JUNE 6 .- One of the prettiest entertainments that has been enjoyed here for some time, was the flora entertainment given in Elder Memorial hall on Fri day evening by a number of little girls, who are members of the Band of Hope. Some of the recitations were exceedingly good, especially that of Miss Mollie Mac Monagle, who shows a remarkable talent for one so young. Misses Connie Chipman, Florence Mitchell, and Winnifred Todd also received much praise for the way they rendered their parts in the entertainment. The singing of Misses Ivy Smith and Alice DeWolf quite delighted the audience. It was a most pleasing and delightful affair, and Mrs. George Clarke and Mrs. A. I. Teed, who have spent weeks of time and patience in arranging and directing it, should be congratulated upon the great success of it. Friends of Miss Alice Boardman on the St. Croix are greatly pleased to hear of her success at the Cowles Art school in Boston. Toothache, the most common and one of the most painful affections, is instantly cured by the application of Polson's Nerviline. Polson's Nerviline is a combination of powerful anodynes, and it strikes at once to the nerves, soothing them and affording in one minute total relief from pain. Mothers, try it for your children's toothache. Nerviline is sold in 10 and 25 cent bottles by all druggists.

A lady will sometimes spend hours selecting dress goods. She is not desirous of giving trouble at all. But there are conflicting claims. There are considerations of durability, of texture, of drapping. Priestley's dress tabrics have reached a niche in the popular esteem when conflict ceases to vex. It is enough to get Priestley's black dress goods to feel confident that you have the best. They wear better than any other make.

JUNE 5 .- Mr. W. S. Stewart returned home from Ottawa on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Rennie Laird, who has been in Charlottetown for the past month, went to bummerside on Sunday afternoon by steamer "Northumberland." Miss Florrie Findlay favored the teachers and pupils of Prince street school with several recitations on Friday. "Patsey" and "The Goberlins Will Get Yer," were especially appreciated; all express d themselver as delighted with the entertainment, and seemed fully sensible of Miss Findlay's kindness. She is an old Upper Prince street school giri, and Friday's performance probably afforded her as much pleasure as it did her audience.

Mr. H. L. Hall, of the "Acadie," was in town one day last week. "On dit" that we are to have a dance next week

Mrs. Will Hazard arrived on Wednesday evening for a long visit. She is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Benj. Rogers, at "Fairnolm." Mrs. Rogers completed the move last week, and is now established in her beautiful new home, which is certainly Rev. W. B. King, who has been the guest for few days of Mr. Justice Hodgson, left on Saturday for his home, Cambridge, Mass.

Miss Maud Ball and Mr. J. P. Ball, who were called home on account of the sudden death of their father, arrived on Thursday evening. Mr.W. L. Cotton went to Wellington on Saturday.

I hear that Miss Minnia Palmer's entertainment has fallen through. This is to be regretted, for her entertainments are always great successes in every way. Perhaps Miss Palmer will find it easier to gather a programme in the autumn. Mr and Mrs. Archibald Kennedy left on Saturday for Scotland. They will be gone several months.

Mr. J. R.Moore crossed from Pictou on Saturday. Dr. Taylor arrived home from New York on Wednesday evening. He had a three week's holi-Mr. William Weeks of Brighton, who has been ill for several months, died on Saturday afternoon and was buried on Tuesday. This is the second death that has occurred in the family within a year. Mrs. Weeks died last June, after a very short illness.

Mrs. John Ings and Mr. Ernest Ings crossed to the mainland on Saturday by the Northumberland.
Mr. John S. Mellish and Mr. Waiter P. Douil have returned home from Sackville.

Capt. Alexander Cameron has been given command of the steamer Northumberland. He will be much missed by those who travel via Pictou for he is decidedly popular. I have no doubt, however, that Capt. A. McLean, who takes Capt. Cameron's place will soon win his way to the hearts of the travelling public Mrs. Rupert Norton gave a small whist party last week, for Miss Florence Earle.

Mr. Warren J. Miller arrived home on Saturday from California, where he has been spending the winter. Mr. Miller is much improved in health. The entertainment and strawberry festival held in St. Paul's school room on Friday evening was a thorough success. The programme—ice cream and strawberries not included—was a Longfellow one and was well carried out. It was divided into two parts, between which the strawberries were sandwiched. This part of the entertainment was under the superintendence of Mrs. J. J. Davies that it was well looked after "va sans dire." The straw-berries were simply delicious. Miss Gertrude Davies gave a selection from Evangeline in a clear sweet voice, her rendition of the death bed scene was particularly good. The duet by Mrs. E. H. Norton and Miss Edna encored. "The Village Blacksmith" as sung by Mr. Hanlyn was much appreciated, as was also Mr. Bayfielde's solo, for which he received a well merited encore, but the "piece de resistancê" was certainly the duet "Excelsior" by Messrs F. Miss Ada Ayer, of the ladies' college, left on Monday for her home in Boston. Much regret is expressed at Miss Ayer's departure, as we are not cheered by the prospect of her return, she having accepted a more lucrative position elsewhere. Miss Ayer, by her charming manner, has endeared herself to the people of Sackville, who wish her every success in her new sphere. Mr. Chas. Chisholm will fill Miss Ayer's place.

Dr. Sangster who has been absent for some weeks in Chicago returned on Monday.

Miss Mary Robinson who has been the guest of Mrs. James Rainnie, left for her home in Digby, on Wednesday.

Miss Laura Smith is visiting triends in Shediac. A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnzed in the methodist church on Wednesday atternoon, when Mr. Humphrey Pickard led to the altar one of Sackvirle's fairest daughters, in the person of Miss Bessie Black. The bride was most becomingly attred in her going away gown of brown and green with a very chic hat to match. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion and suitable music rendered. The bride and groom amid showers of rice and the best wishes of their numerous friends took the Western bound C. P. R. for quite an extended tour. On their return they will take up their residence at a charming little cottage on

Mrs. Durward Lely will appear in the Oddfellow's More than a word of praise should be given to Fraulein Lachswho so ably entertained and charmed her audience with her rich and sweetly expressive voice last evening. Every one of her selections received a hearty encore, to which she pleasingly responded, "The last rose of summer" being unanimousely acknowledged as the gem in her repertoire. Miss Lach looked very pretty in a decollette cos-tume of steel grey silk. Miss Margaret Harper, who made her home here for a year or two and counts hosts of friends, was warmly greeted when she made her appearance, looking exceeding well in a becoming costume of cream cashmere. There is a very marked improvement in Miss Harper's voice and her several songs were exceeding well rendered. Miss Margaret Goodwin immediately won the hearts of all by her bright and captivating manner. She wore white crepon and moire antique sash. Her voice is extremely sweet and melodious and was much admired. Miss Mabel Hillson accompanied, and also gave two piano solos which were highly appreciated. were highly appreciated.
