

VIN MARIANI

"VIN MARIANI" gives to my "White Fathers," sons of Europe, the courage and strength to civilize Asia and Africa. CARDINAL LAVIGNERIE.

This popular French Tonic, as prescribed by the entire Medical Profession, is uniformly efficacious. It nourishes and strengthens when everything else fails, is readily digested and can be taken indefinitely without any unpleasant reaction, and this cannot be said of any other tonic; its beneficial effects are immediate and lasting. Being a diffusible tonic, it renews and stimulates the vital forces, giving life and vigor, and is invaluable for all bodily and mental over-exertions. VIN MARIANI refreshes in the most agreeable manner, and is considered by everyone testing it, as palatable as the choicest old wines. For Invalids, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Lung Troubles, Impoverished Blood, Malaria, Influenza, etc., VIN MARIANI is the tonic par excellence. The entire system is fortified and toned, thus preventing many ills.

To Mr. Mariani, in remembrance of his excellent wine. ADELINA PATTI.

To my good friend, A. Mariani, beneficent discoverer of that admirable wine which has so often restored my strength. GOUNOD.

The Elixir of Life, which combats human debility, the one real cause of every ill—a veritable scientific fountain of youth, which, in giving vigor, health and energy, would create an entirely new and superior race. EMILE ZOLA.

In truth "VIN MARIANI" is perfect, gives us health, drives away the blues, and is of such excellent quality that whoever tastes it might almost desire to be forever debilitated and depressed, thus to have a pretext to drink it. VICTORIEN SARDOU.

I have much pleasure in stating that I have used the "VIN MARIANI" for many years. I can only say it is a valuable stimulant. SIR MORELL MACKENZIE.

Your precious "VIN MARIANI" has completely reformed my constitution; you should certainly offer some to the French Government. HENRI ROCHEFORT.

"VIN MARIANI" seems to brighten and increase all our faculties; it is very probable that had I taken it twenty years ago, the Statue of Liberty would have attained the height of several hundred metres. I console myself, however, with the thought that this precious wine will give me the strength to carry out certain other projects already formed, and for which accept thanks from yours cordially. BARTHOLDI.

Homage to the virtues of "VIN MARIANI," which so often has given me strength. ROSITA MAURI.

MONSIEUR MARIANI: Man always and everywhere lacks energy and endurance—it is his misery—you have succeeded in giving him a new and exquisite source of energy; you are a benefactor of man. REV. FATHER DIDON.

MY DEAR MARIANI: Your marvellous wine needs certainly no further recommendation, as every one is familiar with it, and no one would be without it. I claim "VIN MARIANI" can have no equal. BERTHELIER, Theatre des Nouveautés, Paris.
