Feb. 7.—Christ church was completely filled yesterday morning on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Mary Robinson, youngest daughter of Col. Beverly Robinson, of Nash Mills, Fredericton to Mr. William B. Heath, of Northville, Mani-toba, the ceremony being performed by the lord bishop of Fredericton, brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by the rector, Canon Roberts. The bride was attended by her little nieces, the Misses Constance and Violet Marsh, and the groom had the support of his brother, S. Heath, of Toronto. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to Botetou House, the residence of Bishop Kingston, for luncheon. The bride was attired in a travelling costume of gray, richly trimmed with black satin, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The little maids of honor wore crimson silk velvet costumes and large white hats. Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bride, wore a black and white gown, black satin over white satin petticoat.

The marriage of M. Louise Fisher, daughter of Mr. Wm. Fisher, of this city, will take place in St. John early in March.

On Thursday evening the Misses Beck with entertained a large number of friends at a dancing party at the residence of Mayor Beckwith. Among those invited were the Misses Rabbitt, Miss Lila Rabbitt, Miss Lillian Beckwith, the Misses Lida and Agnes Tabor, Miss Ethel Hart, Miss Annie Tibbits, Miss Sadie Sterling, Miss Helen Cliff, Miss Bessie Gibson, Miss Mabel McKee, Miss Saule Wiley, Miss Annie Phinney, Miss Nan Thompson, Miss Ella Whitaker, Miss Edie Hilyard, Miss Carrie Winslow, Miss Grace Winslow, Miss Kathleen Gordon, Miss Ethel Rainford, and Messrs Mauseel, Fowler, Robinson, Magee, Armstrong, Tabor, Roberts, Maxwell, Tibbits, McDonald, Aubrey, and Frank Allen, Chesley, Geo. and Jack Black, Campbell, Allen, F. Phinney, McKee, Wiley, Art Gibson, McKeigh, Hart, George Coppie, Vanwart, Chas. and Nan, Randolph, Winslow, Beckwith. Some very pretty costumes were worn. The Misses Rabbitt looked well in red nun's veiling; the Misses Tabor, white nun's veiling; Miss Mabel McKee, who was considered the belle of the evening, had a lovely gown, pink silk; Miss Ethel Rainford, blue nun's veiling; Miss Carrie Winslow, white veiling; Miss Ella Whitaker, green and silk trimmings; Miss Annie Phinney, pink silk; Miss Helen Cliff, cream silk and black velvet trimmings; Miss Saule Wiley, green with velvet trimmings, the Misses Beckwith and Gordon in black and brown. On account of the drive to Sewell's camp coming off the same evening a large number were unable to attend. The latest engagement that has been announced is between one of our best and prettiest young men, the pretty daughter of a down town merchant, Mrs. Allen Walker and child and Mrs. M. S. Hill, who on Tuesday the ladies' costumes were Mrs. Walker goes to join her husband and Mrs. Hill visits relatives, and Mrs. A. S. Murray is in St. John getting a visit from her mother.

Mr. Henry Lowell, has returned from a long visit to the United States. The concert in the City hall last evening in aid of the hospital funds was quite enjoyable. The magnificent playing of Carl Wailther, the celebrated violinist, completely enraptured the audience. Mrs. Sewell made her debut before a Fredericton audience and sang very sweetly but owing to extreme nervousness was unable to do full justice to her beautifully cultivated voice. During the evening she was the recipient of a bouquet of roses. Mr. Massie, who has a fine voice, sang and was well received. The others who took part were Mrs. John Black, Miss Johnson, and Prof. Brodwin and all were successful. After the concert the dumb-bell drill by twenty young ladies under the direction of Sergt. Fowle was much enjoyed.

Messrs. Armstrong, Robinson and Magee entertained a number of their friends, young ladies and gentlemen, to a coasting party Saturday afternoon, after which they regaled at the residence of Mrs. Peake, to oysters and coffee. The Misses Randolph gave a small theatre party last evening. The guests were entertained at the city hall, after which they repaired to the Rogers, where a sumptuous supper awaited them, and the Lenten season was fairly ushered in before they arose from table. Eleven weddings are on the tapis for the spring months, which will rob us of seven of our popular young ladies.

The Bachelors Ball which was given on Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable drives of the season. The party consisted of about thirty couples left the city in two big sleighs, and despite the bad state of the roads arrived safely at Springhill, where dancing was kept up until the early dawn. On the return, when about half way to the city one of the sleighs upset in a drift, but after a general scramble the amount of screaming from the fair passengers, the united efforts of the gentlemen succeeded in righting it again, and the occupants returned to the city without further incident. Those present were, the Misses Burside, Allen, Jack, Gregory, Winterbottom, (Portland, Me.) Rainford, Sterling, Marsh, Phair, Crookbank, Tabor, Robinson, and Mrs. Sherman, Messrs. Barker, K. Witmore, W. Tabor, Powsy, Tibbits, L. Fenety, Cowie, McKee, George Black, L. Bailey, McDonald, Chastnut, Campbell, Green and Dr. Bridges.

Mrs. Havelock Coy's little son is quite ill with scarlet fever. CHATHAM. [Progress is for sale in Chatham by Edward Johnson.]

Feb. 7.—The Cyprus Club Ball which was to have been held last Tuesday, but had to be postponed on account of the heavy snowstorm of that day, came off on Thursday evening, in the Masonic hall, which had been tastefully decorated by the young men of the club, who deserve great credit for their work; flags and Chinese lanterns were used in abundance, and the stage was fitted up as a drawing room, Mr. Wyse, having kindly given the use of a handsome suite of furniture for the evening. The lady patronesses, were as follows:— Mesdames J. S. B. Moore, F. G. Moore, R. B. Adams, MacKenzie, D. J. Smith, Brown, A. Anderson, Neal Dean, received the guests on the stage, after which the ball was opened with a Grand March and Circassian Circle. There were about 80 couples present, many having come from Newcastle and other places to attend; the many pretty and handsome dresses worn are too numerous to mention. The honor of heliesship was divided between Miss Troy and Miss Maude Adams, both of Newcastle, the former wore a becoming dress of pink with white trimmings, the latter a cream cashmere trimmed with silk. The music was provided by McEachern's Orchestra, consisting of six pieces. The programme was a lengthy one, and was not got through till 4 o'clock in the morning. Supper which was supplied by Mrs. Leonard was served in the upstairs hall, and was done ample justice to by all present. The young men of the club are to be congratulated on the success of this their second ball, and as they intend making it an annual event, we wish them increased success each year.

Hon. M. Adams, M. P., is staying in town for a few days, the guest of his brother, Postmaster Adams. Post office Inspector King was in town yesterday. Hon. J. J. Tweedie, who has been in England and the continent, on his annual tour, is also in town. Mrs. Snowball, who has been ill for some time, is again out again. Her many friends are glad to see her convalescent once more. Mrs. Grogan has also been laid up the greater part of the winter, but is again up. She has been much missed from St. Mary's church, of which she is the leading member, and her numerous friends are glad to welcome her return to health.

C. Winslow, during her brother's absence in Upper Canada. Miss Pierce, who has been visiting friends in Montreal since New Years, has gone on to Ottawa to make a visit with friends there.

out for his daughter, consisting of two Sheldan ponies and a brown sleigh. Mr. C. A. E. Bruce left last week for the upper provinces on a business trip. He took in the Quebec carnival on his way. The Cyprus Club has had a very successful evening on each Wednesday and Friday throughout the Lenten season. The McLeod & Melville "Will of the Wisp" Co. played here last night to a crowded house. The Cyprus Club has purchased a handsome grand piano, and have formed a fine orchestra. It has been whistled that they intend giving a grand concert and dramatic performance after Lent is over. This club, although only formed a little over a year ago, has been a great success; it has grown so, that it will shortly move into the handsome suit of rooms over the Mackenzie Loggie store, which will better meet its requirements than the rooms at present occupied. Feb. 7.—The season of Lent has now begun and that means to a good many of us no more parties or gaiety for a time. The last of the assemblies was held on Wednesday evening of last week. There were about seventy present and all seemed to have a real jolly time. The ladies' costumes were very pretty. Following is a partial list: Mrs. C. F. The long promised performance of "The Miller's daughter" by the Amateur dramatic club took place on Thursday evening in the Opera house and was a grand success; many pronouncing it to be the best amateur performance ever produced in Moncton. In the first place there was a good audience and that I believe urges performers either amateur or professional to do their best. One was immediately struck with the peculiar adaptation of each individual in the play to his or her part as character. Mrs. Hatcher made a most "Hazel" and her acting throughout (and the part was a difficult one) was all that could be desired. Miss Harley, of Newcastle as "Dolly Outton" captivated the audience at once. She was perfectly natural in her part and very graceful in her movements. Mr. W. C. Paver had a most difficult part that of "Dustan Kirk" the miller, but it was well acted and carried out to perfection. Mrs. C. A. Murray as "Mersey Kirk" Hazel's mother made a sweet old lady and took the part well. The same may be said of Miss Westman as "Lady Carlingford". Dr. Murray as "Aaron Rodway" was fine and Mr. Benedict as "Arthur Carlingford" was also good. Mr. A. C. Stead as "Mathusalem Wiggin" was very funny while Mr. Butler as "Pitcairn Green", with his witty sayings kept the audience in good humor throughout the evening. Mr. Wilkinson made an excellent Barney O'Flynn and the other minor parts were well taken. The music under the leadership of Prof. Watts was fine and added much to the success of the performance. The company went to Shediac on Thursday and performed on Saturday.
