E. G. SCOVIL, AGENT PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE, ST. JOHN, N. B.
 DEAR SIR,—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicine. I would not be without it in the house.
 Yours, JAMES H. DAY, Day's Landing, Kings Co.

St. Andrew's church was the scene of a brilliant and interesting wedding on Thursday evening when Mr. B. Kellie Jones, son of Mr. Simon Jones, was united in marriage to Miss Elsie J. Cushing, daughter of the late Mr. G. B. Cushing. The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and plants, and directly over the heads of the young couple hung a pretty floral bell. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. George S. Cushing. She was attired in a handsome gown of white satin, with lace trimmings, tulle veil, and wore diamond ornaments. The bridesmaids were Miss Edna Jones, Miss Bessie Robertson, and Miss Gertrude Allison. All wore dresses of yellow silk, white hats, trimmed with yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. George W. Jones, brother of the groom, was best man. At the wedding party entered the church the organist, Mr. Fisher, rendered Schubert's "Rosa mond." Then "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" was sung, after which Rev. L. G. MacNeil performed the ceremony. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the party left the church. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, Queen square.

The groom's present to the bride was a diamond star, and to the bridesmaids gold padlock bracelets. The presents from the brothers and sisters was a large silver chest, from the groom's father, a check for a large amount. As a memento of the occasion the bride presented each of the ushers with a pretty card case. The ushers were Messrs. Simon Jones, F. C. Jones, and W. C. Rankine. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left on the evening train for the States. They will visit Boston, New York, Washington, Baltimore, and Pittsburg.
