Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Barker will tomorrow evening give a sail down river and dinner at Hotel De Monts, to a large party of young people, friends of their daughter, Miss Carrie Barker. The party will sail to St. Andrews spend an hour in that pleasant town and return to De Monts to dine and dance.

One of the pleasantest entertainments of the week was the tennis tea and lawn party given by Mrs. Henry Graham and Miss Alice Graham. Tennis occupied the first part of the afternoon and at six o'clock a dainty tea was served on the lawn, which is a particularly handsome one and well adapted to an entertainment of this sort. There were some thirty or forty guests present from both sides of the river who enjoyed themselves greatly. The party was given for the amusement of the Misses Warner, of St. John, who were Mrs. C. H. Clarke's guests during the past three weeks. Miss Graham is a most graceful young hostess and her parties are always most delightful and novel.

Collector Graham, and Mr. C. W. Young made arrangements for an excursion to Frye's island today, but the storm of last evening changed all plans, and it is postponed until a later date. About eighty ladies and gentlemen made up the party.

The Misses Warner and Mr. Jack Warner returned to their home in St. John on Saturday. They made many friends during their short stay here who greatly regret their departure.

The death of Mr. Camron Gillespie, at the early age of 35, was a great loss to the community.

He was the oldest son of Mr. William Gillespie, of Moore's Mills. He had been ill for several months and passed the entire winter and spring in Denver, Colorado, in search of health, hoping the soft air of that place would restore him to strength. He returned to his home in May. He was a most estimable and estimable young man, and was greatly loved and respected by all who knew him. He was a great student and at the time of his illness, had just entered upon a four year course in the New Brunswick university.

The funeral services were held at his late home on Saturday afternoon.

The death of Mr. Frederick Burpee, on Monday evening, although anticipated for several days, was at the last very sudden and a great shock to his friends and the community.

Mr. Burpee was born in Ireland, and came to Canada with his daughter Mrs. Baxter who only arrived from England a few hours before he passed away. Mrs. Burpee, and her daughter, have the saddest bereavement. A short funeral service was held at his late residence yesterday afternoon and this morning the body was taken to the cemetery for interment.

About thirty sorrowing men, who were employed by Mr. Burpee in his granite business, followed the hearse to the depot, to express their sympathy and esteem in which they held their late employer.

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence in follow d by a case of cholera, dysentery, griping &c. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their hearts content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

It is not well known that Sarah Bernhardt was once employed as a dressmaker's apprentice.

The Best Pills.—Mr. Wm. Vandervoort, Sydney Crossing, Ont., writes: "We have been using Farnelle's Pills, and find them by far the best. Pills we ever used." For Delicate and Debilitated Constitutions these Pills act like a charm. Taken in small doses, the effect is both a tonic and a stimulant, and the secretions of the body, giving tone and vigor.

Diplomacy.—Contributor: "Where is that poem of mine you promised to publish and didn't?"

Editor: "Um sorry, but burglars entered the office last week, and took all the valuables they could lay their hands on."

Rev. J. B. Hull, Florence, writes: "I have great pleasure in testifying to the good effects which I have experienced from the use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia, and several years nearly all kinds of foods fermented on my stomach, so that after eating I had very distressing sensations, but from the time I commenced the use of the Vegetable Discovery I obtained relief."

Jess—"You said you were going to speak to father when you saw him at the club."

Jack said him only once, and then he was $200 behind the game.

Tell the Dead.—Mr. J. F. Kellogg, Druggist, Perth, writes: "A customer of mine having been cured of deafness by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti, wrote to Ireland, telling his friends of the cure. In consequence, I received an order to send him a dozen by express to Wexford, Ireland, this week."

"Max O'Reil," the well known humorist, never during the same period, precisely the same words, some of his best satirical flashes being given off on the inspiration of the moment. He has toured in almost every quarter of the globe, the proceeds of his lectures in some places totalling up to very large amounts.

The great results which have attended the regular use of Quinine wine, by people of delicate constitution and those affected with a general prostration of the system, speak more than all the words that we can say in its behalf. This article is a true medicine and a life giving principle—a perfect renovator of the whole system—invigorating at the same time both body and mind. Its medicinal properties are a febrile tonic and antiperiodic. Small doses, frequently repeated, strengthen the pulse, create an appetite, enables you to obtain refreshing sleep, and to feel and know that every fibre and tissue of your system is being toned and renovated. In Quinine Wine, prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, we have the exact tonic required; and to persons of weak and nervous constitutions we would say, Never be without a bottle in the house. It is sold by all druggists.

An Irish verdict was "Guilty, with some little doubt whether he is the man."

The superiority of Mother Graves' Worm Expeller is shown by its good effect on the children. Purchase a bottle and give it a trial. Every man thinks he would become famous if he had $200 behind to write poetry.

THE IDEAL HOLIDAY PLAY-GROUND ON THE AMERICA'S CONTINENT IS THE LAND OF EVANGELINE, with cool temperate summer days, ozone-laden breezes, scenery mirrored in LONGFELLOW'S verse, and the most hospitable of people. It is a land of enchantment, of lakes and streams, valleys and mountains. Wherever one wanders old OCEAN is always within hail. It is the artist's wonderland, the Tourist's paradise, the Sportsman's arena, and has the best climate on the foot-stool. Always travel by

THE LAND OF EVANGELINE ROUTE and don't fail to write for illustrated guide-books, gratis post free, and all further information to

HORSEMEN, Read this.

I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT in my stable for over a year, and consider it the VERY BEST for horse flesh I can get, and would strongly recommend it to all horsemen.
