On Saturday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. John Duffus gave a large reception at their resi. dence, Kent street, tn celebration of it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The guests included all the connections of the family and the intimate friends of the host and hostess. All present enjoyed themselves thoroughly, and as it was Saturday evening the company dispersed at the early hour of twelve o'clock. Very many pretty Mrs. Duffus. The dresses worn by the fair sex were extremely pretty. Mrs. Duffus was formerly a Miss Ferguson, of St. John.

Mrs. W. H. Martell is making a short visit to Boston, Mass.

Mrs. J. H. Seaton, of this city, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Tupper, at Truro, N. S.

Miss Sinclair, of Lachaber, Antigonish, left on Wednesday last for Trinidad, where she will enter | pleasant feature of the entertainment was the duet upon her duties as presbyterian missionary. She sailed in the Duart Castle.

Mrs. J. G. Stevens and daughter, Miss Edith, who have been spending some time with friends here, have returned to their home at St. Stephen, in the mysteries of tripping the light fantastic. N.B.

Miss Ennis, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Baxter and Mr. C. McDougail spent last week in St. John. Rev. T. C. Mellor, formerly rector of Christ's church, is the guest of Mr. C. E. Creighton, Octer-loney street, Dartmouth. Mrs. William Duffus left this week for England, where she will spend some months with her daughters, Mrs. Trowbridge and Mrs. Middlemas. Mr. and Mrs. James Morrow, who have been spending some weeks in New York, returned home this week.

The concert given by Miss Florence Muir and her pupils on Thursday evening was a great success. There was a large audience, and an excellent programme was carried out. Those who took part were Miss Wilson, Miss Robb, Miss Bishop, Miss Judge, Miss Dear, Miss Boreham, Miss McCurdy, Miss McPherson, Miss Ada Watts, Miss Theakston, Miss Freda Morrison, and Miss L. Keating.

Rev. J. M. Robinson, of Moncton, was in the city over Sunday, and occupied the pulpit of St. Audrew's church; while W. M. Fraser of Coburg road church, filled Mr. Robinson's pulpit at Moncton.

The choir of the baptist church is working under difficulties and cannot be expected to do fine work with a piano accompaniment in a small hall. Mrs. C. O. Tupper d rects most capably and we can be assured there will be no failure.

Mrs. James Bent is seriously iil at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Ratchford. Her son, Mr. F. P. Bent of Halifax was sent for and at present no hope for her recovery is entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Hayward have the sympathy of the community in he death of their daugh . ter Grace, which occurred on Thursday evening after a short illness. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. Rev. D. McGregor and Rev. Estabrooks conducted the service at the house and Rev. C. Wiggins the services at Christ church and at the grave. Many beautiful floral offerings were received among them was a pille w of white chrysan themums from the school mates of the academy who with their teachers Mr.E. J. Lay and Mr. McTavish, marched in procession wearing their school colors, which were dropped upon the casket as a last tribute to their young friend.
