WINDSOR, N. S.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' Bookstore and by F. W. Dakin,

JULY 8 .- The 1st was very warm, the most fastidious could not have desired a fairer day. The Sports began with the bicycle parade which took place at ten on the arrival of the special from Halifax. After parading the principal streets they rode to "Fairfield the su iburban hotel, where the Avonian Club lunched their brother wheelmen. A Cricket match was played between the Wanderers of Halifax and the Windsor Ciub, which ended in a draw.

In the atternoon there were the usual sports at the Athletic Grounds, where a large crowd congregated but the most fashionable assembled at the Tennis Grounds where a match was played between Kentville and Windsor, Kentville being victorious. The gowns of some of the ladies were particularly pretty and I think on all occasions Windsor ladies, espec ially some of the married ones, display a great deal of taste in their selections of costumes. In the evening the sports were continued with a promenade concert.

On Monday evening, July 3rl, Mr. and Miss Allison were at home to a number of their friends. The house which is most commodious was beautifully decorated with potted planets, cut flowers, and ferns, and artistically draped with bunting. About twelve o'clock a most elaborate supper was served. Miss Allison who received in a gown of white and pale blue silk made a charming young hostess. Among those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hensley, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Curry, Mr. and J. W. Currey. Mr and Mrs. W. Curry, Mr. and J. W. Currey. Mr and Mrs. W.
