The marriage of Rev. Laurence E. Skye, of Toronto, to Miss Mary Kellogg, daughter of the late Rev. S. Benson Kellogg, was solemnized in St. Paul's church on Thursday afternoon of last week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dymally Hagan and Rev. F. Wilkinson. The church was very tastefully decorated with plants, flowers and ferns. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of cream silk, with tulle veil. Miss E. Kellogg, sister of the bride, Miss F. Bowman, Miss K. Payzant and Miss Bremner acted as bridesmaids. They all wore dresses of white crepe and black hats. The groomsmen were Rev. Beverly Smith, of Rothesay, N. B., and Rev. N. Irwin Perry, curate of St. Paul's church. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mrs. Kellogg.

The news was received this week of the death of Mr. George Pendergast, which occurred at Boston, on the 17th inst. Mr. Pendergast left Halifax about three years ago. He died suddenly leaving a wife and three children.

AMHERST.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by Charles Hillcoat and at the music store of H. A. Hillcoat.]

MAY 22.—The 24th will be rather a brisk day with us if everything moves on in the order intended. Foremost in the events of the day will be the horse races at the park. The A. M. B. band have a fine programme of athletic games, &c., to come off on the fair grounds, and there are several other minor affairs proposed for the holiday, but all controlled by the weather.

A tennis club has been organized with Mr. D. W. Douglass, president; Mr. J. H. Morrison, vice-president; Mr. John Curry, secretary; Mr. C. O. Tupper, Mrs. F. B. Robb, Miss Ethel Main, Miss Lowerison, Messrs. Borden, Main, Ross and Harding, executive committee. With the management in the hands of the above list which includes some of our best players, we can safely anticipate a delightful season for the lovers of tennis.

On Wednesday evening Agnes Knox gave a recital in the Y. M. C. A. hall to a rather small audience. The talented elocutionist if rewarded according to ability should have been greeted with a house packed to the door, all of whom would have been charmed with the manner the varied programme was given in.

Arbor day brought all the pupils to the academy in full force, each looking as if they were on a most important mission.

The exercises in the assembly hall were very creditable to the young folks and their teachers, a large number of visitors being present to witness the ceremony, and if it is a fixed rule in the annual routine of the academy with as large a donation of trees as were planted last year, Principal Lay will soon have to extend his territory.

Miss Nellie Moore went to Boston on Friday to visit her sisters for a few weeks, after which she will visit another sister residing in New York. Miss Moore is one of our brightest and prettiest young women and will be generally missed in the city during her intention of remaining in Boston for the future.

Mr. Edgar Hewson who has been studying law in Halifax has returned to Amherst, to study in the office of Townshend, Dickey & Rogers.

Col. James of Baltimore was the guest of Mrs. A. W. Ayer for a few days last week.

Prof. Max Sterne has organized a musical society with the view of putting the opera Pinafore on sometime in July. Nothing would be more acceptable to the public for the past year than to have in that line for a long time, and every one at all interested should give all possible assistance in making it a success. Mrs. C. A. Tupper will take the part of Josephine, Miss Mrs. Buttercup, Sir Joseph will be personated by Mayor Curry, Mr. John Curry, the captain, and other important parts are not fitted that I know of, but without doubt will be our best singers.

LADIES' COLLEGE NOTES.

SACKVILLE, MAY 23.—Just one week more and the final breaking up day will be here, the day of bustle and joyful anticipation that yet has an undertone of sadness. During the long winter each day is struck off the calendar with satisfaction by many but when the last day of the school year arrives the satisfaction is largely mingled with regret. Even the most thoughtless, as she picks up her bag and neatly rolled sunshade, en route for the station, turns and takes a farewell, loving glance at her cosy room. It is somewhat dismaying to note where many of the low chair by the pleasant window where many a lesson has been learned, the little table at which exercises and home letters have been written, the lamp, over which she and her room-mate have managed to cook many a toothsome mess, the mirror that has often reflected her fresh face and dainty attire, all are endeared by many a happy association.

And then the saying goodbye to teachers and schoolmates is the hardest of all for those who do not return, for once scattered in their various homes they can but hope to meet again, but seldom and many will be "as ships that pass in the night."

It is a matter of great regret to all that Miss Ayer does not come back, her place being filled by Mr. Chisholm. Five years ago when Mr. Chisholm went to Germany it was agreed that the position was to be kept open for him, whenever he wished to return. He was the first violin teacher at Mt. Allison and did excellent work but in his absence the department got very much run down till Miss Ayer took charge and brought the music up to its present high standard and it will be a great advantage for him to resume with such a well trained class. Mr. Chisholm brings the highest recommendations from Germany, where he played first violin in the court orchestra at Stuttgart. He has taken lessons of Julius Eichberg and was a pupil of Edmund Singer who is concert master and violin virtuoso to the court of Wirttemberg and formerly concert master for Russia. He also studied under Dr. Paul Klengel, court kapellmeister, and J. Anton Meyer and Prof. Carl Doppller, for several years director of the grand opera.

Mr. Landon, has also decided not to return, much to the sorrow of many for the place of so thorough an instructor will be hard to fill. He has never in Sackville played in public as he does not profess to be a concert player but he is a born teacher and has the faculty of bringing out the best in his pupils and making the most indifferent and lazy work.

He has a strong leaning toward the literary aspect of music, and is a constant contributor to several musical publications. One had only to attend his lectures to be aware of the large mass of information he has at his command. It is his regret that Mr. Landon will not be here longer but we must resign ourselves with the thought that others will gain by his loss.

There will be an unusually large number of visitors at the closing this year. Mrs. Harrison is expecting Mr. and Mrs. Mayes and Herr Walker from St. John and several of the lady graduates and students expect friends or parents. Among them are Miss Troy, both Misses Laine both Misses Laine, and Mrs. E. C. Cole, of Moncton. Only members of the college have been invited to the closing.

Mrs. Borden's hospitality is unbounded but accommodations for visitors is quite the reverse. The addition of a new hall, which has been made every year or so, are always promptly filled and owing to the large number of students there is but very few unoccupied sleeping apartments. Any one desirous of seeing the interior of the college has only to call and may be sure of receiving a most cordial welcome.

The largest entertainment of the year, given by the ladies' college takes place on Saturday evening. The "grand reception" and the conversation of the alumni and alumni societies have been merged in one, and the combination makes a most pleasant evening. Only the boys and girls are for the persistent promenade with the jostling that is unavoidable in so large a crowd. Now after a short time spent in the drawing-room, where one has a chance of meeting friends old and new, everyone repairs to Beethoven hall, where a regular programme of vocal and instrumental music, and speeches are given. On this occasion both Mrs. Harrison and Miss Laine are to sing. No formal invitations are ever issued for this evening, it is an understood thing that all friends and patrons of the institution are welcome.

Dr. Borden has been making the road to learning a little more easy to travel. On York street the hill has been reduced under the sidewalk and an ugly little jogg that has gathered a rich harvest of tumbles and "words" has been removed, making the walk quite level. The Jacob's ladder has also been replaced by board planks, possibly because the "angels" did not often go in that direction. A powerful electric light has been placed over the front door of the college, and on dark nights it shines as a good deed in a naughty world.

Mr. Albert Hensley, of Halifax, arrived on Thursday to attend his brother's funeral.

Miss Emma Bee returned on Saturday from her New Brunswick visit.

The Queen's birthday is to be rather a quiet one this year, but there are many private fishing, driving parties, etc., on the lake and river.

Captain Wright has returned from a trip to Montreal and Halifax, looking much the better for his holiday.

Miss Minnie Palmer is busily engaged just now in organizing an entertainment, which she will put on in the opera house sometime in June, for the benefit of St. John's church. The programme will be a varied one, and will consist of choruses, dances, comic songs and recitations. I have no doubt that it will be a good one, for Miss Palmer is usually very successful in anything she undertakes.

Mr. Arthur Perkins, of Colorado Springs, is in the city visiting friends.

The past week was quite a gay one at the opera house, for the Jubilee singers and Prof. Bristol each had two or three evenings.

Saturday afternoon was a fete day for the little ones, and great was the wonder and delight of the children who with their mothers witnessed the performances of the educated horses.

"Gentlemen—In April last, through the effects of a dose of strychnine taken in mistake for another drug, I was laid up in St. John, N. B., for ten days. After this I never seemed to regain my former health, and continually suffered from indigestion and heart palpitation, for which I could get no relief. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
