ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen by Master In Calais at O. P. Treat's.

July 18 .- With moonlight excursions on the river, picnics, tug boat and dancing parties, society is in a whirl of pleasure and excitement, and the visitors in town enjoy it all greatly.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stevens was the scene of a gay party last evening, in honor of the Misses Warner of St. John, who are visiting Mrs. C. H. Clerke. Dancing was the chief amusement and fortunately the coolness of the evening enabled those who danced to do so comfortably. Fruit punch was dispersed throughout the evening, and at twelve o'clock ices and refreshments were served. It was a most delightful party, as Mrs. Stevens' parties usually are. There were about seventy guests present. The toilettes of the ladies were exceedingly bright and pretty. Mrs. Stevens received her guests in a pretty costume of black silk, with a waist of old rose silk, trimmed with velvet of a darker shade, which was most stylish and becoming Mrs. C. H. Clerke, elegant gown of fawn colored corded silk, richly trimmed with green velvet and ream colored lace.

This evening there will be a lawn party on the grounds of Mrs. F. A. Pike, in aid of St. Ann's church, Calais. There will be a musical programme, at which Miss Ellen Nelson, Miss Julia Kelley, Miss Foster, Miss Ella Harmon, Mrs. Mason and several rentlemen will lend their assistance. The grounds are to be illuminated and refreshments served. A large party from St. Stephen have arranged to go and it will be quite a society affair.

A very happy wedding party gathered in Christ church last Wednesday evening to witness the marriage of Miss Sarah Essin Webber, to Mr. Elmer R. Anderson. Accompanied by his grooms man, Mr. John Trimble they entered the church, and took up their position in front of the church, and man, Mr. John Trimble they entered the church, and took up their position in front of the chancel steps. In a few minutes, the ushers, Messrs. George Topping, Fred Boiz, Harry Webber, and Godfrey Newnham, walked up the aisle, followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Selia and May Webber, the twin sisters of the bride. The organ then pealed forth the strains of the hymn (The voice that beach) forth the strains of the hymn "The voice that breathed o'er Eden" as the bride entered leaning on the arm of her uncle, Mr. John Flinton. She was most tastefully attired in a gown of white henrietta cloth, trimmed with white satin, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in white, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The church was most taste-fully decorated with flowers, by friends of the bride in honor of the occasion, ferns and daisies being most successfully blended together. Rev. O. S. Newnham performed the marriage ceremony. After the ceremony, the relatives of the happy pair, returned to the home of the bride's mother, where supper was served. There were a number of elegant and useful gifts. A beautiful silver dish, from the young women's guild, of Christ church, of which Miss Webber had been secretary, since the society was formed, and of which she has always been a popular and helpful member, was among the Charity covereth a multitude of imposters. We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhea, chelera and all summer complaints, seasickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething. Claribel: "Do you think I would marry Smith ecause I wanted to spite Jones?"

Marie: "Certaintly not. You'd marry Jones." Mr. Thomas Ballard, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I have been afflicted for nearly a year with that most-to-be-dreaded disease Dyspepsia, and at times worn out with pain and want of sleep, and after trying al-most everything recommended, I tried one box of Parmelee's Valvable Pills. I am now nearly well, Mr. James H. Wilson, of Chipman, N. B., called at the office of the Groder company, Oct. 20, and made the following statement: "I could not eat anything without after distress, for five years. My complaints were bloating of stomach, acidity, constipation. A year ago last fall relatives came home to see me, thinking that I would not recover.

My appetite was good but not a day passed that I did not suffer from intense pair in the stomach. In March last took two bottles "Groder's Syrup, which helped me at once, at times since then I have taken part of another bottie. Today I am in excellent health, eat any kind of food, and can work without tiring. Your remedy has made a perfect cure for me. My friends will tell you how changed I am in health."
