NEW GLASGOW.

[PROGRESS is for sale in New Glasgow by A. O. Pritchard and H. H. Henderson.]

Oct. 10 .- Not only a very pretty wedding, but one that for some time has been anxiously looked for by society, was solemnized at "Riverbank," the residence of "The Graham Frasers," on Wednesday morning of last week, at 10 o'clock, when the marriage of Miss E. Isabelle Fraser and Dr. George Townsend, "Brookside," took place. The bride, who is a general favorite, was given away by her father. She wore an exquisite gown of white moussline de soie, her tulle veil being held in place by orange blossoms. Miss Ada Fraser, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was composed of orange faille and satin. Miss Jean Fraser wore a pretty gown of cream silk crepon, trimmed with heavy silk cord. The bride's mother wore a very handsome gown of heavy black silk.

To describe the floral decorations would be im possible. I can only say the balconies, halls, and parlors were flower laden. The interesting ceremony was performed under a bell of white roses and smilax, Rev. Mr. Carruthers officiating. For half an hour after the ceremony-and previous to breakfast being announced-the bridal party held a reception, after which the bride retired to change her wedding dress for a travelling costume of dark green cloth, hardsomely trin med with sable, hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. George Townsend, accompanied by the guests, then drove to the wharf, where the yacht "Volunda," gaily decorated with flags, awaited them. They sailed to Pictou, then went on an extended tour of the Upper provinces. The bride's presents were particularly handsome, among them being a solid silver tea service from the James church choir.

The guests were : - Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Drake, Mr. and Mrs. J. R.
