St. John—South End. St. Paul's (Valley) church was the scene of a pretty though quiet wedding at the early hour of seven o'clock on Wednesday morning, when Rev. Canon DeVeber, assisted by Rev. A. G. H. Dicker, performed the ceremony which united Mr. Andrew Jack and Miss Louie DeVeber, as man and wife. The bride was attired in a handsome lawn dress with trimmings of brown silk, and wore a hat to match. She also carried a large bouquet of white roses. Miss Beatrice DeVeber, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a pretty brown dress with trimmings of black lace. Mr. D. J. McDonald, of Sydney, Cape Breton, was groomsmen. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers, ferns, etc., by the friends of the bride. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jack, left for a trip to Boston and New York. They expect to be away about two weeks, and on their return will reside on Hazen street. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of bearskin furs, and to the bridesmaid he gave a pretty coral ring. Another pretty wedding was that which took place in St. Andrew's church early Wednesday morning, at which the principals were Mr. G. Brenton Sutherland, of New Glasgow, N. S., and Miss Jeanie Louise Bell, daughter of Mr. C. W. Bell, Hazen street. Rev. L. G. MacNeill performed the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome beaver cloth dress of brown color, and was attended by her little sister, Miss Gretchen Bell, who wore a pretty of cream crepon and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Boston and New York, and will return in about two weeks. They will receive their friends at the Clifton House on the 24th and 25th of October, and at New Glasgow after the 4th of November. They received many handsome and valuable presents, among them the following: Set table mats, oak leaf pattern in white and gold, Mrs. Fred Sumner, Moncton; picture, Master Walker H. Bell; picture, Master D. S. Bell; case, Miss Abbie Bell; bed spread, Mr. and Mrs. D. Magee; pair of blankets, Mrs. S. Crandall, Moncton; tray cloth, Mrs. J. Rodgers, Moncton; toilet mats, Miss Macdougall; silver B. knife, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald; linen d'oleys, Miss May Fleming; five o'clock table cover, Mrs. R. B. Hale; sums of money from Mr. S. Crandall (Moncton), Miss Besie White and Mr. White (Oronoco); Mexican worked handkerchiefs, Mr. A. D. Grant; Dresden china plates, Mrs. James Arthur; silver fruit spoon, Mr. and Mrs. Stocker; silver jewel box, Mr. H. H. Magee; silver fruit spoon, Mr. S. Girvan; picture, Miss Jennie Fraser; silver breakfast castors, the Misses Magee; carving set, silver mounted, Mr. Willard Thompson, North Sydney, C. B.; parlor lamp, Mrs. Isabelle Robertson, Moncton; china tea set and water pitcher, Mrs. Beatty, Moncton; piano lamp, Miss Annie Knox; carving set, Mr. George Robertson, Moncton; tea caddy, Miss McColl, New Glasgow; case of solid silver tea spoons, the Balboogie club; case of solid silver tea spoons, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Magee; silver coffee spoons, Mrs. H. H. McLean; silver egg cups, stand and spoons, Mr. and Mrs. W. Givray; silver pickle stand, Miss Sadie Golding; Dresden china chocolate set, Miss Anna Sutherland, New Glasgow; silver card receiver, Miss Evelyn and Mabel Peters; silver and glass butter cooler, Miss May Cunningham; satin ware fruit dish, Mrs. J. Fenwick Fraser; pair silver salt cellars and spoons, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rennie, New Glasgow; silver tea knives, Mr. Fred Robertson, Moncton, and a handsome set of black martens furs from the groom. Many other handsome presents are awaiting Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland in their new home.

Yet another wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning, that of Mr. Fred C. Melick to Miss Annie Watson, which took place at the residence of the bride's father, Peters street, Rev. L. G. MacNeill officiating. The bride was gowned in a handsome blue travelling costume, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Melick left on the Monticello for a trip to Boston and New York, via Yarmouth. They will reside at Mrs. Seely's, Sewell street.
