necessitated a change in the programme as well. The party started to drive over the river in a large double horse team, but owing to the state of the river hill one of the horses became disabled and the team was obliged to return for a fresh horse. In the impatience of waiting the return of the horses, some of the party who were all good walkers, started to tramp it through the slush which was more than ankle deep. I have heard it said unsuccessful in daylight. Miss Annie Carmen, who has been visiting relatives at Maugerville for the past two weeks, has

Nearly all the invitations were accepted, was a fine sight to watch the party of one hundred and fifty busily adjusting their snow shoes by the glare of 50 brilliant torches carried by the members of the club. In a short time all were in readinoss and at the signal given by the captain, Mr. T. W. Brown, the line was formed and the snow-shoers were swiftly gliding over the hills to Milivale. On looking back bonfires were seen blazing along the route which enhanced the beauty of the scene. At the hall the guests were received by Messrs. D. J. Bruce, H. H. Bray, F. F. Mathison and S. White, and a "bicycle welcome" awaited all. The room was profusely decorated with bunting and bicycled with charming effect. At ten, de hcious hot coffee, sandwiches and cake were served and a musical programme followed. "After the Ball," sung by Messrs J. M. Johnson, F. F. Matheson, J. White and T. McDevitt called forth vociferous applause. Mr. Evan Price in his usual happy manner gave a selection which elicited his neverfailing encore. The duet by Misses Annie and Carrie Delaney was one of the sweetest gems heard for some time. After a neat speech by Captain brown, "Auld Lang Syne" was heartily rendered by all, and three cheers given for the club. The list of guests were given for the club. After Physicians Failed, Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured.

Great mental agony is endured by parents who see their children suffering from diseases caused by impure blood, and for which there seems no cure. This is turned to joy when Hood's Sarsaparilla is resorted to, for it expels the foul humors from the blood, and restores the diseased skin to fresh, healthy brightness. Read the following from grateful parents:

To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "We think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most valuable medicine on the market for blood and skin diseases. Our two children suffered terri-
