

DIGBY.

[Progress is for sale in Digby by Mrs. Morse.]
Oct. 9.—Miss Flora and Annie Kaye, who have been spending the last four months in Digby, returned to St. John last week.
Miss Weldon has returned to Boston.
Miss Emily Dakin has gone to visit friends in Boston.

Mrs. Spencer and two little daughters, after spending the summer with Mrs. DeBainhard, have returned to their home in New Hampshire.
Mrs. John Bingham, of Yarmouth, is in town.
Mrs. Dyer, of Digby, and her children, and Miss Dakin and Miss Cassie Bonnell left on Tuesday for their home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Mrs. Pitts, Miss Pitts and Mrs. Drake, who spent the summer here, guests at the Myrtle House, left for Boston on Monday.
Mrs. H. Dakin is visiting friends in Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. J. C. Wade is quite seriously ill at the residence of her son, A. V. Wade.

Miss Lottie Gilpin has almost entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Violet Irvin, of Grandville Ferry, is visiting Miss Helen Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bell are on a trip to New York.

Miss Janet Dakin, of Boston, is spending a few days with her mother here.

Mrs. Corbett has been visiting Mrs. Wood.

Miss Olivia Wright left on Saturday for a visit to her sister in Woburn, Mass.

Rev. Mr. Osborne and family, who spent the summer in Digby, left for their home in New York last week.

Mr. Vincent Hogan, of Weymouth, passed through here last week on his way to resume medical studies at McGill college, Montreal.

Major Daley has returned from a trip to Boston.

LOCKEPORT.

[Progress is for sale at Lockeport at the "Nimble Sixpence"]

Oct. 8.—The county exhibition at Shelburne was the source of attraction for a large number of Lockeportians last Wednesday and Thursday.

Among those from this town were Mrs. R. B. MacKay, Mrs. Howard Locke, Mrs. Enoch Churchill, Mrs. Capstick, Mrs. Payant, Miss Florie McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harkins, Mr. and Mrs. Stickle (Boston), Miss Gertrude Hammond, Mr. F. Jamieson, Dr. Frank Irwin, Mr. E. McMillan, Messrs. Stanley Locke, Henry Bill, Charlie Richardson and Geo. Chadsey. The last named gentlemen went on their wheels.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stickle, of Boston, are spending a part of their bridal tour with relatives in town. Mrs. Stickle was formerly Miss May Hammond, of Lockeport.

Mr. Lockwood, of Canning, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Lockwood.

Mrs. Lawrence Eaton, of Canard, is visiting relatives in town.

Rev. Adoniram Brown leaves tomorrow on a visit to his old home in New Jersey.

Mrs. Thomas Robertson, of Barrington, is the guest of Mrs. Jas. Allen.

Mrs. White and family, who were visiting Mrs. Allen, this summer, have returned to Montreal.

Capt. J. Nickerson left last week to take charge of the City of Kingston.

Mr. Macroe and Miss Johnson, of Shelburne, were in town Saturday. Other Shelburnians in town that day were Mrs. Hastings, Freeman, Commodore Spain (Cutter Acadia), and Messrs. Allen and MacNeil.

ANNAPOLIS.

[Progress is for sale in Annapolis by Geo. K. Thompson & Co., and by A. E. Atlee, at the Royal Dock Store.]

Oct. 9.—Miss Jessie Stewart of Digby, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. W. M. DeBlous is in Boston.

Miss Edith Corbett is home from school in Windsor.

Mrs. Shaw has given up her house, and gone to Round Hill. Miss Letitia Shaw has gone to Boston for the winter.

Mrs. Ritchie has returned from spending a week in Halifax.

Miss Maud Crozier's many friends in her old home extend congratulations and good wishes to her on her marriage to Mr. G. Turnbull, of Digby.

BAIE VERTE.

Oct. 9.—Mrs. Stanley Sutherland was the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. C. Gooden, on Thursday.

Mr. George McKean, of St. John, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. Greenfield, of Amherst, was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Black last week.

Mrs. Black, of Dorchester, visited her sister Mrs. Neil Prescott for a few days last week.

Miss Elsie Harper went to Amherst on Thursday to visit Mrs. Stanley Sutherland.

Mr. Albert Copp went to Parnborough on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reid returned from St. John on Monday.

Miss Ella Copp went to Moncton on Wednesday to attend the teachers' institute.

Mr. Joseph Reid is confined to the house with a sprained foot.

Mrs. Thomas returned from Summerside, P. E. I., on Saturday, where she had been attending the Methodist missionary convention.

Councillor Copp and William Prescott, collector of customs, went to Sackville today to attend the agricultural exhibition.

A successful basket social was held at Clifford Copp's, Main Road, on Tuesday evening, fifteen dollars being raised for the Rev. A. H. Lavers.

BONAS.

CAMPOBELLO.

Oct. 9.—Miss Coral Batson, who has been at Mrs. Owen Parker's the past summer, returned to Boston on Wednesday.

Mrs. Silas Dasher and her brother Harry Townsend are in Boston for a few weeks, visiting friends and relatives in that vicinity.

The last of the cottagers have left the island and things begin to wear their winter appearance.

Messrs. Robt. Allingham and Owen Parker were in St. Andrews, Saturday.

Miss Cochran of St. Stephen is on the island, accompanied by her brother, who will stay several days.

Miss Lizzie Calder has arrived here from Boston and will stay several weeks.

Great preparations are being made here for the second annual "Fish fair" to be held on 17th and 18th inst.

Miss F. Maliboland of the "Narrows" is at Mr. Geo. A. Batson's.

Mr. Donovan of St. Stephen came down on steamer "Arbutus" Saturday.

INCOS.

HARCOURT.

Oct. 9.—Mrs. Euphemia Graham, who has been residing in the town, at the time of his death, is visiting her old friends here.

Mrs. John Clarke, of Newcastle, Mrs. J. W. Morton and Miss Clarke, of Kent Junction, were guests of Mrs. J. McLeod, last evening.

Mrs. Andrew McIntosh has been seriously ill the past few days.

Mrs. Robert Morton, of Acadville, spent Sunday in Harcourt, the guest of Mrs. B. McLeod.

Sheriff Legere was here yesterday and today. Mr. James Brown was indisposed and confined to his home part of last week.

REV. W. A. NEWCOMBE.

Thomaston, Maine, writes: Suffering from indigestion when in Nova Scotia a year ago, a package of K. D. C. was given me. I cheerfully acknowledge that the effect of the remedy in curing the trouble was very marked and prompt, as well as lasting.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of O. P. Treat's.]

Oct. 10.—The ladies of Calais at the Young Men's Recreation club, enjoyed a delightful evening on Thursday last, as the guests of Mrs. W. H. Nichols, and it was generally pronounced to be the jolliest evening the club had ever spent.

Misses Lizzie and Helen MacNeil gave a rarebit party to several friends on Thursday evening, to meet their friends, Mrs. J. B. Bass, Mrs. Parkhurst, of Bangor, and Col. Osgood, of Lewiston, Me.

Miss Bessie Foster entertained a large number of her young friends with a picnic dinner at Locust Grove on Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Benton gave a most pleasant tea party at the residence of her father, Mr. John Murchie, on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moran entertained a party of friends on Thursday evening. Dancing was the chief amusement.

A most happy wedding party gathered at the residence of Mrs. James Ganong, last Thursday morning, to witness the marriage of her eldest daughter, Miss Katherine Ganong, to Rev. Howard Whidden. The house was most beautifully decorated with flowers, especially the drawing and dining rooms, which were a bower of loveliness. The bride wore a handsome travelling costume of navy blue with hat to match. She was attended by her two nieces, Miss Cecil Craig and Rene Brown. There was no groomsmen, and the guests consisted principally of all the girl and school friends of the bride. The Rev. W. C. Goucher performed the marriage ceremony. Immediately followed the wedding breakfast, and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Whidden left in the eleven train for Montreal en route to Winnipeg, their future home. There were numerous wedding gifts which were most beautiful. The gift of the groom was a lovely brooch in crescent shape set with pearls. Miss Ganong was one of our most esteemed young ladies, and it is a general regret that she makes her future home abroad.

Miss Kate Nelson enjoys the popularity of being president of the Glee Club connected with Wellesley College, where she is a pupil.

Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Albert Malone are visiting friends in Boston this week.

Mrs. Mary S. Main left on Monday morning to visit friends in St. John.

Mrs. Deinstadt has gone to Fredericton to spend a few days among relatives there.

Mrs. Sodge Webber and Mrs. Jones have returned from a delightful visit in St. Andrews.

Dr. J. Edmund Brown left on Monday for Providence, where he will reside permanently. Mrs. Brown and her children will remain here during the winter.

Miss Rebecca Morrison, of St. Andrews, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Mary McGregor, of Fredericton, spent a few days with her cousin, Mrs. Nehemiah Marks, during the past week.

Dr. Stephen Webber, who is to be married this month to Miss Mary Rideout, one of the popular young ladies in Calais, has decided to make his home in that city. As principal of the high school, Dr. Webber was very popular, and his friends learn of his decision to remain on the St. Croix with pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and their daughter Edith are home again after a pleasant visit in Portland, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd and Mrs. Bolton went to St. Andrews yesterday to attend the wedding of Miss Christie Stevenson to Mr. Douglas Wetmore, which takes place today in All Saints' church, in that town.

Mrs. J. B. Bass, and Mrs. Parkhurst, of Bangor, are the guests of Mrs. Archibald MacNeil.

Mr. W. B. Grant left on Monday for Boston, after a visit of two weeks with his parents here. Mr. Grant is one of the many St. Stephen young men who have been successful in the States and during his visit home received many hearty welcomes from his numerous friends.

Miss Mary Bixby made a brief visit with her friend Miss Kate Grant, during this week.

Miss Jennie Reek, of Augusta, is visiting friends in Calais.

Miss Mary Wadsworth is visiting her cousin Miss Julia Kelly.

General S. D. Leavitt, of Eastport, made a brief visit in Calais, on Monday.

The guests of Mrs. MacNeil, for the amusement of their guests, Mrs. Parkhurst, arranged a carriage drive to Robbinston on Thursday, which was a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gates have returned to their winter home, in New York City. They will be greatly missed among their friends in Calais.

Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Eaton, of Providence, and their young daughter, and Miss Helen Parks, are visiting friends in Calais.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bailey have gone to Boston, and New York, to spend a fortnight.

Miss Cotter has returned from a most delightful visit which she spent in Fredericton and St. John.

Dr. R. K. Ross has returned from a pleasant visit in St. Andrews.

Mrs. W. Trott King, of Portland, Maine, has arrived in Calais, and with her daughter Miss Edith King will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Duren.

Mrs. John Hodgins has returned to Ottawa, after spending the summer in Calais with her father Judge Downes.

Mrs. Howard Crocker, who has spent the summer with her mother Mrs. Leonard Peabody, has returned to her home in Minneapolis.

Miss Hamm left on Monday for a visit in Boston and New York City.

Dr. P. E. Seymour's friends are glad to see him back, greatly improved in health.

Mr. Willis G. Patch has been spending a few days in Calais with Mrs. Patch and their children. On Monday they left for their home in Bangor. During their stay they were the guests of Miss Alice Pike.

The Messrs Mary and Helen Newton and their friend May Whitten, left during the week for Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham of Halifax are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Hill.

Mrs. W. A. Murchie has returned from a week spent in Boston.

Mr. H. H. Hart, of Chicago is visiting relatives in Calais.

Miss Alice Nichols has arrived from St. John, where she spent a month.

Miss Hattie Knight, of Musquash, is visiting in Calais, the guest of Mrs. D. E. Seymour.

Mr. John Prescott is slowly but surely improving from his long and serious illness.

Mrs. A. L. Clapp entertained Mrs. Helen Rice during her stay in Calais. Mrs. Rice lectured in the congregational church on Sunday evening, her subject being juvenile work in the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Durell Grimmer returned to her home in St. Andrews on Saturday, after a most delightful visit among relatives here.

Mr. Heber Todd, who has been visiting here has returned to Boston.

Mr. W. H. Edwards' friends are pleased to see about town, and attending to business again.

Mr. W. A. Magee, of St. Andrews, was in town on Monday and registered at the Windsor.

The death of Dr. W. H. Todd after a most painful illness occurred on Sunday afternoon. He was the second son of the late Hon. William Todd, of Milltown. Dr. Todd will be greatly missed both professionally and among his friends. He was one of our most esteemed citizens and occupied many important positions in the town, at the time of his death was president of the St. Stephen Bank, a position he had held for many years. He was educated at Bowdoin College, and he also spent four years in Edinburgh, Scotland, where he attended the College of medicine and surgery, he graduated with honors. On his return to St. Stephen he married

Miss Mary Ellen Porter, daughter of Mr. George M. Porter, who after a brief married life died, leaving one daughter, Miss Ellen Todd. He afterwards married Miss Harriett Houghton, who with his daughter survives him. The funeral services were held from his late residence at eleven o'clock on Tuesday morning. The floral tributes were most beautiful set by sorrowing and sympathizing friends and were most appropriate to the memory of so worthy a man.

Mrs. Beverly Stevens is visiting relatives in St. John during this week.

It is a fashionable fad among the ladies to visit the woods, to collect ferns, mosses and autumn leaves for winter decorations. The beauty of Monday tempted several parties to the woods, who enjoyed the day exceedingly.

Rev. A. M. McKenzie of Charlottetown, P. E. I., has been given a call to become the pastor of the congregation of the Presbyterian church.

CAMPBELLTON.

[Progress is for sale in Campbellton at the store of A. E. Alexander, wholesale and retail dealer in dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, hardware, school books, stationery, furniture, carriages and machinery.]

Oct. 9.—Mrs. William Rennels has returned from a lengthy visit to friends in Halifax, and Truro.

Miss Ida Cyr, of Maria, P. Q., who was the guest of Mrs. Henry McIntyre for a week, has returned home.

Miss Grace Venner's friends were glad to welcome her home on Thursday last, after a delightful visit with relatives in Quebec.

Mrs. William Mott left on Saturday for Bathurst, where she intends to remain several weeks.

Mrs. Charles Powell, of Dalhousie, visited Campbellton on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Price, Miss Price and Master Joe left on Saturday for Montreal to be absent for a few weeks.

Miss Alice Mowat is back from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

Miss Emma Thomson left last Wednesday evening for a short trip to Moncton and St. John.

Mrs. Daniel Desmond was in Dalhousie yesterday.

Miss Gertrude Jardine is welcomed home after a couple of weeks spent in Newcasttle.

Mr. Harry Patterson, of the Bank of Nova Scotia and Mr. James Johnson, of the I. C. R. office, went to Quebec on Saturday last, and will also visit Montreal, Toronto and Niagara Falls, before returning.

Mrs. Kilgove Shives who spent a couple of weeks in St. John, returned home the beginning of last week.

Mrs. S. H. Lingley, accompanied by little Miss Hazel, returned last evening from a short visit to friends in Bathurst.

Mrs. Clement, of Montreal, who visited her daughter, Sister Clement, of the Hotel Dieu Hospital, went home on Monday night.

Mrs. Edward Delaney, who spent two weeks in St. John and Hampton, came home last Wednesday.

I regret to hear that Rev. J. L. McDonald is still confined to his room through illness.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Sabies was at the Churchdome on Sunday last and held service in bell tower.

Mr. I. Hazen Murray, of McMill University, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. W. M. Currie, were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett's guests for a few days last week.

It is whispered that in the near future we are to lose a prominent member of one of our church choirs who will leave us to make happy the home of a reverend gentleman in the southern part of our province.

Mrs. T. Clifford, of Bathurst, was the guest of Miss Bella Devereaux for a week or so.

Mrs. A. K. Thomson spent last week in St. John. Principal Lewis and Misses Mary Kay, Edith McKinnon, Martha Barnes, Cassie Thompson, and Lizzie Cook attended the meeting of the teachers' institute at River Louisbourg on Thursday and Friday last.