The residence of Mr. Thomas Duncanson, Church street, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday morning, when his daughter, Miss Caroline Duncanson, was united to Mr. John H. Buiton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Gandier, of Fort Massey church. The bride wore a handsome dress of cream silk, with embroidered tulle veil, and carried a beautiful bouquet. The bridesmaids were Miss Cowie, Miss Florence Smith, and Miss Elsie Silver. All wore dresses of cream silk. Miss Cowie carried a bouquet similar to that of the bride, and the little bride's maids, Miss Silver and Miss Smith carried baskets of flowers. Dr. Smith of Dartmouth was groomsman. Only the relatives of the principal parties were present, among them being, Mr. and Mrs. John Burton, Mr. and Mrs. 222 to 228 Main St., Henry Burton, Dr. and Mrs. Cowie, Mrs. William Silver, Mrs. Blight, Ottawa, Miss Smith, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Goudge, Mrs. Gordon, Miss Grace Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Wurzburg, Mr. Wittingham. Luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Burton left for a trip through the upper province. They will be absent about six weeks, and will visit Ottawa, Toronto, Quebec and a few of the Eastern states. Mr. and Mrs. Burton will reside on Green street after their return. AMHERST. [PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by Charles Hullcoat and at the music store of H. A. Hillcoat.] The closing of the high school on Friday afternoon was attended by a goodly number of visitors who were greatly pleased with the efforts of the clever pupils who had the honor of taking part in the first formal closing of the Academy. Three teachers retire from the staff at the close of this term whose places will be difficult to fill. Miss Beharrel retires with a view to a happier vocation, Mr. Ross as I before remarked will go into business, and Mr. Ford-well, it is just doubtful about future movements, as I hear he has more than one idea and I will wait to see which takes precedence. He was presented by a beautiful album containing the photographs of the class. Miss Alice Thalem and Miss Emily Christie per formed the pleasant task of contering the tribute of their respect to a teacher who has faithfully labo red in the school for many years. It is difficult to learn much from Principal Lay's countenance but I just fancy satisfaction lurked in the corner of his eye at capital deportment of those under his control. Mrs.W. D. Main, Holm cottage, has gone to Truro o visit her daughter Mrs. Bishop.

Mrs. B. C. Munro, was called home from Bear River where she was visiting her parents last week by the sudden death of her infant son. Mr. Harvey Type has gone to Guelph, Ont., to pay a visit to his former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Chapman were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Chapman for a few days. Mr. C. Bulmer went to Sallisbury on Wednesday, to take charge of a station. Miss Jessie McLeod went to Truro on Monday for a lengthy visit.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Bent spent Friday in Dorchester visiting friends.

Mrs. John Mowatt, and little daughier Catherine, went to St. Stephen on Friday to spend several weeks with her parents.

Mrs. Barron, of London, Ont., is among our recent welcome visitors. At present she is stopping with her friend, Mrs. F. Robb, Havelock street. Mrs. E. Biden went to St. John on Tuesday even-ing to be present at the burial of Mr. McLeod, who was drowned on Monday. Mrs. McLeod is Mrs. Biden's niece and sister of Mrs. Cook (nee Miss Turnbull), who made many friends in Amherst dur-ing her pleasant visit last summer.

ing her pleasant visit last summer. Mrs. James Brown and Miss Brown have gone for a few days' stay in Springhill. Mr. Brown is at present in Cape Breton. Miss Laura Johnston went to Parrsboro the first of the week to visit Dr. and Mrs. Townshend. Mr. Hemmeon, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bent, Hillside cottage, returned to his nome in Dartmouth on Friday.

Miss Isabel Moore delighted her host of friends with her welcome presence last week, but I regret to hear her visit will not be as long as they would has sold her pretty home on Victoria street, and purposes moving to Boston in the autumn. Miss Crane of Boston is the guest of her sister

Donald. Miss Minnie Gray, New Glasgow, is visiting her friend, Miss Mary McDonald, at present.

Messrs. Hornsby and Fraser were in Halifax, from Saturday until Monday night. The fuaeral of the late Frederick Loughead, son of Mr. R. A. Louzhead, who met his death so sadly and so suddenly Wednesday afternoon by drowning in Salmon river, took place on Friday afternoon and was the largest ever seen here. The young man's sudden death when just on the verge of manhood, and giving every promise of a brilliant career, was so inexpressibly sad as to excite the sympathy of the entire community. The floral tributes from relatives and friends, and from classmates and fellow-students in the academy were very beautiful.

The pall-bearers, of whom there were very beauthul. The pall-bearers, of whom there were double rows were, Messrs. Blanchard, McCurdy, Herb. Miss. May McKenzie, Halifax, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. P. McNeill. Mr. Joseph Cook entertained a number of lady friends, very delightfully, on Friday evening last.

A very large and representitive audience attended the concert on Friday evening last given by the pupils of St. John's Convent. The Hall was tastefully decorated with plants, many prettily shaded lamps added much to the brightness, throwing a roseate hue over the dainty white dresses of the fair performers. The instrumental pieces were all brilliantly played on two pianos and organ, drums &c., being added occasionally, giving quite a military sound. The musicians were : the Misses McNeill, the Misses McKarracher, the Misses Bent, the Misses Daisy Bell, Florence Bailey, Jessie Douglas,

M. McDonald, A. Laurie, Isabel McArthur, Maggie Dwyer, Messrs. Willie Cameron and George Dixon. Eight little ones, ranging in years from three to six, charmingly gowned to represent summer flowers, gave the "Welcome" in recitation summer howers, gave the "welcome" in recleation and song, in a manner to astonish the audience, the wonder being how such "tiny tots" were so thoroughly trained. A feature of the programme that could not fail to interest all who appreciate the beauties of trained and artistic motion, was the Fan, Freehand, and Tamborine Drill, introducing "Delsarte" attitudes; this was done by both the next two years. "Delsarte" attitudes; this was done by both the junior and intermediate pupils. The perfect grace and ease with which they went through the mumer-ous motions, was a revelation of the possibilities of an art that is yet in its infancy. The principal soloist of the evening was Miss S. O'Brien of Anti-gonish, her splendid soprano voice appearing to advantage in her rendition of "Joan of Arc" by "Lugi Bordesi."
