Mrs. Andrews, who arrived from England last week, will spend the winter in this city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, at Fernwood. Her husband, Dr. Andrews, has been ordered to Australia.

There was a pretty wedding at the First Baptist church, Spring Garden Road, on Wednesday morning of last week, the principals being Mr. William A. Smith and Miss Francis E. Quigley, daughter of the late Mr. Michael Quigley, of this city. Rev. Mr. Chute performed the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome costume of brown cloth, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was given away by her brother, Mr. Joseph Quigley. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Smith and Miss Maudie Smith, sisters of the groom. They were both dressed in gowns of golden brown serge, with hats to match, and carried handsome bouquets. Mr. Earnest Haystead supported the groom. The bride and groom received many handsome presents, among them being a handsome piano lamp from the choir of the First Baptist church, of which the bride has long been a valued member.

There was also a tea set from the Boston Shawmut Rowing Club, to which the groom belongs. Mrs. H. B. Clark rendered the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Boston.

There was a pleasant gathering at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Manuel, 38 Chebucto road, on Friday evening to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. A large number of children are practicing for a cantata under the leadership of Rev. A. Robertson.

A large number of our young people are feeling very important at present over the formation of a club. Their object is a very good one; not only will it prove to be a very pleasant pastime for a winter's evening, but they intend having a programme consisting of dialogues, etc., and last, but not least, selections by their own quartette, which is in itself an attraction, and who shall blame the young people if they end up with a little dance? They met Tuesday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas. After the programme was carried out, refreshments were served, and the company separated at the very reasonable hour of eleven. Among those present Tuesday night were: Miss Eva Grant, Miss Addie Bent, Miss Laura McNeil, Miss Graham, Miss Isabel Graham, Miss Eastwood, Miss Rachael Eastwood, Miss Lillie Jennison, Miss Ella Bowman, Messrs. J. W. Grant, S. W. Jackson, Frank McNeil, George Fraser, G. Chisholm, Jack Grant, G. Graham, A. L. J. Bowman, H. Musgrave, H. Crockett and H. McDonald.

AMHERST.

(Progress is for sale at Amherst by Master A. D. Campbell.)

Nov. 25.—A very large and pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. T. Forrest, whose only daughter, Miss Jennie Forrest, was united to Mr. Arthur Lusby, by Rev. D. A. Steele. The handsome young bride wore a gown of heavy white satin with trimming of lace and veil with a very becoming arrangement of orange blossoms. Miss Mills, of Parrsboro, was bridesmaid, wearing a stylish toilette of green cashmere and satin. The groom was supported by Mr. O. Moffatt. After the usual pleasant details attending such events were gotten through with, the bride donned a going-away gown of navy blue cloth and hat to match and the happy couple, accompanied by a great many friends, drove to the evening train for a trip to the Capital and through the Annapolis valley. The gifts were unusually pretty and go to show that the recipients are held in high favor. The groom's present to the bride was an elegant fur coat.

Mrs. C. T. Hillson, Miss Hillson, Miss Morse and Mr. A. Dunlap went to Moncton last week to attend the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. McSweeney.

Miss Nicholson, St. John, was the guest of Mrs. Keough a few days last week.

Mr. J. Rogers entertained a very youthful and sweetly pretty company on Saturday afternoon in honor of her little son's birthday. There was a goodly number of chaperones present as the guests were hardly capable of making their debut without much attention, but the merry event was greatly enjoyed, Master Jimmy making a pretty and noble looking little host.

Prof. and Mrs. Max' terne entertained a number of guests at dinner on Wednesday evening. Miss Archibald, who has been their guest for a few weeks, went to Joggins on Monday.

The report that the Fair building is to be converted into a skating rink this winter is very cordially received by the young folks in general, who are rather badly off for skating privileges. It must be confessed, and it is hoped the movement may not prove a failure and disappoint their happy expectations.

WOLFVILLE.

(Progress is for sale in Wolfville by Messrs Rockwell & Co.)

Nov. 27.—Miss Flo Seaman has been spending a few days in Halifax with her sister.

Mr. H. G. Harris, B. A., LL. B., who has lately been admitted to the Nova Scotia bar, is to practice in Wolfville.

The sacred concert given in the Baptist church on Sunday evening last, was a great success. Excellent music was rendered by the choir of the Baptist church, who were assisted by Mr. John Jones, cornet, Mr. Harold Gilmour, clarinet, and Miss Mamie Fitch, violinist. Recitations were given by Miss Carrie De Witt, Miss Grace Patrinquin and Miss Hilda Tofts. Miss Patrinquin's rendition of her selection was excellent, and was much enjoyed, as also was that of Miss Tofts'. Miss Ethel Johnson sang a solo which was well received.

The young ladies of the seminary gave a very enjoyable reception in Alumni Hall on Friday evening last.

Prof. E. E. Faville spent a few days in Halifax last week.

Mrs. B. Rautenburg and little son, are spending the winter in Wolfville at the American House.

Dr. W. A. Payzant was in the metropolis for a day or two last week.

Mr. G. M. Barstede, of Pictou, was in town this week.

Miss Mills, of Annapolis, spent Thanksgiving with her friend, Mrs. Hardwick, at the American House.

Our classical town has of late been the scene of a boisterous celebration of the heathenish game of football, the occasion of such rioting being a victory for Acadia in the intercollegiate game between Acadia and Dalhousie. I. SAY.
