday evening.

Miss M. Cory left Thursday for Toronto, where she is to attend school. She was accompanied by Stephens and Wood left for Kingston, Thursday. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Wakefield Brown, on Thursday.

The Misses Murphy left for their home in Baltimore, Thursday. They have been spending a large part of their summer in Bedford and Halifax. There was a tennis party at Weilington barracks on Friday, but the coolness of the day rather interfered with the enjoyment of the guests. Saturday there was the usual yacht race, a number of people were at the Squadron house, a huge log fire and hot tea welcomed the mariners after the race. A picnic was given after the race by Captain

Mills, Mr. Smith and Mr. Tighe. A huge camp fire at MacNabs was part of the entertainment which was unanimously voted "awfully jolly." Saturday night a dance was given on board the "Canada," by the officers. The deck was "cleared for action" and did duty for a ball room. Among the guests were Mrs. D. Duffus, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart,

Miss C. Norton Taylor, Mrs. Story, Miss Story, Miss Clark, Mrs. Stayner, Miss Stayner, Miss Oliver, Miss Wylde, Miss Bullock, the Misses Albro, Miss B. Troop, Messrs. Troop, Duffus, Thompson, Wylde, Barratyne, Ewart and Captain Johnston. Sunday the Blake came in; she will remain at this port tili the end of October. The foot-ball team of

the Blake are now ready to do some work to gain the victory over some of the Halifax clubs. Miss M. Ritchie, who has had a sharp attack of diphtheria, is on the road to recovery.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Slayter and Captain Hartley.

Rev. Norman Lee and his wife leave on the 12th for a trip to the Pacific coast. The "Canada" has left for Bermuda.

Lady Hopkins is at the Admiralty house with Miss Hopkins.

Rhea, with a strong company, is at the academy this week; her splendid work draws a large crowd. About forty of the delegates who attended the convention of C. M. B. A. at St. John arrived in this city on Saturday and remained until Monday evening. On Saturday afternoon many of the local members accompanied them to a sail up the Northwest Arm, and afterwards to Bedford, where supper was served at the Bellevue. Sunday afternoon the delegates and their wives were driven through Point Pleasant park and to Mount St. Vincent Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss K. Porter, daughter of the late Professor Samuel Porter, to Mr. Harris, of Annapolis, to take place in St. Paul's chnrch, in this city, on the 20th instant. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. where she is going to see her daughter, Mrs. Hill. LITTLE JANE.

TRURO.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. O. Fulton and D. H. Smith & Co.] SEPT. 12 .- Miss Mai Dimock is visiting Mrs.

Clarence Dimock, in Windsor. Principal and Mrs. J. B. Calkin left on Monday last for Pennsylvania, to visit their son, Mr. W. S. Calkin, in Johnsonburg; they will visit friends in Boston and New York en route.

St. John's church was crowded yesterday afternoon to witness the marriage of Mr. Stewart, of New Glasgow, and Miss E. Blanche MacDowell, daughter of the late Jas. MacDowell, Esq. The groom supported by Mr. A. L. Hunt and preceded by the archdeacon, entered the church from the vestry about half past five. They were joined in a few moments by the bride and her maid, Miss Irene MacDowell. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. William Wall, was attired in her travelling suit, a tailor made costume of dark brown, broad cloth, with wide hat of golden brown chip, trimmed with brown ostrich tips and yellow roses. The bridesmaid wore a suit of brown lady's cloth, with moss trimmings, hat to match, with brown feathers and blush roses. The organ was under the skilful manipulation of Mr. E. R. Stewart. After the ceremony, the guests, who comprised but the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, Church street, where a reception was held and a bounteous lunch partaken of. The large number of costly and ele gant presents, of which the bride was the recipient, testify to the esteem in which she and Mr. Stewart are held, by a very large circle of friends and acquaintances. Mr and Mrs. Stewart left per twenty to eight train for Pic ou en route to Prince Edward Island and thence to New Brunswick via Point du Chine. The crowds at the depot were unusually well behaved for Truro, and evinced their good feelings only by showers of rice and some cheering and as the train moved out the explosion of torpedos.

Miss Lena Fulton leaves to-day for Boston, where she will pursue her musical studies at the conservatory, this winter.

Miss Gliska returned to Halifax on Monday last.

Mrs. W. M. Dickie. has gone to Halifax. to visit her daughter Mrs. Annand.

WINDSOR.

[Progress is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' Bookstere and by F. W. Dakin.] SEPT. 8.—This has indeed been a gay week with us. Wednesday was the opening day of the Mari time Province tennis tournament and in the afternoon of the same day the sports of the M. P. A. A-A. were held on the grounds of the Windsor A. A. club. On Thursday evening a grand tent is ball under the auspices of the Windsor lawn tennis club was held in Marine hall. The ball was a success in every way and the members of the Windsor Cadets Cory, Uniacke, Wilby, Courtney, Stairs, club, especially Mr. J. C. Lithgow, the indefatigible secretary-treasurer, may well feel proud of its success. The music by the 78th band was all that could whose only son died of consumption, in Kentville, be desired. It was decided before the dance that no encores would be responded to, but so beaati fully did the band render a waltz composed of Scotch airs that they were compelled to respond. There were eighteen regular dances and three supper extras on the programme. The floor, although a triffe sticky at first, soon improved. The costumes of the ladies were superb.

The list of guests is as follows: Miss Allison, Mr. M. G. Allison, Miss Ashworth, Mr. P. Almon, Halifax. Mr. Burrows, Bermuda. At 7.50 on Wednesday evening Christ church was literly packed to the outer door with those anxious all to witness the marriage of Mr. Clarence Hanright and Miss Effie Smith, daughter of Mrs. M. Smith, Havelock street. Rev. V. N. Harris performed the ceremony, Rev. Mr. Hayes presiding at the organ. It was generally termed a very pretty wedding and quite unique with us as church weddings as a rule are not enhanced by the incandescent, which brought out all the pretty points of the handsome toilettes. The bride wore a gown of white cashmere with trimmings of lace, stylishly arranged with ribbon, and bridal veil with a very becoming wreath of jasmine. She also carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and was attended by Miss Alice Smith, her sister, who wore a very pretty gown of pale blue crepe de chene trimmed with lace, and Miss Cornelius of Boston, who wore a handsome dress of helitorope with moire ribbon trimmings The groom was supported by Mr. B. McLaugh lin, and Mr. C Harvey gave the bride away. The merry party drove to the bride's home after the ceremony, where a pleasant evening was enjoyed by

The coming week will be one of interest to society olks in general as one of our tashionable young adies will be married in the presbyterian church. Much sympathy is expressed for Mrs. A. D. I have a very sad death to chronicle this week. On Thursday morning a merry party of gentlemen left on a special train for the races at Summerside. At Kensington several of them stopped off to speak to some people on the platform and as the train started Mr. Charles E. Robertson in the act of boarding her fell and was crushed beneath the wheels. In about half an hour he died. Mr. Robertson was one of our most popular men and the whole city has been shocked at his sad and sudden death, and sympathize with his wife and children. He was buried on Saturday and his funeral was the largest seen in Charlottetown for many years. Rev. James Carruthers returned to his home in New Glasgow, Wedneday; he was accompanied by Mrs. Carruthers, who has been the guest of Mrs. Artemus Lord, Brighton road.
