Mr. John South End. A brilliant society event, which has been looked forward to with much interest, took place on Thursday evening when Miss Nellie Cushing, eldest daughter of the late Mr. G. Byron Cushing, eldest of the bank of Nova Scotia. The marriage took place in St. Andrew's church, and long before the hour fixed for the wedding, 8 o'clock, the spacious edifice was filled, every seat with the exception of those reserved for the guests being occupied. It is seldom such a taste in floral decoration is displayed as that which met the eye as one entered the church. Two arches were erected over each aisle, composed of apple and cherry blossoms, which were brought from the Annapolis valley; hanging from the arch on the left, under which the bridal party passed on entering the church, was suspended the letter C. for Cushing, and on the right arch under which they passed out, the letter W. for Wilson. The platform and pulpit was one mass of flowers and suspended across the church directly over where the marriage took place hung a large floral bell made of apple blossoms and white lilies. Bands of pink ribbon separated the seats of the invited guests from those of the rest of the congregation.

The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. George Cushing, and looked most lovely in a bridal gown of the richest cream brocade satin, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses; the long tulle veil was thrown back of her face. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Cushing, and her cousin, Miss Annie Scammell, both looking charming in dresses of pale pink sarah silk, white chip hats trimmed with pink ostrich feathers. Mr. Charles T. Hare acted as best man, while Mr. Fred MacNeil, Mr. R. Cruikshank, Mr. Kellie Jones and Mr. James Gregory took the part of ushers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. G. MacNeil, and was most impressive. The choir sang a wedding hymn, and Mr. Fisher played several selections in his usual finished style. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, Queen square, the rooms being profusely decorated with palms and flowers.

Among the guests present were: Mrs. G. Byron Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. George Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scammell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scammell, Miss Scammell, Mr. and Mrs. Rankine, Gen. and Mrs. Warner, Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, and many others.

Much to the regret of the citizens of St. John, H. M. S. "Blake" and H. M. S. "Tartar" steamed out of the harbor on Tuesday morning.
