Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Wickwire gave a very those present with some very admirable examples, pleasant five o'clock tea at their handsome house on of the Emmerson and Delsartian metheds. These Morris street. The large rooms were filled to over- ladies expect to train a class for an exhibition of the flowing by about two hundred and fifty guests. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Wickwire were assisted in nians. Mrs. F. A. Lawrence made a most affable their duties as hostesses by Miss Wickwire and Miss B. Taylor.

The officers of the King's also gave an exhibition of sports at the Crescents' grounds Wednesday afternoon. Owing to the showery afternoon the attendance was not as large as it might have been otherwise.

Mrs. Crawford held a fancy sale at her house on Morris, for the benefit of the missionary fund.

Saturday there were still two more teas, one at Mrs. H. Troop's, Victoria road, the other at Bellevue. At both places there was a fair number of guests, who had nearly all just come from witnessing the exciting football match between the Wanderers and the navy.

Invitations are out for a large dance at Admiralty house on the 25th of this month. The ships are to leave on the 31st.

A very interesting ceremony was performed at Robie street methodist church at the early hour of half past six Tuesday morning when Mr. B. W. Caldwell and Miss S. H. Caldwell were married. The Rev. S. W. Smith performed the ceremony. The bride, who looked very well in a gown of brown cloth with hat to match, was attended by Miss Lizzie Huestis, who was also gowned in brown. Mr. H. W. Cameron supported the bridegroom. The bride and groom were both members of the choir which was in attendance. Mr. W. F. Compton played the wedding march. The bride was the fortunate recipient of many handsome and useful presents. A large number of friends assemblied at the station to wish the happy pair good luck. The honeymoon is to be spent in Boston.

The groom was a member of the W. H. Johnson Piano Co. A string of flags across Granville street from the warerooms is in honor of the event.

The death of Mrs. McKay, wife of Mr. A. McKay, supervisor of schools, occurred yesterday. The cause of this sad event is supposed to be typhoid fever. The deceased lady's last illness was quite short and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved
