The stage decorations were beautiful, the artistic grouping of the plants, among which were some lovely Easter lilies, reflecting great credit on the young ladies who so kindly offered their services. The choruses and trios were exceptionally well rendered. The "St. Andrew's quartette" and the St. Philip's quartette (Westville), sang superbly, Tenor solos by Mr. H. Redpath and Mr. J. Goode (Westville), showed an artistic finish. While a comic song, "Ennescorthy," by Mr. H. Townshend, actually brought down the house. It was a pleasure indeed, to listen to Rev. The entertainment last Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. by local talent, assisted by Mrs. J. McD. Taylor, Halitax, attracted a very large audience. The programme was long and conscientiously rendered. Most of the ladies assisting were in full evening toilette. Mrs. Phillips looked well in a gown of heliotrope cashmere with white lace trimmings, square cut bodice, short sleeves. Mrs. Gourley's roles, throughout the evening, were so many as to require a change of gowns, she appearing first in a pretty dress of soft white silk, wi h white and gold brocaded bodice, and later in a hands me costume of white and heliotrope silk.

Miss Mary Sutherland appeared in a wonderful gown, a creation from abroad, which I will not now attempt to describe, because from the fleeting glance I had I could not do it justice. Mrs. Taylor delighted and pleased everyone wi h her beautiful voice and fine presence. The character duett by Miss Wetmore and Mr. Philips was ter duett by Miss Wetmore and Mr. Philips was very petty; Miss Wetmore sang beautifully, and Mr. Philips old his love with becoming ardor. Mrs. Gourley made quite a bewitching and trying "Lady Teazle," and Mr. Hornsby a tolerably irascible and unreasonably jealous "Sir Peter." Mr. Fitch was loudly encored in his song with banjo accompaniment. This gentleman's voice surprised ever one; the difficult number chasen displaying to the full its the difficu t number chosen displaying to the full its gr at flexibility and compass. Miss Lulu Archiball was lovely, and acquitted herself with great credit is her recitatio, "A Child's Composition on Cats." The tableaux were all well done. James McMillan, Esq , Helena Avenue, Bracondale, Toronto, Canada, writes: "I have been suf-fering from dyspepsia for over 20 years, and have tried every supposed cure, which in some cases gave me temporary relief, but the trouble came back again with renewed force, until I almost despaired of being cured, thinking that instead of dyspep ia it must be cancer of the stomach I had. For the last three years I have been in agony from pain in the stomach, besides other symptons innumerable. until I could not even move about from pain and weakness. At last I saw your K. D. ### LADIES COLLEGE NOTES.

Rev. Father Boucher, of Charlo, was the guest of Rev. J. L. McDonald, last week.

SACKVILLE, April 11 .- It was a great pleasure to everyone last Sunday, to see Mrs. Harrison in her accustomed place in the choir of the Methodist church. Her sweet full voice has been much missed, the music having very perceptibly flagged during her absence. Everything was up to time again on this Sunday and she gave two solos with good effect. By dint of taking two lessons a day, Mrs. Harrison has managed, while in New York, to get a terms work into but little over a month. She is by no means worn out by this close application but in appearance and voice is as fresh as a

There is always a large turnout of the students in the morning. They march by twos up the aisle in what seems an almost never ending column. It is a rule, unchangeable as the laws of the Medes and Persians, that every student shall go to some service on Sunday morning, unless indeed prevented by illness. In the afternoon, any who wish can attend the Baptist service and the same with regard to the Episcopal church in the evening. A number usually go again in the evening to the Methodist church but they can do as they please in the matter. More go now at this time than formerly, when the meeting was in the hands of the theological students. Each one of these would take his turn to preach, irrespective of ability. As there are some fifty students, there was every variety of sermon, there was always a rleasing uncertainty as to what the quality and quantity would be. Some of the young men are excellent speakers, more are medium in their attainments and there are always a few, whose prayers and sermons much resemble Jean Richter's grandfather, in the highest degree,

In the morning, from nine to ten, Mrs. Archibald hold a Bible class, which, beginning with a few faithful souls, has grown to such proportions that it has to be held in Beethoven hall and divided into some ten or so classes. These are taught by several of the older and more thoughful of the girls and a few of the teachers also engage in the good work. Bible history is also taught by Mrs. Archibald in the regular year's work. Nearly every Sunday afternoon a meeting is held in the memorial chapel. It is chiefly for the mem-bers of the young men's and young women's Chris-trian associations, but any, even the outside publi, are welcome. The music, always a marked feature, is good. Mr. Harrison, one of the most promising of the music pupils, generally presides at the organ, and Mr. Porter lends the sweet strains of his violin to swell the harmony.

The singing is congregational and hymns of bright and inspiring nature seem to be the favorites. The meeting is conducted by either Dr. Stewart, the chaplain, one of the professors or a theologica student. I thought the last time I was there that it was a pleasing and touching sight to see so many young people, earnestly engaged in prayer and praise and striving to fight the good fight. On Thursday evening the young ladies hold a half hour meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and every Wednesday night there is a prayer meeting, that was instituted with the very building itself. Daily prayers are held in Beethoven hall before school and this is followed by the physical culture drill. The faculty are not unmindful of the fact that the muscular christianity is what is needed in this work-a-day world.

Dr. and Mrs. Borden had rather a serious time in getting home the night of the storm. They drove up from the train in the hotel team. Owing to the snow this vehicle consisted of a coal sled, half full of clean straw, only this and nothing more, but there was at least plenty of room for the two un-happy occupants. As the sled pitched through the drifts the doctor and his wife slid from starboard to larboard with rapid and painful frequency. At the foot of the academy hill they stuck fast, driver pulled, the doctor pushed but their efforts were of no avail. There they were, with the lights of home shining down on them, wrecked in port so to speak. After great exertion the driver managed to back his horses out of the drift and drive them to Hotel Brunswick, where they spent the night, returning to the college the next morning.

OF THE CITY OF ST. JOHN.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,-Yielding to the urgent request of the larger number of your Electorate, who, represented to me that during the coming civic year my long experience at the civic board would be of advantage to the city at large, I present myself as a candidate for the office of MAYOR at the election to be held on the 17th April instant, and respectfully solicit your votes. I am in favor of economy in expenditure as far a may be consistent with civic interests AND THE EFFICIENCY OF THE DEPARTMENTAL SERVICES.

I am opposed to any increase of our BONDED INDEBTEDNESS for any purpose, unless the revenue derivable therefrom will pay the sinking fund and interest, the property thereby obtained ecoming a valuable asset.

Allow me to say that I am of opinion that no one seeking a representative position at the Common Council should be hampered in the exercise of his judgment by a PLATFORM or PLEDGES determined upon or made previous to the question i

all its details being open for consideration and an opportunity aff rded for enquiry and a decision I am in hearty accord with most of the principles contained in the different election cards now before you and seek your suffrages as THE PEOPLES CANDIDATE asking that my PAST RECORD be taken as a guarantee of my FUIURE C. URSE, pon its merits.

Your obedient servant, THOMAS W. PETERS.
