DOUGLAS. JULY 17 .- At an early hour Wednesday morning, July 11, at the Stone Church at Douglas, a large numassembled to witness the marriage of Miss Susie Evens, to Mr. Arthur Hannington, of Philadelphia, late of Shediac. Westmorland Co. The brother of the groom, Rev. Mr. Hannington of Johnston, Kings, Co., married them, assisted by Rev. Mr. Whalley, rector of Douglas and Bright. They were unattended. The bride was dressed in white cashmere and carried a lovely bouquet. The church was prettily trimmed with flowers. The bride had friends far and near, by her kind and genial manner, beside being organist for a number of years in the Stone church. Mrs. W. N. H. Clements presided at the Mr. and Mrs. Hannington left by train, for

Mr. Hanningtons home at Shediac.

Miss Stella Sherm in is rusticating at Mr. Josiah Hallett's. The Orangemen celebrated the 12th at Upper Heswick as was their usual ronte. It was rainy and disagreeable all day, but a large number gathered in the evening at Burtts Hall, and they tripped the light fantastic toe until well into the 13th. There was a strawberry festival in the Hall on Tuesday, 10th, held by the ladies of the Free Baptist Church, in aid of the new church that is being built. Every thing passed off pleasantly, they having realized a fair sum, $29.36. There was a apron sale at the same time, the last of the sewing circle in connection with that holy.
