

GRANVILLE FERRY.

[Progress is for sale at Granville Ferry by W. A. Irvine.]

MARCH 27.—The most delightful party of this winter was given by Dr. and Mrs. Coleman on Monday evening, being the eighth anniversary of their marriage. People arrived very punctually between half-past seven and eight, after which dancing began in good earnest and continued until twelve o'clock, when supper was served. Again after supper the lively strains of the violin were heard and dancing was resumed and did not cease until two o'clock. Even at that hour the guests reluctantly departed, for the evening had been a scene of gaiety from first to last. The comfort of non-dancing men as well as ladies had been looked after and a room was provided for whilst and other amusements.

Mrs. Coleman received her guests in a lovely evening costume of rich black satin. Both Dr. and Mrs. Coleman have a charming way of entertaining which is very pleasant to their guests. Among those invited were: Mr. and Mrs. James Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troop, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pigott, Mr. and Mrs. A. Troop, Mr. and Mrs. James Shaffer, Capt. and Mrs. Groves, Mrs. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Pickup, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Reed, Mr. and Mrs. James Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. ## QUACK ADVERTISEMENTS.

Are a nuisance and we think it behooves publishers to examine into the merits of many articles published in our columns. We do not deny that many meritorious remedies are properly to be classed under this heading. Take the hundreds and thousands of sufferers from severe suffering by the use of Poison's Nervine; would it not be unreasonable to expect them to condemn that far-famed remedy? Now we know for a fact that Poison's Nervine is without exception the most powerful, pleasant and certain remedy in the world for pain. It cannot fail, for it goes right to the bottom of pain, penetrates to the nerves, soothes them into quietness, and affords prompt and permanent relief.
