The chief attraction last week was the exhibition which was held in the Exhibition Building, Tower Road. Wednesday a promenade concert was held in the Public Gardens, there was a splendid display of fireworks during the evening, the music was supplied by the King's band.

Thursday morning all Halifax turned out to see the review and the sham fight. The sailors and the King's men attacked the citadel which was defended by the engineers and artillery; this mimic battle resulted in a victory for the latter.

In the morning the firemen's procession came off. On the grounds behind the exhibition building a house had been erected of old timber saturated with oil; it was set on fire and then the chemical engine turned a powerful stream on the flames, which were extinguished in a few moments.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. A. G. Jones gave a five o'clock tea. Owing to the rainy afternoon fewer guests were able to get out to Bloomingdale. Those who possessed carriages drove out. There were not as many smart gowns as there are generally at a tea, as the ladies were afraid of the rain on their fine frocks.

Thursday the officers of the Garrison will give an exhibition of military sports in the W. A. A. C. grounds. LITTLE JANE.

Miss Stairs, Kent street, entertained a number of her friends at a small afternoon tea on Friday.

Mr. Robert Spiers, formerly of this city, but now a resident of New York, is here visiting his many friends and acquaintances.

Rev. Dyson Hague has returned from England, where he has been for the past few months. Hon. Robert Boak and Mrs. Boak left on Wednesday for a visit to friends in Boston. They were accompanied by Mrs. Boak's sister, Mrs. T. J. Allen, who has been spending some weeks here.

Mrs. Robertson and Miss Susie Robertson are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Towers, at Milltown, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Hill, Calais, Me.

A pretty wedding was that which took place at Brunswick street Methodist church on Tuesday morning. The contracting parties were Mr. William H. Clarke and Miss Helene W. Sutcliffe, daughter of the late Mr. E. W. Sutcliffe, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. H. Wright.

The bridesmaids were Miss Kate Sutcliffe and Miss Kate Starr. Little Miss Annie Greenman was maid of honor, and Master Max Richey, son of Mr. M. H. Richey, Jr., was her companion. Mr. F. H. Clarke, cousin of the groom, acted as groomsmen. The bride wore a handsome travelling costume of navy blue cloth, with hat to match. The bridesmaids wore dresses of pale blue and brown, and brown hats. Both bride and bridesmaids carried handsome bouquets of roses, white camellias and maidenhair ferns. Although the marriage took place at the early hour of seven o'clock very many guests were present to witness the ceremony, after which the bridal party left on the C. P. R. train for a trip to Montreal, Ottawa, and Niagara.

Rev. I. N. Mack is visiting Mr. Henry Theakston, Seymour street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Logan, of Amherst, were in the city last week, taking in the exhibition and visiting their many friends.

The marriage of Mr. George W. R. Almon, son of Senator Almon, of this city, to Miss Jessie Walker, of Hamilton, Ontario, took place there on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Almon will make their home in Edmonton, N. W. T.

Mr. and Mrs. Robie Unacke, and Miss Unacke are visiting friends in the United States. They will be absent a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Higgins, of British Columbia, who have been spending a short time here, left on Friday for a visit to Prince Edward Island, the former home of Mrs. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Field, who have been here visiting friends, left on Friday last for their home in Galveston, Texas.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Charles street church on Tuesday morning of last week, when Rev. A. C. Borden united Mr. Harold Gates and Miss Grace Silverthorne, daughter of Mr. J. D. Silverthorne, of this city, in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride was attired in a handsome brown travelling costume with hat to match, and Miss H. Patridge, as bridesmaid, also wore a suit of brown. Mr. W. E. Outbit was groomsmen. The presents were both numerous and handsome, among them being several cheques. Mrs. W. E. Gates left on the morning train for Annapolis, followed by the good wishes and warm congratulations of their many friends.

Another wedding took place on Tuesday morning, this one being at St. Mary's cathedral. The principals were Mr. Rupert H. McCulloch and Miss Teresa Heurion, Rev. Father Murphy officiating. The bride wore a handsome dress of gray silk, and white hat trimmed with a rich feather. Miss A. Heurion, the bridesmaid, wore a dress of cadet blue, and white felt hat. Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch left for a trip through the Annapolis Valley. On their return they will reside on the corner of Cunard and Robie street.

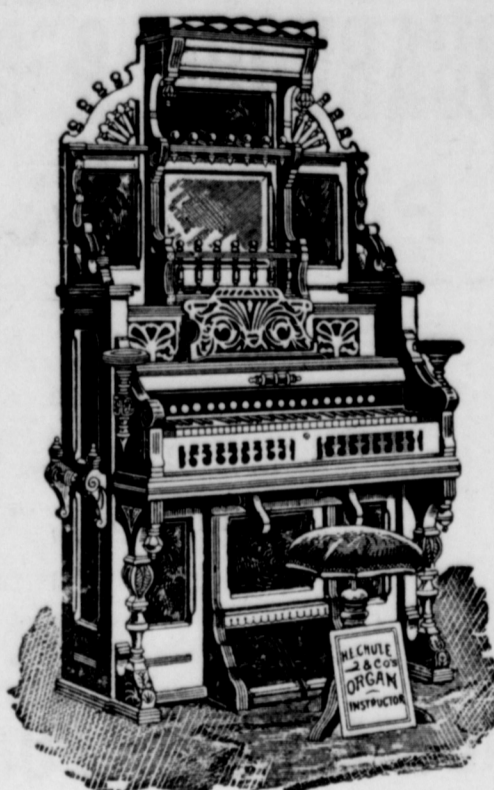

The members of the Orpheus Club entertained a number of their friends at supper on Friday evening at the Halifax hotel. The chair was occupied by Mr. George E. Boak, president of the club, and Lieut. Governor Daly was seated on his right. Mr. C. H. Porter read an original poem, many songs were sung, and altogether a very enjoyable evening was spent by all. Instrumental music was furnished by Mr. Maxwell and Dr. Howard Slatyer.

Miss Mary Whalen, of Pictou, is the guest of Mrs. McCawley, Argyle street.

Intelligence has been received of the death of Mr. John W. Fraser, brother of Mr. R. W. Fraser, of this city, which occurred at New York on Thursday last. Deceased leaves a widow and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brookfield, two children and nurse, left on Saturday in the Halifax City for England. They were accompanied by Miss Pearson, sister of Mrs. Brookfield.

Mr. J. A. Leaman, of this city, and Miss Jessie Field, of Truro, were married at that place on the 24th of September, Rev. Mr. Gregory officiating. Sapper was served immediately after the ceremony, after partaking of which, Mr. and Mrs. Leaman left on the evening train for their home in this city. They will reside on South Park street. Among the many handsome presents received by the bride were two silver fruit dishes, two silver berry sets, a handsome diamond brooch from the groom, a piano lamp from the employees in the firm of Leaman & Co., silver cake basket, silver pickle dish, silver cream pitcher and sugar bowl, gold sugar spoons, silver salt, pepper and mustard dishes, toilet set, silver napkin ring, table linen, sofa pillow, breakfast set, hand-painted plaque, clock, and a large silver tray.

Mrs. Beresford, widow of the late Major Beresford, left on Sunday last for England.

AMHERST. Oct. 3.—The dance given on Wednesday evening by Mrs. D. W. Douglas was exceptionally well attended as opportunities for tripping the "light fantastic" have been rather infrequent of late, not that the charming hostess ever gives parties that could in any way be pronounced dull, but when Miss Mollie Robinson, St. John, Miss Maud Hamington, Dorchester, and Miss Mabel Rennie, Sackville, were included among the usual number of fair guests it was certainly exceedingly pleasant. Mr. J. Douglas, the young host for whom the dance was given, left on Thursday for Montreal to attend college.

Mr. and Mrs. Harding entertained a number of guests on Friday evening at their home on Victoria street; a varied programme of amusements was in order and heartily enjoyed. The pleasant gathering was for their son Mr. Ernest Harding, prior to his departure for Montreal to enter McGill college.

Mr. Stanley Sutherland and bride, formerly Miss Gooden, of Baie Verte, arrived in town the last of the week from their wedding trip and have made their home in a pretty cottage on Allison street.

Mr. Sutherland and Mr. A. D. Ross, another recent groom, entertained their brother oddfellows to a capital oyster supper on Friday evening by way of celebrating their initiation into the order of Beneficials.

Mrs. Noel Steele and Miss Bessie Hickman, who have been spending a week in St. John, returned home with the Misses Steele.

Mrs. D. Robb gave a very pleasant afternoon tea at Maplehurst on Tuesday. The weather was not the best but the event, which was given in honor of Miss Sangton, who is visiting Mrs. G. O. J. Tupper, was very pleasantly enjoyed.

Miss Alice Page has gone to spend a few weeks with friends at Port Greville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page have returned from Halifax, where they spent the week attending the exhibition. Mr. Page was among the most successful exhibitors, bringing home a goodly number of prizes.

Miss Edna Moffat went to Oxford on Monday to pay a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Oxley.

Among our visitors on Thursday were Miss Ayer and Miss Baine, of Sackville.

Mrs. Geo. Cole arrived home on Monday from an extended visit to Parrsboro. Her sister, Mrs. York and children paid her a short visit on their return from a trip to Halifax and went to their home in Parrsboro on Wednesday.

Mr. J. B. Lawson, bookkeeper in Dunlop Bros., who went to Boston last week to spend his vacation, was summoned home on Tuesday on account of the death of his little son.

The marriage of Mrs. Crane and Mr. Read of Chicago was solemnized on Wednesday evening by the Rev. Mr. Williams, pastor of the Methodist church, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. H.

Tremaine, Havelock street. There were few guests present, among whom were the Messrs Craner from Boston, daughter of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Read took the evening train for their future home in Chicago, followed by the best wishes of the many friends of Mrs. Read, who are very sorry that she is to dwell so far from Amherst.

A parlor concert is among the pleasant things in store, much pleasure and good music being guaranteed to those who are present on Thursday and Friday evening at the Vicarage, Havelock street.

Still another wedding is announced on the taps. This time one of our popular business men is going to invest in the matrimonial lottery.

Mrs. W. Rice who has been paying a pleasant visit to her daughter Mrs. B. C. Munro, will leave on Thursday for her home in Bear River.

MARSH MELLOW. Oct. 2.—"Hillcrest," the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Tuesday evening, Sept. 25, on the occasion of the celebration of their crystal wedding. The home was prettily illuminated by colored lamps and Chinese lanterns. The guests invited and their remembrances were: Mr. J. E. Smith, hanging lamp; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Slade, set preserve dishes; Dr. and Mrs. D. N. Morrison, pie stand; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Treen, cabinet photo frame; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King, mustard cups; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. TRURO. [Progress is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. O. Fulton and D. H. Smith & Co.]

Oct. 3.—Mrs. Butcher and Miss Wright, New-castle, who were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. A. C. Patterson, at "Sunny Brae cottage," have returned home.

The party for "drive whist" given by Mrs. Patterson last Thursday evening in honor of her guests was a success in every way. Among those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Patterson's hospitality were: Mrs. McKay, Miss Tremaine, Miss Archibald, Miss Doggett, Miss Jean Crowe, Miss McLeod, Miss Romans, Messrs. Arthur Campbell, A. G. Campbell, W. Hornsby, Bowers, G. Hall, E. R. Stuart, and J. Crowe. The ladies' first prize, a pretty bachelorette, was won by Miss Tremaine. The gentlemen's first, a handsome meerschaum pipe by Mr. Bowers. Mrs. Patterson's supper was exquisite, offering every delicacy for her guests' enjoyment.

Mrs. E. C. Bigelow and Miss Sadie are enjoying a short visit with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Day and their young son, Master Jack O'Day, from New York, are expected here the last of the week to visit friends.

Mr. McColl and his wife, once Miss Gwen Main, of Amherst, were in town on Saturday last, en route to their future home in New Glasgow.

MAITLAND. [Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Urquhart.]

Oct. 3.—There was a brilliant gathering in St. David's Presbyterian church on Tuesday last to witness the marriage of Miss Susan P. Cox, fourth daughter of Wm. Cox, Esq., to Mr. James Wickwire, of Milford, N. S. The church was crowded to the door, all denominations in town being well represented. The pulpit and platform were tastefully decorated with a great profusion and variety of beautiful flowers. The organist of the church was present and perfectly charmed the lovers of music by her exquisite rendering of Mendelssohn's beautiful wedding march. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. C. Jack, M. A. The bride was dressed in ashes of roses silk with pale pink trimmings and looked charming. The groom was ably supported on the right by Mr. Parker, of Milford, on the left like duty was gracefully taken by Miss Wickwire, sister of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Wickwire left at 3.30 for their home in Milford, accompanied by the good wishes of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roy, Capt. and Mrs. H. D. McArthur, Capt. W. Lawrence and Mr. Alfred Putnam, M. P. P., were among the Maitlanders who attended the provincial exhibition at Halifax.

Mrs. Ambrose, of California, is in town the guest of her niece, Mrs. George Martin, at Trinity Rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Eaton are spending a few days in Parrsboro, the guest of their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Drillico.

Miss Abbie Eaton is spending the week among Truro friends.

WINDSOR. [Progress is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' Bookstore and by F. W. Dakin.]

Oct. 2.—Windsor has returned to its normal condition of quiet happiness, or happy quietness, the leaves are beginning to fall, and tennis and drives have almost passed from our thoughts. There are always a fair number of visitors attracted by the schools, "Edgehill," and the collegiate school for boys, both of which are doing well and growing in popularity both here and abroad.

Sir Charles Hibbert and Lady Tupper spent Wednesday here and were present at a little musical performance given by the Rev. Frank Taylor, of Montreal, to the collegiate school boys. Sir Charles has left his eldest son as a boarder at the school, of which he himself is an old pupil.

Major and Mrs. Weston from Halifax spent Sunday in Windsor, and Mr. F. D. Corbett was here on Saturday. Both Major Weston and Mr. Corbett have a child at each school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox have returned from a week's driving tour.

Rev. E. and Mrs. Clift left for New York early in the week, accompanied by Miss Mary Dimock.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Drysdale leave on Tuesday to spend the winter in Halifax, their departure is one of the most saddest indications of the approach of winter.

Miss Walter Lawson is spending a few weeks in Boston.

Mr. Jock Russell has returned to England, he has become very popular here during the summer and is greatly missed.

Professor Vroom is home from Weymouth and Dr. Willets from Grand Pre. The College opens this week and there are a fair number of entries among others the Mr. Leslie, who lately distinguished himself by heading the list of successful candidates at the Royal Military college, but who has since decided to take the engineering course at King's College.

Miss Bertie is paying a visit to her sister, Mrs. Jamieson.

DIGBY. [Progress is for sale in Digby by Mrs. Morse.]

Oct. 3.—Miss Susie Ruddock is visiting her mother and sisters.

Mrs. and Mrs. Murphy and the Misses Keefe have returned to Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Wade are receiving congratulations on the arrival at their home of a little son.

Holy Trinity church was the scene of an interesting event to-day, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Maud Crozier and Mr. Eber Turnbull of the firm of Turnbull and Walsh. The church which had been very prettily and tastefully decorated with flowers and by friends of the bride, was thronged to its utmost capacity. The ceremony took place at 12.30 p. m. and was performed by the Rev. Mr. Harley. The bride, attired in a handsome travelling suit of brown with hat to match, looked charming and was attended by her two little nieces as maids of honor. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Capt. J. A. C. DeBainard. After the ceremony the happy couple with the invited guests repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. DeBainard and partook of a sumptuous dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull left immediately after by steamer Monticello on a bridal tour followed by showers of rice and many good wishes for a long and happy life. The many beautiful and costly gifts attest to the great popularity and esteem in which the bride is held not only by people at home but abroad as well. I regret that time prevents me from a description of some of the beautiful presents, and of some of the costumes worn by the ladies.
