Oct. 8,- The most happy affair that society has enjoyed for some time, was the surprise party given to Mr. and Mrs. Todd, on Monday, by some fifty of their friends, who went together to congratulate them upon the fifteen anniversary of their wedding day. The party was arranged most carefully by Mrs. Todd's most intimate lady friends, and was a genuine surprise to both Mr. and Mrs. Todd, who did not forget even in the excitement of the arrival of so many, to give their usual cordial welcome to every guest. Mrs. Todd was presented with several handsome presents in cut glass, as souvenirs of her crystal wedding. Duplicate whist was the chief amusement during the evening. Supper was served at twelve o'clock. It was a most delightful evening to all. The following were the invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Todd, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Todd, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Inches, Dr. and Mrs. Whitney' Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. James Murroy, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Clarke, Miss Kate Bradnee, Miss Grace Stevens, Capt. and Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Wetmore, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew DeWolfe, Mr. and Mrs. John Algar, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. A very delightful dancing party was given tn Calls on Monday evening by five young ladies, the Misses Jones, Foster, Sawyer, McCullough and Mc-Artney at the beautiful home of their friend, Mrs. Charles Anderson. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, the bright autumn tints adding much to the brilliant scene of the ball room. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. George Curran, matronized the party and assisted greatly in making it a grand success. The young ladies all looked exceedingly well and many pleasant comments have been made upon the beauty and grace of several of our society belles. Fruit punch was served during the evening and ices and cake at eleven o'clock.

Mr. George J. Clark entertained most pleasantly last evening a party of young friends at tea. Dr. J. M. Deacon is spending a few days in St. John. Mrs. Deacon is visiting her parents. Rev. O. | Montreal, Toronto and New York, followed by the S. and Mrs. Newham, during his absence.

Bilious From Chlidhood.

Rev. Benjamin Hills, Pugwash, N. S., writes: "In a word I may say that K. D. C. has helped me more than anything else I have ever used. I have been bilious from childhood; for several years had rarely passed a week without a severe attacked of bilious colic, with intense pain at Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser, of River de Chute, the back of the head. These attacks | spent part of last week in town, the guests of Mr. usually followed my Sunday work. Since and Mrs. George Taylor. I began to use the K. D. C., I have scarcely had any return of biliousness and the attacks have been very light. I have had greater freedom from suffering since I began the use of a bottle of K. D. C. than for years past. I believe that the occasional use of a bottle of K. D. C. will keep me comparatively free from the old trouble. I thank you for calling my attention to K.
D. C. Had I tried it long ago it might have saved me years of suffering. I am glad to recommend it to fellow sufferers."

Friday.

Mrs. Ferris, of Chipman, who spent some weeks in town, returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Treadwell, St Andrews, are the guests of Mrs. W. R. Snow.

Miss Clara Shaw spent last week in twenty of the sufferers."

Miss S. Campbell, of New Richmond, P. Q., was visiting friends here last week.

Miss Nellie Asker was in Dalhousie several days last week visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonald returned from their wedding trip on Friday, spent a day in town, then proceeded to Dalhousie, where they will board at the "Clifton" for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reid, of Charlo, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. McGillvary McDonald for a day or two last week. Miss Robertson, of Cascapedia, P. Q, was visiting friends in town a few days. Miss Mary Barnes, who was the guest of her sister, Miss Martha Barnes at the "Lansdowne" for several weeks has returned to Boston. Miss Maude Lutes, who has been an invalid for several months, left last Thursday for Montreal, where she will undergo treatment at the Victoria hospital.

Miss Eliza Barberie, of Dalhousie, is visiting friends in town for a few days. Quite a number of cards were received on Thursday morning announcing the marriage of Mr. Aime LeBlanc, a former clerk for A. McKendrick, to Miss Libbie Bush, of Marinette, Wis. All friends extend their best congratulations.

Miss Mamie Moffat, of Dalhousie, was Miss Minnie O'Keefe's guest on Sunday.

Miss M. E. Brown, assisted by Miss Margaret Harper and Mr. H. E. Cole, of St. John, will give a recital in the Oddfellows' hall on Thursday, the 4th. No doubt the entertainment will be much appreciated, as Miss Brown is a graduate of Whitby College, and very highly spoken as an elocutionist. At the eve of the departure of their pastor Rev. J. L. McDonald the Catholic Order of Foresters headed by their new chaplain, Rev. E. P. Wallace, presented a well-filled purse to the former with a beautifully worded address showing forth the love and high esteem in which Rev. Father McDonald is held by his parishioners. After the address was read, they sat down to a bountiful supper, and speeches were the order for an hour or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mott left for Panama on Wednesday last, via Montreal and New York, from whence they sailed on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frenette arrived on Saturday morning from their bridal trip, and appeared in church on Sunday morning. At nine o'clock last Tuesday evening Mr. Albert Mott, M. P. P., barrister-at-law, was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Hengerson, eldest daughter of Mr. John Henderson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. F. Carr and took place at the bride's father's. The bride wore ivory figured silk, trimmed with lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and maiden hair ferns and more an elegant bracelet, the gift of the bridegroom. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Harper, was dressed in white crepon with lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She wore a handsome gold pin with pearl setting, the gift of the groom. The duties of the groomsman were performed by Dr. Lunam. A large number of guests, relatives of the contracting parties, were present. After the wedding supper the happy couple left town by the I. C. R. for best wishes of a large number of friends, in which your correspondent cordially joins. Following is a list of the presents: Handsome dinner sett; Mrs. William Mott, mother of the groom, J. Oct. 3 .- The choir of St. John's presbyterian church held a concert in their basement on Monday evening. Presbyterians as a rule turn out well in all concerts and entertainments given in connection with their church, but this time I think they must have forgotten to come, as the attendance was very small. The programme was a splendid one in every particular.

Extensive preparations are being made for the reception of General Booth, who will arrive in the city on the C. P. R. this afternoon from St. John. Upon the arrival of the train he will be given a public reception at the I. C. R. station. In the evening a mass meeting will be held in the Opera House, where addresses will be given by the clergy.

In addition to the usual ingredients of a first-class sauce this one contains pure Pepsin, which is nature's remedy for Indigestion, hence it is invaluable to all sufferers from that distressing complaint and they should use it with every meal. Dr. Schacht, president of the "Apotheker Verein," in a paper read before that scientific body at Berlin, in 1873, referred to LORRIMER'S SAUCE in term of highest praise, and recommended it in preference to any other form of Pepsin either in wines, essences or other forms.
