Afternoon teas seem to have been the order of last week. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Troop gave a pleasant tea, at which many of her friends enjoyed themselves, and the same afternoon Mrs. Charles Archibald was "at home" to her friends. Mrs. Daly gave a tea on Wednesday at the government house, and on Thursday Mrs. Montgomery-Moore entertained her friends.

There is to be a dance at the Admiralty house on Thursday evening which, of course, will be a success with Lady Hopkins as hostess.

Mr. J. H. Austin, who has been visiting Mr. Frank Crowe, at Upper Granville, returned home this week.

Rev. E. S. Hatton, D. D., of Dallas, Texas, was in the city last week, and on Sunday occupied the pulpit of the Cornwallis street baptist church.

Mr. William Nisbett has returned from a pleasant visit to Cape Breton.

There was a touching scene on Tuesday afternoon when the children of the north end school assembled in their playground and planted a tree, dedicating it as a token of sympathy with supervisor McKay, whose death occurred suddenly last week.

The marriage of Mr. William Muir to Miss Isabella Knight, daughter of the late Mr. William Knight, took place on Thursday last at the residence of the bride's mother, Victoria road. Rev. Alfred Gandier performed the ceremony. The marriage was very quiet, only the personal friends of the contracting parties being present. Mr. and Mrs. Muir left on a short trip.

Mr. John Anderson and Mr. Arthur E. Hyde, of Dartmouth, who have been spending a few weeks in Boston, returned home this week.

There was a large dance given by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Quirk, at their residence, Spring Garden road, on Thursday evening of last week, at which some two hundred guests were present. The rooms were very prettily decorated, and brilliantly lighted. The entire lower floor was used for dancing, the programme for which was as follows:

An event which has been looked foreward to with great interest for some time took place in St. Luke's church this morning when Miss Evelyn Arnaud and Mr. A. D. Howat were united in marriage. The bride looked exceedingly pretty in a dress of cream silk trimmed with lace and veil and orange blossoms.

The bridesmaids were the three younger sisters of the bride, and were becomingly dressed in cream cashmere. The bride carried a large bouquet of chrysanthums and the maids cream roses. Mr. Louise Whitman acted as best man, and the little Miss Arnauds were escorted by their two brothers. The church was tastefully decorated by friends of the bride with flowers ferns and an arch of autumn leaves, and Mrs. Malcolm played Mendelssohn's wedding march by request. That Miss Arnaud was a general favorite was evident from the numerous presents which she received from friends at home and abroad. The happy couple left on the city of Monticello for a trip through the Upper provinces, the bride's travelling dress being of navy blue serge trimmed with moire.

The greatest event in society for a long time occurred on Friday morning of last week when Mr. Bois De Veber, the popular agent of the Halifax banking Co., of New Glasgow, and Miss Edith Carmichael of this town were married. The marriage took place at "Seabank," and the house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride looked charming in a white satin gown trimmed with white chiffon with point lace veil and orange blossoms, and carried a magnificent boquet of white roses beautifully tied with white satin ribbon. The bride's sister, Miss Maggie Carmichael, acted as bridesmaid and wore a lovely pink gown and carried a boquet of pink roses. Little Miss Kate Fraser was maid of honor in a dress of cream surah silk. Mr. T. R. Blair, of St. John, N. B., was groomsman. Rev. Mr. Falconer, assisted by Rev. Mr. Carson, performed the ceremony and the bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. James W. Carmichael, of New Glasgow. Immediately after luncheon Mr. and Mrs. DeVeber left for a trip through Upper Canada. A large number of intimate friends of the contracting parties were present at the marriage, among whom were Mrs. DeVeber, mother of the groom, Mr and Mrs. R. P. Fraser, Rev. and Mrs. Falconer, Rev. and Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Stewart, Dr. Stewart, Miss Fraser, Miss Falconer, Prof. Falconer, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ives and others, including a number of New Glasgow folk. The presents which the bride received were very numerous and costly, showing highly the appreciation in which she is held by her many friends.

On Friday afternoon the Misses Carmichael were at home from four to six o'clock to a large number of their friends. A delicious tea was served and a pleasant spent by every one present. Time would fail me to give a complete list of the guests but I shall endeavor to name some of those present: Mrs. F. W. Fraser, Mrs. W. Gordon, Mrs. E. M. Macdonald, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. C. Ives, Mrs. S. Dawson, Mrs. J. McG. Stewart, Mrs. Glennie, Mrs. W. H. McLaren, Mrs. K. J. Grant, Mrs. G. I. McKenzie, Mrs. J. H. McMillan.
