On Monday afternoon Mrs. F. Jones gave a pleasant skating party at Williams' Lake. The ice was in perfect condition, and the guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Andrews also gave a skating party this week, on Tuesday afternoon. There was another skating party to have been given on Wednesday afternoon by the King's regiment, but owing to the unfavorable weather it had to be postponed until some future occasion.

The many friends of Mr. F. B. Bent, of this city, sympathize with him in the loss of his mother, whose death occurred at Amherst on Saturday last.

Mr. Charles Woolnough leaves this week for the West Indies, in hopes that the warm climate may be beneficial to his health.

Mrs. Redden, of this city, is staying with her mother, Mrs. John Keith, at Lunenburg.

Hon. Mrs. Montgomery Moore is ill at Montreal, and will not be able to return to the city before the New Year.

Mrs. John Taylor leaves this week for Jamaica, where she will visit her daughter.

Mrs. Wickwire entertained her friends at an afternoon tea on Thursday. In the evening dancing was indulged in by the young people.

Rev. T. C. Mellor, formerly of Christ's church, Dartmouth, and who has been spending some time in the city, left this week for Guysboro. As a token of their esteem his friends in this city presented him with a handsome fur coat and cap, accompanied by an address wishing him every success and happiness in his future life.

The dinner which was to have been given on January 27, by St. John's masonic lodge, will be postponed a week on account of the death of Sir John Thompson.

Rev. J. S. Black, of Montreal, spent last Sunday in the city, and occupied the pulpit of St. Andrews church.

The funeral of the late Rev. J. F. Smith took place from his late residence, Ochlerstone street, on Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Wilkinson and Rev. Mr. Ruggles.

In St. Andrews church on Friday evening last there was an enjoyable concert given. The house was well filled and an excellent programme was rendered. Among those who took part were, Mr. R. Norman, Miss Bligh, Mrs. H. B. Hagarty, Mr. Wilson, Mr. H. B. Hagarty, Mr. S. Crawford, Miss McNab, and Mr. Cumming, assisted by the Academy of Music orchestra.

Mrs. J. C. McMahon gave a large "at home" on Friday afternoon at her residence, 54 Hollis street, from 4.30 to seven o'clock. About two hundred guests were present.

The funeral of the late James A. M. Carroll, took place from his late residence, Grafton street on Friday afternoon, and was very largely attended. St. Patrick's H. C. T. A. & B. society, of which the deceased was a member, preceded the hearse. Mr. Carroll was also a member of St. Mary's Young Men society, which society also attended in full membership.

The recital of the Doering-Brauer Conservatory of Music on Saturday evening at St. Luke's hall was a great success. An excellent programme was carried out, unexceptionally good work being done by the performers. Among those who took part were: Miss Mand Shelling, Miss Doyle, Miss Minnie O'Brien, Miss Clara Dennis, Miss Ada Hoyt, Miss Bessie Cutlip, Miss Florrie Juden, Master Frank Woodbury, Miss Alice Currie, The Misses Lawlor, Mr. Stephen, Miss Sophie Lewis, Mr. Alex. Hobecker, Master Heinrich Schultze, Herr and Frau Doering, Miss Tozer, and others.

TRURO.

[Progress is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. O. Fulton and D. H. Smith & Co.]

Dec. 18.—Mr. Johnson Patrick, of the Dominion Coal company, Glace Bay, C. B., who has been visiting friends in Cumberland was in town a few days last week a guest of his cousin, Miss Mattie Jones.

Quite a number of students are home from the different colleges, for the Xmas recess. Among them Miss Helen Robbins from the Presbyterian college, Halifax, Miss Marion Longworth and the Misses Archibald, from Sackville, N. B., Mr. Harry Kaulbach and Masters Luther MacDonald and Walter Muir from Windsor and Master Jack Muir, from the collegiate school at Rothesay, N. B.

The Cribbage club met last night at Ashton house. The dance last Thursday night, in Senator McKay's hall, Inglis street, was the most pleasant, impromptu dance for some time. It was gotten up by Messrs. Williams and Hornsby, whose very capable arrangements made it the pronounced success that it was. Miss Ada Crowe furnished the music, which was in her usual brilliant and artistic style.

The chapters of the evening were: Mrs. Martin Dickie and Mrs. D. B. Cummings. Mrs. Dickie received in a very rich toilette of brown velvet, with bodice and bouffant sleeves, of pink silk, Mrs. Cummings golden brouth plush, bodice and sleeves of pink silk. Mrs. S. E. Gourley, black satin green velvet sleeves, Mrs. E. H. Wilson, black satin and garnet velvet, Miss Yorston, cream cashmere, very pretty; Miss Snook, pink silk white gaze overdress; Miss Wiswell, Nile green and black, Miss Fannie Yull, black satin, with sleeves, of very light green velvet; Miss Mabel McKenzie, very pretty gown of Nile green crepon. Among others present were:—Mrs. Henry Blair, Mrs. Geo. Blair (Boston), Mrs. H. W. Crowe, Miss John Crowe, Miss Roman, the Misses McNaughton, Misses Ross and McLean, Misses McLeod, Dr. F. S. Yorston Messrs. S. E. Gourley, S. W. Crowe, W. D. Bowers, Hornsby, Williams, Putnam, W. Crowe, J. Crowe, L. Crowe, B. Graham, E. Fulton, E. Corbett. It was regretted by all that some of the lovely presences usually met with at these reunions were unavoidably absent, the dread intelligence of the calamity, of Sir John Thompson's death having plunged some of our first families into a grief, that will for the present admit of no indulgence, in functions of a social character.

Mrs. Fred Prince and master Harry, are expected home from their prolonged s'journ, in the West, on Saturday next.

The death of Mr. Eliakim Tuoper, warden for this county, which occurred at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Lorenzo Ellis, Queen street, yesterday morning, is a matter of sincere regret to an extremely large circle of personal friends.

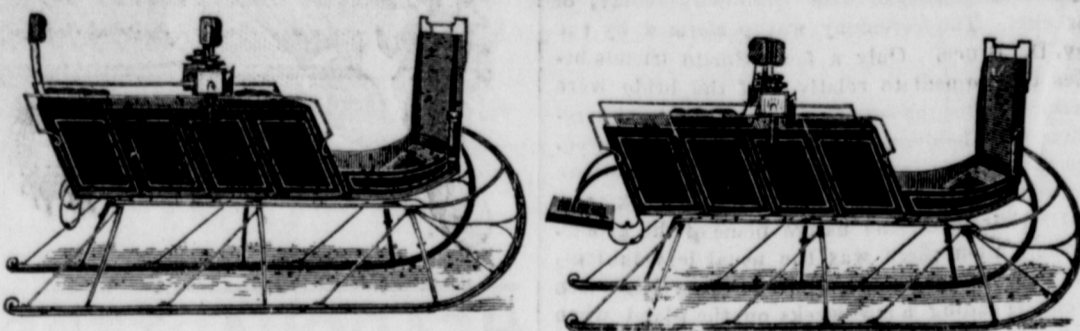

Mrs. Kempton Stewart, New Glasgow, was in town for a day or two this week.

Mrs. A. J. Walker is in Kentville, where she was summoned because of the sudden and very serious illness of her niece, Mrs. Ralph Eaton. Prog.

Mrs. Des Jardins entertained friends with tea Thursday.

Mr. Jas. Eastwood returned from Ontario last week.

The cantata "David the Shepherd Boy" to be given by the "Philharmonic society" Thursday night, is creating no small amount of excitement this week, so much indeed, that parties have become things of the past. A big expense has been entailed and a crowded house is expected. It promises to be a great treat to the music loving people of Nova Scotia. The following are the names of those to whom part have been assigned: Abigail, Miss Eva Grant; Attendants, Miss Gray, Miss Mickle, Mrs. John Underwood; David—Hedley Musgrave; Jesse—J. W. Stewart; Samuel—W. Ross; Saul—J. Fisher Grant; Elder—J. Fisher Grant; Abner—H. Redpath; Messenger—J. E. McDonald; Warriors—A. Fraser, H. Redpath, J. W. Stewart; Quartette of Shepherds—Dr. Wright, H. Redpath, J. E. McDonald, J. W. Stewart; Sentinels—H. Redpath, A. P. Douglas. The chorus as well as the characters will appear in many colored oriental costumes and the gentlemen as shepherds. They will no doubt look charming. Much praise is due to Mr. Clarke for his excellent management and to Mrs. Clarke for the making of all the costumes.

The children of the Baptist church Sunday school had their annual Christmas entertainment. It took the form of a tree this year which was just loaded with good things which "Santa Claus" distributed among the children, each of the children were told to bring a pound of anything in the line of eatables and as a result a large number of parcels were on hand from tree to date; these will be given to the poor of the church. The remaining part of the programme was provided by the children the little tots doing remarkably well. CHATTERBOX.
