SEPT. 12 .- The farewell concert given by Mrs. Harrison, assisted by Herr Carl Walther of St John, and Miss Edith Troy, of Newcastle, on Wednesday evening last, was a great success. The house was well filled and the audience most attent. tive. The solos by Mrs. Harrison all received hearty encores. Especial mention must be made of The "Nightingale," which was beautifully rendered. Herr Carl Walther played several selections. Seldom in Moncton do we hear a violinist equal to Herr Walther. His clever imitations of a rooster crowing, a hen cackling, etc., were most amusing. Miss Edith Troy, of Newcastle, who took a prominent part, possesses a very sweet contralto voice. Her solos were well received. Two cornet solos by Mr. D. Stewart, which are always listened to with pleasure by a Moncton audience, and several selections by the Moncton Amateur Orchestra, made up a very enjoyable evening. Mrs. Harrison is a great favorite in Moncton, and we regret her removal from Sackville to Ontario. Her absence will
