The marriage of Mr. David Johnson and Miss Laura Tracey was solemnized on Wednesday morning in St. George's church, Rev. Dr. Partridge officiating. Her sister, Miss Grace Tracey, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a becoming dress of cream cashmere. Mr. John Campbell did the honors for the groom. The arrival of Tuesday evening's train caused quite an unusual excitement when it became known that Lord and Lady Aberdeen were distinguished passengers and would remain ten minutes to accept a loyal greeting from the citizens of Amherst; the band moved into line on the double quick; the general public hurried to the depot when His Worship Mayor Curry, Hon. Senator Dickey, A. R. Dickey, M. P., T. R. Black, M. P., P. J. H. G. C. Kennedy, J. M. Townsend and many other town officials were presented to our Governor General and lady who were en route to St. John.

The Church of England picnic to Parrsboro left town on Tuesday morning in good time for a day's pleasure. The weather was delightful and kept so throughout the day which was one of perfect enjoyment for all who joined the merry party to that beautiful resort. Parrsboro may be said to have been the scene of a most successful picnic, and every body left a desire to have the picnic last for a longer term, so they could fully enjoy the beauties Nature has piled up there in such a lavish way. The band were very generous with their best selections, and refreshments were in abundance as the committee of ladies and gentlemen who made the affair such a grand success have the thanks of all the little folk, without doubt, as it was particularly for their pleasure.

Mrs. Drysdale's dance last Tuesday went off very well; small and early, with a perfect floor and good music, and everything as it should be. There were pretty dresses, of course, and some very pretty dresses, among them an English made gown of rainbow hues worn by Miss Pearson, at present a guest of the house, Mrs. Herbert Brookfield was becomingly gowned in yellow and black, Mrs. William Curry in black and pale blue, and Mrs. Lugar in a handsome lace dress. AMHERST. [Progress is for sale at Amherst by Charles Hillcoat and at the music store of H. A. Hillcoat.] AUG. 15.—A very large number of citizens, are still roaming to the lakes and streams in the country, while the attractions at Pugwash, Tidnish, and Parrsboro seem more inviting, than in the early part of the season, but Amherst is still keeping on its way in very good form. Five o'clock teas are still a leading feature in the way of expressing hospitality, and are certainly very pleasant events, when properly spaced, which has not been the case during the past week, but a little clever management made all satisfactory.

I regret to say, I quite overlooked a charming tea given by Miss A. McKinnon, last week at her home on Edely street, in honor of Miss Murray, Halifax, and Miss Strothard, that was much enjoyed by a large number of young ladies.

The Rovers' Cycle Club have been enjoying some fine rides this season to neighboring towns. Many new members have joined, and laughable are the stories told of incidents that occurred by the way. Not long ago the handsomest man in the club ran into a woman who was carrying a large milk can; for some seconds there was a sad mixture of wheel, can, and milk, but we refrain from describing how the "principals" looked, suffice it is to say, that the man, who is every inch a gentleman—was profuse in his apologies.
