PROGRESS, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1894.

A THANKSGIVING TALE.

16

"Par, have you decided on buying the an unusally liberal supply of buckwheat is coming that way." cakes on her husband's plate. "Did you hear what the old colonel did ?" cakes on her husband's plate.

"No, Lisbeth, I haven't," he replied, quietly. "I've decided on Bessie's music.

"Par! you haven't thought seriously on the crazy plan of the professor's ?"

"Yes. I've decided that Bessie shall begin the first of January, and see if she can make anything out of the fiddle," and he cut generously into his hot cakes, that the syrup might go through every part. Mrs. Greenleat stirred her coffee and waxed wroth.

"All I have to say, Silas, is, you will of money. I want that meadow for Bessie. Colonel Laurence will have lots of offers."

have, and I guess if we let her have a little stood grumblingly at the door, and looked, without the meadow," and he laughed overture. good-naturedly.

"She's all we have, and we are all she's got and by-and-bye fiddling won't run a girl approached the footlights. All eyes farm, and you know it, Silas. There's were fastened on her as she bowed and Tom Owens, as good a fellow as ever lifted her violin. She forgot the fashionstepped. He's of my opinion about the able audience, the critics on all sides, the fiddling business. He'd be after our whispering in the wings, and leaned loving-Bessie if she'd settle down and be like other | ly on her violin. girls around here. He doesn't believe in hifalutin' accomplishments for farmers' was finished, then a storm of applause wives," grumbled Mrs. Greenleaf, as she brought the bright color to her cheeks, sipped her coffee.

"Well, ma, if he says anything more you tell him, for me, that Silas Greenleaf Bessie's prospects he's after. I know that to the footlights again. chap. He's kinder holding off to see if I'll Bessie isn't going around with Tom Owens | with Paul, his nephew, beside him. any more. Understand that, Lizbeth ?" and he brought his fist down on the table with a force that made the dishes rattle.

"Don't get riled at poor Tom, Silas. He's a good, steady going young man. I am atraid it isn't Bessie's luck to get him. Three hundred dollars for fiddling! Good land!" and Mrs. Greenleat gathered the breakfast dishes, and carried them to the pantry.

Her husband wiped his hands on the kitchen roller, and, he gave his old hat a vigorous shake, two arms were clasped tightly around his neck, and a cold, rosy cheek was pressed close to his own.

"My dear, old, beautiful daddy. I listened at the kitchen door. Am I really and truly going to the Conseveratory?" and two blue eyes looked at him entreat- shawl.

about him in Hayne's store to hear the particulars. "Her mother's heart was set on meadow? I've given you time enough to think about it," and Mrs. Greenleat laid that meadow, and I know the new railroad

"It's clear, downright squander," grumbled Tom Owens, as a group gathered inquired the Lawrence coachman, as he warmed his hands.

"What did he do?" Tom asked eagerly. "He went up to the city, bought one of those famous violins, and took it to the tarmhouse himself, as a gift to Miss Bessie. He seems to think as much of her as if she was his own child."

"Well, a fiddling woman won't make a good wife," replied Tom, sulkily, as the men gathered around the coachman for all particulars, to relate to the women folks at home, who were deeply interested, and regret it. It seems to me a clear waste could extract no information from Lizbeth Greenleaf.

It was a bright, cold Thanksgiving eve, "Well, don't worry, Lizbeth. If Bessie and the opening night of the Cthinks she'd like to be a fiddler, well, I certs. The hall was crowded, and those say let her have her way. She's all we who had not succeeded in obtaining seats pleasure now she can worry along later on at intervals, at a young man playing an

The languid wavering of fans and the murmurings at the door ceased, as a young and the tears to her eyes. She smiled her thanks in her winning, girlish way and withdrew, but the audience insisted on her is paying for the accomplishments. It's reappearance, and the conductor led her Glancing across the sea of faces she saw buy the meadow. Well, I won't. My Colonel Laurance standing at the door,

The girl said something to the pianist, then, lifting her violin, played "Home, Sweet Home" with a pathos that filled every heart.

The old man near the door turned to his companion and said, huskily, "There, Lizbeth Greenleat! what do you think now? Isn't that better than all the meadows in Milton? She knew we couldn't appreciate the way-up airs, but that hit us. God bless her !"

"Oh, father ! Oh, Paul ! Did I do it well ?" cried Bessie, as they gathered around her.

"First-rate, little one, first-rate. Come now and let me tuck you into the carriage. We mustn't miss our train, and have to keep Thanksgiving away from home," and her father enveloped her in a heavy woolen

Paul's answer to her question was a warm, proper thing for him to say to his hostess seldom successful. A good laugh was ocon bidding her adieu. With a perfectly casioned at the board meeting on Tuesday sober tace, though her eyes sparkled with last, when an insignificant little man, in merriment, she replied that in this demo- pauper's clothes, poked his head round the cratic land the only proper thing to say was:--"Madame, by golly, I have had a bully time." Believing that this was a "straight tip," he thus delivered himself. When the laughter had subsided, he was The only chronicles of Jersey City say told his services could be dispensed with altogether if he could get employment. that when he first discovered the joke he was furious, but his fury was short-lived. and he married the beautiful belle.

IDEAS GIVEN TO SOCIETY.

The Unique Scheme of a New York Girl in Regard to Social "Functions."

"My dear," says Mr. Charlton Judd, 'we really ought to give a card party or a reception, or something. We've been going and going ever since we moved here, and it's time we returned some of the courtesies we have received."

"Yes, of course, we must," agrees the feminine dear appealed to. "I feel that we can't put it off any longer, but I dread it. There's so much to think of and arrange, if the entertainment is to be an entire success. There are the table decorations, the china, the flowers, and the menu. If we have dancing, there are the favors to be arranged, or else we must have somebody to sing or read or do something to entertain the guests. Then I must have a new gown, and the girls, too. It seems a terrible undertaking, but I suppose I must go through with it !" and the prospective Hantsport, Oct. 27, to the wife of William Coon, a hostess sighs as she thinks of her many responsibilities.

The time has come when Mrs. Charlton Judd or Mrs. Anybody Else who wishes to entertain may do so without giving herself the slightest trouble. She has simply to apply to the "Bureau of Social Requirements," put the affair in the hands of its managers, and the dinner, tea, cotillon, or reception will come off without further Musquodoboit, Nov. 5, to the wife of Norman Deal, effort on her part. In starting this bureau Miss Ella Garrison entered a new field in Spa Springs, Nov. 1, to the wife of Havelock the range of occupation for women. There are caterers, of course, and scores of florists ready to do their part toward the success Quoddy, N. S., Oct. 27, to the wife of Joseph Worof a private entertainment; but never before in New York has a hostess been able New Glasgow, Nov. 2, to the wife of Rev. W. T. to resign to a bureau the entire management of a party, from the composition of the menu and the design for the cards of Riverside, Nov. 4, to the wife of Leonard Mc. invitation. to suggestions as to her own toilet. Miss Garrison has at her command a staff of chefs ready to concoct dainty dishes, and butlers whose dignified deportment will add splendor to any entertainment. She proposes to furnish unique designs for the arrangements at weddings and to show blushing brides how to advance gracefully to the altar. She will devise ideas for children's parties and she will invent new favors for cotillons. She will furnish artists to sing, play, read, or recite for the entertainment of guests, and will her guests with a light heart.

relieve the mistress of many a handsome home of worry and responsibility. This department is described in the dainty little lavender pamphlet which the bureau sends from the city during the summer months or the wrappings and restore the various Another department that receives the bureau's attention is "Information on all points of social life." Many subtle problems that are as a sealed book to the uninitiated will be made plain on application to the manager. These include such questions as elapse before paying a first call?" and never paid much attention to such matters.

The bureau will solve all such problems.

"What first suggested such a business to "My friends have always come to me for to get up something distinctive and new, either for the wedding raiment or the fashion in which the ceremony should be conducted.

gestion as to the color, material, and style of making most likely to suit certain of my social forms and customs than 1 know about anything else, so I have determined to Miss Garrison is a sweet-faced young woman with the air and manner of a person accustomed to mingle with the world.

tertainments were frequently given, she learned in her father's house the art of con-

The oldest daughter in a home where en-articles to their places.

Hantsport, Nov. 3, to the wife of Otis Eagles, a son earache, headache, neckache, stomachache, toothache, in fact every ache. For scalds, stings, strains, sprains, stiff joints, swellings and sore muscles. For colds, chills, coughs and catarrh. For hacking, hoarse-ness and whooping cough. For asthma, bronchitis, diphtheria, la grippe, sore throat and lungs. For colic, Halifax, Oct. 28, to the wife of H. E. Dowell, a son. Hantrport, Nov. 3, to the wife of Otis Eagles, a son. Moncton, Nov. 6, to the wife of E. Girouard, a son. croup, cramps, cholera morbus and summer complaints. For dyspeptic pains, neuralgia and muscular rheumatism. For cuts, cracks, corns, contusions, chaps and chilblains, all irritations and inflammations. For lame back, shoulder. For pains in chest, kidneys, stomach, use this great vital and muscle nervine. Halifax, Nov. 3, to the wife of H. Wooley, a son. Kentville, Nov. 1, to the wife of Joseph R. Lyons, a Every ailment above is caused by inflammation, to cure which Johnson's Anodyne Liniment was devised.

Dartmouth, Oct. 7, to the wife of Hugh Mallon, a son Kentville, Nov. 7, to the wife of J. P. Chapman, a

BORN.

Dalhousie, Nov. 5, to the wife of Amos Hannan,

Nash's Creek, Nov. 3, to the wife of Thomas Hayes, a son.

daughter.

Cheverie, Nov. 4, to the wife of Albert Parr, a Moncton, Nov. 4, to the wife of Samuel Gordon, a daughter.

daughter.

a daughter.

a daughter.

Port Williams, N. S., Nov. 11, to the wife of Robert Williams, a daughter.

Laughlin, a daughter.

MARRIED.

Williamston, Oct. 31, O. Bishop to Ida Taylor. Moncton, Nov. 6, Herbert Arnold to Maud Brown. Calais, Nov. 1, William McPherson to Hannah Taite.

Middleton, Oct. 31, by Rev. M. Young, Amos Lewis to Lennie Sabean.

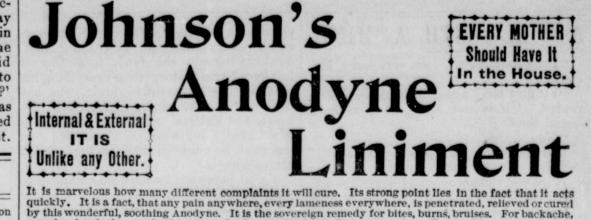

All who order direct from us, and request it, shall receive a certificate that the money shall be refunded if not abundantly satisfied. Retail price, 35 cents, Six $2.00, express prepaid, if you can't get it near home. Ask first. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet free. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass. RAILWAYS. Moncton, Nov. 11, Stella, daughter of John Delay, Bear Cove, N. S., Nov. 6. Captain James G. Pride, Dominion Atlantic R' St. John, Nov. 11, of heart failure, Thomas Marry, LAND OF EVANGELINE ROUTE. St. John, Nov. 7, Susan, wife of Dominick Killorn THE POPULAR AND SHORT LINE BE-tween St. John and Halifax. Gibson, N. B., Oct. 10, Mary, wife of Hazen Pond, On and after WEDNESDAY, October 3rd, 1894. Stillwater, N. S., Louise C., wife of Henry Elliott, trains will run (Sunday excepted) as follows : EXPRESS TRAINS, DAILY: Hantsport, Oct. 30, Greta, daughter of Joseph Allen, Leave Yarmouth, 8.10 a. m. Arrive malifax, Chatham, Nov. 8, Francis, son of the late James T. Leave Halifax, 6.40 a. m. Arrive Yarmouth, .50 p. m. Bay View, Nov. 5, Dolina, wife of James F. Low-Leave Kentville, 5.30 a. m. Arrive Halifax. .45 a. m Leave Halifax, 3.10 p. m. Arrive Kentville, St. John, Nov. 5, Susan, wife of Lawrence Mc-6.15 p. m. Buffet Parlor Cars run daily each way on Ex-press trains between Halifax and Yarmouth. McLellan's Mountain, Nov. 8, Alexander Camp-ACCOMMODATION TRAINS: St. John, Nov. 9, Alfred, son of John and Alice Penobsquis, Nov. 3, Ellen, widow of the late Charles Digby, Nov. 4, Elizabeth, daughter of Luke nond, 11.15 a.m. Leave Richmond Daily, 2.30 p. m. Arrive Kent-

Fundy Steamship Company; for Yarmouth, where close connexion is made with the Yarmouth Steamship Company for Boston; at Middleton with the trains of the Nova Scotia Central Railway for the South Coast; at Kentville with trains of the Corn-

Intercolonial Railway.

Accommodation IRAINS: Leave Annapolis Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5.50 a. m. Arrive Halifax, 4.30 p. m. Leave Halifax, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 6.00 a. m. Arrive Annapolis, 4.55 p. m. Leave Yarmouth, Tuesday, Thursday and Satur-day, 8.45 a. m. Arrive Kentville. 7.20 p. m. Leave Kentville, Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 6.50 a. m. Arrive Yarmouth, 6.05 p. m. Leave Kentville Daily, 6.00 a. m. Arrive Rich-mond, 11.15 a. m. Connections made at Annapolis with the Bay of South Coast; at Kentville with trains of the Corn-wallis Valley Branch for Canning and Kingsport, connecting with the S. S. Evangeline for Parrsboro and all points in P. E. Island and Cape Breton, and at W. Juncion and Halifax with Intercolonial and Canadian Pacific trains for all points West. For Tickets, Time Tables, &c., apply to Station Agents, to 126 Hollis Street, Halifax, or to the City Office, 114 Prince William Street, St. John, N. B. W. R. Campbell, General Manager. W. R. Campbell, General Manager. K. Sutherland, Superintendents

Originated by an Old Family Physician

FOR PURELY HOUSEHOLD USE,

Generation after Generation have Used and Blessed It.

Danvers, Nov. 3, to the wife of Nathan I. Crosby, a Annapolis, Nov. 2, to the wife of James Upham, a

Halifax, Nov. 10, to the wife of James T. Burgess,

Kilburn, Oct. 31, to the wife of B. Kilburn, a Cheveri, N. S., Nov. 4, to the wife of Albert Parr, a daughter.

daughter.

Moncton, Nov. 3, to the wife of George J. Robb, a

Halifax, Nov. 6, to the wife of Dr. A. F. Whittord, Halifax, Nov. 6, to the wife of William J. McDonald,

a daughter.

Jacques, a son

W. Rand, a son

then, a daughter.

Stackhouse, a son.

Clarence, N. S., Oct. 27, to the wife of Herbert

Cumberland Bay, Nov. 3, to the wife of Captain Duncan Wasson, a daughter.

Richards, 79.

Wallace Illsley. Stillman Mills, Oct. 20, Janet, widow of the late Donald Gunn, 73.

Griffin.

den, 43

Quillan.

bell, 76.

Duffy, 2.

Freeze, 75.

Trahan, 21.

Stokoe, 47.

Mitchell, 58

Pherson, 69

son Post, 12.

St. George, Nov. 11, Sabra Benson, widow of the late John Benson

Halifax, Nov. 4, Michael, son of Mary and the late Captain Harrigan.

Bloomfield, Nov. 4, Edward son of George and J.

Jeddore, Oct. 30, Agnes Hadley, wife of Colin

Tower Hill, Nov. 5, Ethel, daughter of Charles and Maggie Cloney, 2.

Shelburne, Nov. 6, Burns Cahan, son of Augustus

North East Margaree, C. B., Oct. 28, Norman Mcville, 8.10 p.m. Broad Cove, N. S., Nov. 2, David Leo, son of Wat-St. John, Nov. 13, Annie, widew of the late Henry North Williamston, Nov. 19, Carrie. wife of E.

"Really and truly, sure," he answered, as he loosed his hold. "I've the letter in my pocket agreeing to all the professor says. The three hundred dollars is yours, dearie, and your ignorant old father doesn't begrudge it you a penny of it. Get all the music you can out of the old fiddle, and if they find out that you can do anything, I'll get you a new one."

"I'm afraid ma won't be won over to our side. It seems sinful to risk the money," sighed Bessie, as her father buttoned his ulster.

"When she begins to argue, slip out," and he winked at her significantly as her mother approached.

"Was there anything at the Post Office, Bessie ?" asked Mrs. Greenleaf, as the girl hung her cloak on the peg.

"A postal from Mr, Jones. He wants more turkeys. There's your paper, two letters and my music," Bessie answered, as she sorted the mail.

Bessie's heart beat joyfully as she helped her mother to dress the turkeys for market. Her mother was unusually silent, and retrained from the customary remarks, when Bessie stole upstairs to look over her new music.

Mrs Greenleaf did not regard the fiddle favorably, but Bessie loved it dearly. It had been the property of Paul Laurence, the colonel's nephew, and Bessie's life-long friend and companion. Paul bought the old violin at auction for five dollars, and he and Bessie took lessons surreptitously. When he went to study medicine he gave Bessie the treasured violin, and extracted a solemn promise from his teacher to give her lessons at halt price.

Bessie worked hard and faithfully, and finally the old professor called on her father and laid belore him plans for a glorious future for the little country girl. She had ability, nay more, she had talenttalent which must be fostered. He recommended a cource of instruction at the Conservatory, and voluntered to pay the girl's expenses, he was so positive of her success.

Silas Greenleaf listened delightedly. He was proud of his bright, pretty Bessie, and agreed to all the professor proposed.

He broached the subject to his thrifty wife. who eagerly watched the pennies that the dollars might grow. She had set her heart on Colonel Laurence's meadow. He wanted three hundred dollars for it, but there were three hundred dollars in the Milton Bank for Bessie, and Mrs. Greenleaf would not think of giving up the meadow and spending the money for accom-plishments. However, her husband was determined, and she was prevailed upon to give a reluctant consent.

Bessie walked down to the station Thanksgiving afternoon to meet Paul, and tell him of her good fortune.

"Paul, I hope I shall be successful," she faltered, as they walked slowly homeward through the softly falling snow, and she confided the story of the meadow.

close hand-clasp, but Bessie understood. "Hurry, Bessie! You will be late for church, and you have much to be thankful tor today," called out Bessie's mother the next morning. "And your poor old daddy is on the verge of starvation, and your mother refuses to give him even a cup of coffee until the fiadler appears," added her father, "There's a docyment of some kind here on the table for you. The colonel's man brought it. It looks like a summons to court.'

Bessie laughingly joined her parents, and eagerly opened the envelope.

"Why, father ! what can it mean ?" and she passed the paper to her father.

"It means"- and her father wiped his glasses, stood up and wiped them more vigorously-"It means-why, Bessie, the colonel has given you the meadow !" "Silas !" cried Mrs. Greenleat.

"I ain't deaf. Lizbeth. There's no need of hollering at me. Well, I vum !" and he placed the paper beside Bessie's plate. Bessie joined the throng of church-goers and listened to the Thankgiving sermon, but her heart was too full to put her prayers into words.

"I knew it all along," said Paul, nonchalently, as he walked home with her. "Judge Miller is going to make you an offer in behalf of the railroad to-morrow, and I advise you to accept it," and Paul named a sum which far exceeded the original price.

"Your old friend, Tom Owens, has made uncle several offers, and each refusal made him more anxious to possess the meadow."

"And what shall I do with all the money?" faltered Bessie.

"Pay off the mortgage on the farm. Your father has scrimped and saved to give you these two extra years of study. Now that you have made a successful debut, and have been flattered by an offer from the Ideal manager you will not need our efforts to help you up the ladder of fame. Uncle is quite proud of us-a rising physician and a successful violinist," smiled Paul, teasingly.

"How shall I ever repay you for all your loving help and kindness ?" asked Bessie, tearfully.

"By keeping the contract we made in our childhood, to play for one another. Are you willing Bessie ?" and Paul's voice lost its teasing.

Bessie's answer must have been favorable, for Paul went home and planned the the journey abroad, which he and his uncle had deterred until Bessie would consent to accompany them.

make my capital of that.' "Lizbeth, I guess I'll go down to Hayne's to-night," chuckled Silas Greanleaf, as he finished his supper. "Tom Owens will be there, and I want to see how he looks when I tell him that Bessie's got the education, the meadow, the doctor, and the trip abroad. Thought a fiddling girl wouldn't make a good wife, did he?"

"I wouldn't, Silas. It is Thanksgiving, and I'd have some Christian charity about me," reproved Mrs. Greenleaf.

Halifax, Nov. 3, by Rev. C. Borden, John S. Hav kins to Isabell A. Shaw. undertake to think for the lady of the Westville, Nov. 13, by Rev. R. Cumming, Edward house regarding every detail about which Sillers to Minnie Brown. Halifax, Nov. 5, by Rev. John McMillan, Creighton A. Logan to Elsie Milne. the slightest concern might be felt. In short, she will take all care off the hostess's shoulders and enable her to mingle with St. Stephen, Oct. 31, by Rev. T. Allen, William Nason to Augusta C. Hill.

Moneton, Nov. 6, by Rev. John Read, Cyrus Pugs-There is another branch of the Bureau ley to Florence K. Trites. of Social Requirements which will tend to Halifax, Oct. 3, by Rev. D. G. McDonald, Rev. H. N. Parry to Zilla Redden.

Bridgetown, Oct. 31, by Rev. F. M. Young, Amos Lewis, to Lennie Sabean

Milford, Nov. 7, by Rev. A. B. Dickie, Douglas Rutherford to Edith Keys.

out as "the dismantling and rearrangement Middleton, Nov. 3, by Rev. F. M. Young, James McGrau to Maude Carter. of houses." When a family is to be absent

Annapolis, Nov. 8, by Rev. H. How, William K. Reed to Florence M. Hoyt.

wishes to put aside the many articles that Greenville, Nov. 1, by Rev. Calvin Currie, Burnham make the indoor life of winter so attractive Grant to Josephine Yerxa. the manager of the bureau will send work-

Fredericton, Nov. 5, by Rev. Canon Roberts, A. B. Brown to Prudie Yeomans.

women and go herself to superintend the Wakefield, N. S., by Rev. A. G. Downey, William P. Kimball to Jessie Miller. swathing of the furniture in linen. In the autumn it will be her province to take off Berwick, Nov. 1, by Rev. E. O. Read, Henry Cornwall to Jennie O. Clark.

Windsor, Nov. 7, by Rev. J. L. Dawson, Arthur Williams to Maud Faulkner.

Malone Bay, Oct. 31, by Rev. Mr. Shaw, B. K. Petingell to Jean McDiarmid, Westport, Nov. 9, by Rev. C. C. Burgess, Leslie W. Finnegan to Elnora Cann.

Stellarton, Nov. 1, by Rev. W. Nightingale. George R. Bain to Elizabeth Madden. "How long a time should or should not Kingston, N. B., by Rev. D. Fraser, James McM. Waddell to Agnes R. Purves.

Onslow, Oct. 30, by Rev. J. H. Chase, David Staples to Eunice Jane Roode. "What should determine precedence in the matter of seats at dinner ?" Perhaps even Basswood Ridge, Nov. 1, by Rev. A. C. Bell, Elmer C. Moulton to Mary J. Evans. the kinds of forks and spoons to be used or certain courses may puzzle one who had St. John, Nov. 7, by Rev. F. A. Wightman, Joseph Brown to Mrs. Hattie Murray.

Truro, Nov. 6, by Rev. Mr. McCollough, John R. McLean to Margaret Joadrey.

Halifax, Nov. 7, by Rev. Father Forbes, Patrick J. Doyle to Florence M. Howard.

you?" asked a reporter who found Miss Garrison duly installed at her desk. Thorburn, Nov. 1, by Rev. Dr. McLeod, Edward Meiland to Minnie McEachern. "I have been doing this sort of thing unconsciously all my life," was the reply.

Campobello, Oct. 28, by Rev. W. U. Street, Ira J Colwell to Leonnie T. Thurber. Chatham, Nov. 1, by Rev. George Steele, Olaf D. Hansen to Blizabeth Jane Wager.

ideas and suggestions when they wanted Freeport, N. S., Oct. 25, by Rev. C. C. Burgess, George Finigan to Alice B. Clark. to decorate a table prettily, get new hangings for a room, give a card party, or any-St. Mary's, Oct. 29, by Rev. Fr. Keirman, David Henry Crowley to Julia Gallagher. thing of the kind. If one of the family was to be married my invention was taxed Basswood Ridge, Nov. 1, by Rev. A. C. Bell Elmer C. Meulton to Mary J. Evans.

Advocate, Oct. 31, by Rev. F. W. Desbauresm, Lucut. R. S. Carter to Ella M. Morris. Mahone Bay, Oct. 30, by Rev. S. H. Shaw, C. Lenon Oxner to Long Effancie Church.

I have often been called on to give a sug-Sussex, Nov. 5, by Rev. James Gray, Robert John Armstrong to Margaret J. Donaldson.

Upper Musquodoboit, Nov. 8, by Rev. A. D. Gunn Frank P. Hamilton to Elizabeth E. Dean. 77 d triends who were in doubts of a new dress, and now the time has come when I want to be self-supporting, it seems to me that

Halifax, Nov. 7, by Rev. N. LeNoine, assisted by Rev. A. Currie, Andrew Cochran to Maggie Kenny. I had best make a business of what has always been a pleasure. I know more about texture and colors, house decorations, it forms and customs than I know about

DIED.

Halifax, Nov. 5, George York, 47. Ohio, N. S., U. Watson Patten, 73. Barton, N. S., Nov. 3, Neil McNeil. St. John, Nov. 8, Henry Muhlig, 74. Halifax, Nov. 6, Agnes G. Lindsay. ducting social affairs gracefully and success- Wolfville, Nov. 1, John N. Wells, 82. fully; aud on account of financial difficul- St. John, Nov. 8, Michael Coughlan. ties she now proposes to put her knowledge Brookvale, Nov. 6, James Fowlie, 46. to practical use. Everything about the bu- St. John, Nov. 9, Robert F. Smith, 85. reau is in lavender-that is the "note" that St. John, Nov. 11, Thomas Marry, 75. permeates the place-and the young lady's | Woodville, Nov. 3, William Arnold, 78. desk has tresh flowers on it constantly the Memramcook, Nov. 3, D. Thibeaeau, 75. tribute of friends who appreciate the man- Milford, N. S., Nov. 6, Jane Fleming, 55. ner in which she has met misfortune which | Churchville, Nov. 4, James Robertson, 71. would make most girls lean upon the first Fredericton, Nov. 7, Charles Parsons, 59. strong arm that offered. Miss Garrison is Hardingville, Nov. 6, Andrew Millican, 99. a disciple of Ruskin and believes in the dig-St. John, Nov. 10, Patrick McLaughlin, 70. Shubenacadie, N. S., Nov. 4, Rose, wife of George

A McEachrine, 20. St. John, Nov. 8, Harry, son of Lorenzo and Harriett Eagles, 18.

Milton, N. S., Oct. 28, Emma Gertrude, daughter, of Angus McDonald.

Hopewell Hill, Nov. 5, Eliza, widow of the late William Rogers, 80.

New York, Oct. 9, of consumption, Michael Driscoll, of St. John, N. B., 31.

Kentville, Nov. 7, Richard Gordon, son of Edward T. and Bessie Moore. Milford, Nov. 9, Nellie, daughter of Annie and the late Daniel McNeil, 18.

Boston, Nov. 7, Arthur T. Hilton, son of Philip Hilton, of Tusket, N. S., 27

Cheverie, N. S., Nov. 5, Mary, widow of the late Captain James King, 79.

Cheverie, N. S. Nov. 5. Mary, widow of the late Captain James King, 79.

Bradford, Mass., Oct. 27, Sarah, widow of the late William Bowe, of Digby, Dartmouth, Nov. 6, Samuel Francis, son of Hugh and Mary Mallon, 1 month.

Berwick, N. S., Rath, widow of the late Thomas Knowles, of Milton, N. S., 84.

Halifax, Nov. 4, Alice Josephine, daughter o William F. and Mary Reilly, 1.

Hantsport, Oct. 30, of diptheritic croup, Maggie, daughter of F. Pentz, 17 months.

St. John, Nov. 8, of congestion, Albert Gerard, son of James and Lillie Gillin, 5 months.

St. John, Nov. 13, Fannie Louisa, wife of Thomas D. and daughter of the late Andrew Weldon, of Dorchester, N. B., 60.

Almeda, California, Oct. 30, Ada, widow of the late Guy Tutte, and daughter of the late Samuel Greenfield, of Amherst, N. S.

WANTED!

- People to Understand That -

BASS'S ALE, GUINESS'S STOUT

are the finest beers brewed. Fast Express train leaves from Union Station, St John, N. B., at But in order to obtain them at their best it is indispensible that they be matured and bottled by experienced firms who possess the knowledge For MONTREAL and intermediate points, making and have the capital to enable OTTAWA, TORONTO, DETROIT, CHICAGO, them to carry the goods until they are matured. Messrs. W. Edmunds Jr. & Co., Liverpool, who bottle under the label of D. MCNICOLL, C. E. MCPHERSON, PIG BRAND turn out the finest bottling of Bass and Guiness in the world. Try it and be convinced. Ask for PIG BRAND. General Express Forwarders, Shipping SPRINGHILL Beef, Fresh and Pickled Pork, Ham and Bacon, Lamb and Mutton. Pure Leaf Lard "in crocks," Turkeys, Chickens, Geese and Ducks.

On and after MONDAY, the 1st October 1894, the trains of this Railway will run daily (Sunday excepted) as follows :

TRAINS WILL LEAVE ST. JOHN :

xpress for Campbellton, Pugwash, Pictou and Halifax	7:00
xpress for Halifax	13.50
xpress for Quebec and Montreal	16.36
xpress for Sussex	16.40

A Parlor Car runs each way on Express trains leaving St. John at 7.00 o'clock and Halifax at 7.20 'clock.

Passengers from St. John for Quebec and Mon-treal take through Sleeping Cars at Moncton, at 19.30 o'clock.

TRAINS WILL ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN : Express from Montreal and Quebec (Mon-

10.30

15.50

24.60

General Manager.

Sunday

Excepted

Asst. Gen'l Pass'r Agt. St. John, N. B.

CO

EXPRESS

Express from Monttean and Quebec (Mon-day excepted)..... Express from Moncton (daily)..... Express from Halifax. Express from Halifax, Pictou and Camp-belltom..... Accomodation from Moneton

Moncton, N. B., 27th Sept., 1894.

ANADIA

PACIFIC

THE ONLY TRUE

TRANSCONTINENTAL

LINE.

close connections with Fast Express Trains fo

the West, N. West and the Pacific Coast.

For tickets, sleeping car accomodations, &c., en-quire at City Ticket office, Chubb's Corner.

Agents and Custom House Brokers.

Forward Merchandise, Money and Packages of every description; collect Notes, Drafts, Accounts and Bills, with goods (C. O. D.) throughout the Dominion of Canada, the United States and Europe.

Gen'l Pass'r Agt., Montreal.

CANADIAN

electricity

Railway Office,

The trains of the Intercolonial Railway are heated by steam from the locomotive, and those between Halifax and Montreal, via Levis, are lighted by Al trains are run by Eastern Standard Time.

D, POTTINGER,

through the softly failing show, and she confided the story of the meadow. "You must be successful, Bessie. Do not think of failure. I shall be so proud of you. I gave you your first lessons, re- member," replied Paul.	"I wouldn't, Silas. It is Thanksgiving, and I'd have some Christian charity about me," reproved Mrs. Greenleaf. "Guess you're about right, Lizbeth. It will leak out soon enough," and he filled his pipe, and drawing his chair nearer to the open fire picked out the pictures their- in, and the best and dearest picture was Bessie Greenleat's Fiddle. De Billi had a Bully Time. Mme. De Billi, wife of the Danish am-	nity of labor. "There are those in my family who would	 Brookvale, Nov. 6, James Fowlie, 46. St. John, Nov. 9, Robert F. Smith, 85. St. John, Nov. 11, Thomas Marry, 75. Woodville, Nov. 3, William Arnold, 78. Memramcook, Nov. 3, D. Thibeaeau, 75. Millord, N. S., Nov. 6, Jane Fleming, 55. Churchville, Nov. 4, James Robertson, 71. Fredericton, Nov. 7, Charles Parsons, 59. Hardingville, Nov. 6, Andrew Millican, 99. St. John, Nov. 10, Patrick McLaughlin, 70. Marysville, Nov. 6, Mrs. Hugh C. Titus, 50. Eureka, Nov. 2, Elizabeth McNaughton, 37. Bear Cove, N. S., Nov 6, Israel Rhude, 30. 	and Mutton. Fure Lear Lard "In crocks," Turkeys, Chickens, Geese and Ducks.	 Dominion of Canada, the United States and Europe. Special Messengers daily, Sunday excepted, over the Grand Trunk, Quebec and Lake St. John, Que- bec Central, Canada Atlantic, Montreal and Sorel, Napanee, Tamworth and Quebec, Central Ontario and Consolidated Midland Railways, Intercolonial Railway, Nothern and Western Railway, Cumber- land Railway, Chatham Branch Railway, Stéamship Lines to Digby and Anappolis and Charlottetown and Summerside, P. E. I., with nearly 600 agencies. Connections made with responsible Express Com- penies covering the Eastern, Middle, Southern and Western States, Manitoba, the Northwest Territor- ies and British Columbia. Express weekly to and from Europe via Canadian Line of Mail Steamers. Agency In Liverpool in connection with the for- warding system of Great Britain and the continent.
of yourself?" "Not at all. You needed the discipline. Good night, Bessie. I'll advise uncle to save the meadow until you are rich and famous, and then charge you an exorbitant price for it," and Paul opened the gate for her. "Good-night, Paul. I am going to for- get the meadow," and Bessie hurried up	bassador to the court of St. James, is an American by birth. Her father was Chan- cellor Zabriskie, of New Jersey, and be- fore her marriage she was noted, not only for her beauty, but for her vivacity and wit. Many stories illustrating her love of fun are told of her. One of them relates to her first meeting with her husband. It was at a great reception, at the close of which Mr. De Billi, who had been in the country only a short time, came up to her, and asked her what was the conventually	to be independent," she says, simply, and then she adds that she is enjoying her new and engrossing ocupation very much. They Could Spare Him. The Aston, England, guardians of the poor require that all paupers who desire to leave "the house" in search of work should make personal application to the board. Some amusing reasons for getting out for	Carribou River, Nov. 1, George S. McLeod, 47. Bear Cove, N. S., Nov. 6. Charles Pratt, 27. Brookvale, N. B., Nov. 4, James Fowlie, 66. Halifax, Nov. 6. Erama, wife of Thomas Horn, 53.	Control of the second s	Shipping Agents in Liverpool, Montreal, Quebec and Portland, Maine. Goods in bond promptly attended to and forwarded with despatch. Invoices required for goods from Canada, United States or Europe, and vice versa. J. R. STONE, Agent. H. C. CREIGHTON, Ass. Supt. I COURE FITS Y. Valuable treatise and bottle of medicine sent Free to any Sufferer. Give Express and Post Office address. H. G. ROOT, M. C., 186 West Adelaide Street, Toronto, Ont