Mrs. W. D. Main, Mrs. James Purdy, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. T. S. Moore, Mrs. K. Morrison, Mrs. Tremain, Mrs. McGregor, Miss Wilson and Miss Maggie Purdy were also among the guests, but I

Trueman were also present. The bride's travelling gown was composed of brown cloth with vest of white and a very becoming hat of brown straw trimmed with moire ribbon. If their future happiness can be guaged by the quantity of rice showered on the happy couple at the depot there are good days in store for them. The wedding tour includes St. John, Boston, New York and possibly Virginia, when they return to their already furnished residence in town, a fact I announce with great pleasure since it has been quite the rule ately for our brides to make a home elsewhere.
Mr. Walter Moore, of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Halifax, has been appointed to the branch in Jamaica and will leave shortly to fill his new situation. His friends wish him success in the tropics.

On June 2rd a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Capt. Edward Lovitt, the participant in the ev. nt being his elder daughter, Miss A. May Lovitt, who was united in marriage to Henry A. Killam, son of Frank Killam, Esq. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Langille. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. One very pretty feature in the decorations was a bell made of pansies under which the nuptial knot was tied. The bride wore a hand-some costume of brown ladies' cloth, trimmed with moire silk of the same shade, as also did her brides-maid, Miss Mabel Cann. Charles A. Brown acted as groomsman. After the ceremony and congratula tions, all wended their way to the dining room where a sumptous collation awaited them. The groom's gift to the bride was a very handsome china tea set and piano, to the bridesmaid a dainty pansy brooch with diamond centre, to the groomsman, a pretty sears pin. Yarmouth is not to lose one of its fair daughters this time, as Mr. and Mrs. Killam intend residing in town on their return. Midst showers of rice, crack of torpedos and considerable display of different sizes of footwear the happy couple departed on a trip through Nova Scotia. if one can believe in the old adage, viz., "Happy is the bride that the sunshines on, then Mrs. Killam's future life will indeed be a bright one; that it may be so is the ernest wish of her many friends.
