JAN. 22-Grip of rather a mild type has made its appearance in town. Mr. R. S. Bowness is one of its victims.

Capt. Thomas Walsh is confined to his house with an attack of grip. He is improving under Dr. E. P. Moore's care.

The Rainbow club has had two meetings since last writing, the first at Mr. A. L. Anderson's, although the night was extremely cold the members were all present. A most enjoyable evening was spent in progressive whist and dancing. Among the strangers were Miss Murray, and Miss Wyatt, of Charlottetown. The following Tuesday it met at the residence of Mr. J. E. Wyatt. All had a delightful evening, it being one of the most pleasant yet given. The members of the club enjoyed a snowshoe tramp out to Mr. Alexander Lefurgey's one evening last week. On arriving at the house they were received by Miss Lucy Lefurgey, who did all in her power to make her guests enjoy themselves. The party left for home at eleven o'clock. What about Summerside, mock parlisment? I hope our young men have not given it up. We have material tor a good one.

I hear rumors of a ball to take place at Kensington at an early date.

It is my sad duty to chronicle the death of Miss Kate Campbell, who died in the P. E. Island hospital. The remains were brought to Summerside and buried in St. Eleanor's churchyard.
