Good sleighing and very fair tobogganing are making things lively this week in a manner proper to the season. The first tobogganing party of the year was given on Wednesday night by the officers of the Royal Artillery, and in spite of the cold was very brisk and cheery. The great feature of Halifax tobogganing parties is that hot drinks and sandwiches and a bonfire are usually a part of the festivity, and people are not obliged to stand about in the cold till chilled if their best young men are not there to take them down the hill.

Card parties are nearly as popular this week as last, in spite of other attractions. The prettiest prizes of the season so far have been given by Mrs. G. Hart, even the "booby" prize having been silver.

The first prize a silver headed stick was won by Mr. Wythe, while Miss Colburne carried off the ladies' king prize.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Charles Wythe gave a card party at which young married people were the guests. Poker and whist were played until supper and I hear that the whole affair was delightful.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Montgomery Moore had a large afternoon tea, which was attended by almost every one in spite of the counter attraction of a private day at the rink. Indeed the weather was so cold that tea and hot chocolate seemed the most delightful things in the world. Music, was, I believe, the amusement at this party, which was very well and charmingly done as usual at Bellevue.

Invitations are out for a small dance for young people at the same hospitable home on Thursday, before which there is a small dinner.

I hear that with the first large snow fall a ladies snowshoe club is to be organized, gentlemen being admitted as members, goes without saying. The tramps are to be in the afternoon not in the evening, and tea is to be provided by the different members in turn. No uniform will be worn, though of course ladies owning the regulation blanket coats will wear them, and the tramps will be as much across country as possible, a road being avoided as a point of honor.

Mr. Dufus of the Bank of Montreal, who has been very ill since his return from Boston, is now recovering but will not return to the North West for some time.

The Miknada's Convention and Broom Drill, which is being got up by the Willing Y's is to be held on the 18th of January and will be a very pretty performance, and rather new to Halifax. Very pretty marches will be introduced, but in these days of marching on the stage the ladies frequenters of amateur performances wish Halifax ladies would take up skirt dancing like the ladies of London and New York.

Mr. Gattward's organ recital at St. George's on Sunday afternoon was well attended and very successful. The most notable thing was a prelude and fugue of Bach's which was especially well played.

The marriage of Mrs. Macdonald, eldest daughter of Mr. H. H. Fuller, and Mr. Frank Phelan takes place on Wednesday of this week at St. Mary's cathedral. The wedding is to be a very quiet one on account of the recent death of Mr. Fuller of Arichat, uncle to the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Phelan will reside in Halifax. Their wedding journey will be to New York. Mr. W. Phelan is to be best man at the ceremony. There will not be any bridesmaids as it is the second marriage of the bride.

It turns out that there was no truth in the rumors of the appointment of Sir John Ross to the governorship of Malta. General Fremantle has been appointed instead.

The Rev. Mr. Allison, late curate of St. Luke's, preached in that church for the last time on Sunday evening. He will be much regretted in his parish, especially as he leaves it on account of ill health. Mr. Allison has taken a curacy in Baltimore for the present.

A great many Halifax people are suffering from grippe, and this week I hear that both Judge Meagher and Judge Town head are confined to the house with it.

Mr. C. R. Barry left for England on Saturday last, and will leave a gap in the circle of familiar friends hard to be filled. Mr. Barry will for the future reside in Dublin with his mother.

Mrs. and Miss W. K. are staying with Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Morris street.

A very ingenious portable fire escape has been invented by a Halifax lady, and has been patented by her. Very many people have been to see the working model which the clever inventor, Mrs. Killen, has on view at her residence.

At the next concert of the Orpheus' Club the oratorio "Elijah" is to be given in full. The concert takes place in a week or so, and ought to be a great success.

The hockey match between the Orne Hockey Club and the United Banks has been postponed until Friday of this week, as the ice on the rink had to be re-frozen on Monday and Tuesday. This will be an excellent match, and great interest is taken in it.

On Tuesday evening the Governor has his first members' dinner for the session of the legislature.

The Opera Company is doing a good business at the Academy of Music this week, and will be here for about a fortnight.

The marriage of Miss Corbett and Captain Duff, R.A., takes place early in April at St. Luke's church. There will be four bridesmaids, the bride and altogether, it will be quite the prettiest wedding of the season.

YARMOUTH, N. S.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Yarmouth at the stores of E. J. Vickery, Harris & Guest, H. W. Cann and J. A. Craig.]

JAN. 8.—The funeral of Mr. W. D. Lovitt took place on Thursday afternoon last, from his residence at Milton. Stores and public offices were closed, and flags were flying at half mast, throughout the town, and on all ships in port. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Langille assisted by Rev. Messrs Goucher, Moore, McIntosh, and White. The pall bearers were Hon. L. E. Baker, Robert Cairns, Theo. Kilham, S. A. Crowell, J. W. Moody, Esq., and Councillor N. B. Lewis. The funeral procession was one of the longest ever witnessed in Yarmouth, there being between fifty and sixty carriages. Beautiful floral offerings were sent from numerous friends, and from nearly every branch of industry in which Mr. Lovitt was engaged. The family have the sympathy of the whole town. And Yarmouth can hardly realize their loss, so suddenly has it come upon them.

Mr. Arthur Brown, who has been home on a Christmas vacation returned to Worcester, on Wednesday last, he was accompanied by Mr. Coulson who has been spending his vacation with him.

Dr. C. House of Boston, arrived here on Wednesday.

Dr. B. Calkin, of Boston, left by steamer Boston on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burrill, of Weymouth were in town last week. Mr. Burrill has returned to Weymouth.

SYDNEY, C. B.

JAN. 8.—One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the drive, followed by a dance, on New Year's night. The rendezvous was at Mrs. Ingraham's, when at half-past seven a party of about thirty-five, chaperoned by Mrs. Donkin, started for their six mile drive, returning to Mrs. Ingraham's to finish up the evening with dancing. Among the number were Mrs. Donkin, Mrs. Routledge, the Misses Mary and Rachel Lowry, Alice McGillivray, Falconer, Earle, Chalmers, McKenzie, Peters, Fearan, Ida and Mand Ingraham, Worgan, Sterling, Gibbons, Burchill and Forbes; and Messrs. Kimble, McDougall, McDonald, Stewart, Gossip, Donkin, Lowry, Ingraham, Burchill, Falconer, Routledge, Stirling, Worgan, Vought and Rolands.

MONCTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Bookstore, Main street, A. H. Jones, and by J. E. McCoy.]

JAN. 10.—Last Wednesday evening the club held their first dance in Ennals' hall. A very large number was present and a most enjoyable evening spent. I cannot begin to describe all the ladies' dresses, but here are a few of the prettiest: Miss Norfolk, of Boston, wore a lovely empire gown of white silk, and I believe was one of the belles, while Miss Maley, of Montreal, who was also attired in white silk was the other. These two maidens both looked so well that it was difficult to decide the belle; Miss Holstead looked well in a white dress with buttercup silk trimmings; Miss Harris wore a pretty dress of nile green silk, natural flowers; Miss Foster, pink silk, green trimmings; Miss Bruce, white silk, lace trimmings; Miss Cooke, cream silk, yellow trimmings; Mrs. T. Y. Cooke was the belle among the married ladies, she wore a handsome black silk dress trimmed with green.

Miss Janie Harris entertained her young friends on Friday evening to a delightful dance. There were about sixty of the boys and girls present. Some of the dresses worn were very pretty. Miss George Cole, attired in a charming gown of white silk, was the belle of the evening. Miss Beulah Archibald's dress of white and gold was most becoming.

Miss Ethel Summer wore a light grey trimmed with red; Miss Mamie Cooke, a pretty dress of white embroidered muslin; Miss Sadie, Borden, a green empire gown; Miss Grace Busby, cream nun's veiling; Miss Winnie Williams, white lace trimmings; Miss Tricie Hannington, (Shediac) a very pretty dress of pink silk. During the evening most of the ladies collected the money.

On Monday evening St. Bernard's church was

A WONDERFUL CURE!

PORTLAND, ST. JOHN CO., FEB. 27TH, 1893.

Messrs. Hanington Bros:

DEAR SIRS,—Having suffered severely for the past eight or nine years, from that excruciating and painful disease—Neuralgia—and having tried a various assortment of medicines, but to no effect, until I had the good fortune—and no doubt it was a lucky omen—of obtaining possession of a package of your excellent remedy—SCIATICINE—and before it was half used I became a new creature, free from every description of pain or swelling whatever, and made a perfect convalescent. I highly recommend it to any person or persons suffering from NEURALGIA or Swelling in the Face, as one of the most sure and speedy remedies that can possibly be obtained.

Yours, &c., &c.

(Signed) ELLEN CODNER.

"SCIATICINE" is for sale by all the leading druggists in the Dominion. The wholesale drug houses in the Maritime Provinces and Montreal supply the trade.

If you have any difficulty in procuring it, remit us by registered letter or P. O. Order, with your address, and we will forward without delay.
