TRURO.

[Progress is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. O. Fulton and D. H. Smith & Co.] Nov. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell arrived home last week from Montreal. They are accompanied by Miss Clark of that city.

There is so much ado about the "Kermis," of next week, which is engrossing so much of the time and attention of our society ladies, as to rouse thought or plan of any other gaiety, excepting, indeed, a few five o'clocks, which now seem quite en vogue, and afford much opportunity for pleasant chit-chat, and interchanges of harmless on dits.

There was another very large tea, on Friday afternoon last, at the rectory. Miss McKay poured tea. Among the large number present were: Mrs. Thos. McKay, Mrs. Geo. Campbell, Mrs. W. S. Muir, Mrs. Wetmore, Mr. MacPherson, Mrs. Bent, Miss Bent, Miss Clark (Montreal), Misses Campbell, Miss Wetmore.

Mrs. W. S. Muir entertained a large tea party on Monday afternoon. Mrs. O. C. Cunningham presided at the tea table, and Messrs. Underwood, A. G. Campbell and E. R. Stuart dispensed the tea and the accompanying good things.

Among the ladies at Mrs. Muir's were: Mrs. C. A. Armstrong, Mrs. Lee Russell, Mrs. Hemmen, Mrs. Harry Crowe, Miss Dimock, Miss Mai Dimock, Miss McKay, Miss Archibald, Miss Tremain, Miss Clark, Misses Campbell, Miss May Crowe, Miss Wetmore.

Mrs. Henry McRobert is residing this week, assisted by Miss Bent. Mrs. McRobert was looking over yesterday in black grenadine over black silk, trimmed with yellow ribbon.

Grant, S. W. Jackson, Frank McNeil, G. Fraser, H. R. Crockett, Harry McDonald, Geo. Clisbourn, S. W. Grant, and Hedley Musgrave.

The season has been remarkably dull so far, there being no very large parties or balls, but I understand in a few weeks there will be at least three balls, quite swell affairs, for me to chronicle.

Capt. Meikle, who has been for a few weeks on a well earned vacation, left Tuesday for Boston, where he will join his steamer, the Micmac.

Mrs. J. Meikle, of Pictou, who has been for a week the guest of Mrs. R. Meikle, returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Harvey Graham was "at home" to a large number of friends on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Graham's large airy parlors were beautifully decorated with ferns, potted plants and cut flowers, the lamps were all shaded, casting a delicate tint over the rooms, making the whole to look like a scene from fairyland. Mrs. Graham made a charming hostess. She greeted her guests in a very pretty gown of black silk. After a chat and some instrumental music, a bountiful repast was served. The menu was all that could be desired and gotten up quite daintily.

The table was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, yellow being the principal color chosen for the decorations. The dresses were all very handsome. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Carmichael, Mrs. George Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Forest McKay, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff McCol, Mr. and Mrs. George B.
