

NEW GLASGOW.

[Progress is for sale in New Glasgow by A. O. Pritchard and H. H. Henderson.]

JAN. 9.—The Misses Mitchell, of Halifax, are guests at Mr. James D. McGregor's.

Mr. Don Fraser is ill with a gripe.

Miss Edith Carmichael, of Pictou, is visiting at Mr. Sinclair's.

Mr. D. A. Ross, of Montreal, is visiting his many friends in town this week.

Miss Blanche McDonald, of Hopewell, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McDonald. She goes to Halifax this week to study medicine at Dalhousie college.

Rev. Mr. De Brisy officiated in St. George's church on Sunday.

Mr. Reginald Walker, of Dartmouth, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drake.

Mrs. Stewart Day and daughter returned from Parrsboro on Friday.

Mr. Sinclair, "West Side," is visiting friends in Halifax.

The party given by the Misses Carmichael, "West Side," on Wednesday of last week, was—after always the case when they entertain—enjoyed exceedingly by all invited. The majority of the guests were the particular friends of Mr. Rob. McGregor, who was the honored guest. Those present were the Misses Annie Roy, Maitland, Jean Mitchell, Annie C. McKay, Annie Graham, Isabel McKay, S. McGregor, Isabel Graham, Sarah Patterson, Sarah Walker, Jennie McGregor, Winnie Carmichael, Pictou, Laura Smith, Grace Carmichael, Flossie McGregor, Jean Patterson, Laura McNeill, Jennie Fraser, Addie Bent, Ella Bowman, Gertrude Douglas, Miss Garvie, Hattie Underwood, Missie Fraser, P. Grant, and the Misses Poot, Stellarton, Messrs. Stewart Robertson, H. K. Fitzpatrick, E. W. Fraser, Archie Bowman, John W. Grant, Frank McNeill, W. Jackson, Gordon Graham, John Grant, John Fraser, Henry Graham, E. and C. Pool, Stellarton, E. W. Matheson, Edwin Fraser, Will Ross, John Bell, D. McIntosh, G. Fraser, Geo. Chisholm, Stanley Fraser, Fred Robertson, W. Lawson, Helen McGregor, Miss Jean McDonald returned on Saturday from (Truro).

Mrs. R. McGregor, who has been quite ill, is now convalescent.

Major Jenkinson has returned from Windsor.

Miss Mabel Smith, of Parrsboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Stewart Day.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. C. Ball, entertained the friends of their sons, John and Arthur, who returned from Truro, on Thursday evening last, in their hall. The Murray orchestra of Stellarton was engaged, and dancing enjoyed until twelve o'clock when luncheon was served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Newton Drake, Mr. and Mrs. H. Strong, the Misses McKaracher, Mrs. N. Carmichael, Annie Roy, Ella Grey, Sarah Walker, Isabel Graham, Jean Mitchell, Mary Eastwood, Minnie Gray, Addie Bent, Miss Fraser, Annie Graham, Annie C. McKay, Jean McGregor, Annie C. McKay, Annie Eastwood, Ella Bowman, Gertrude Douglas, Jessie Graham, Jessie Douglas, Maggie Thompson, Jessie McDougall, Tena Fraser, Annie C. McKay, Doris, Stellarton, the Misses Mitchell, Halifax, Miss Garvie Toronto, Messrs. Bois De Veber, H. K. Fitzpatrick, A. Dickett, L. Lawson, E. W. Fraser, H. V. Johnson, John Grant, John Cameron, Frank McNeill, Walter Jackson, Clifford McLean, Douglas McIntosh, Will Cameron, Stanley Fraser, Reginald Walker, Dartmouth, Helen Fraser, Vernon Kerr, Louis Eastwood, George Fraser, Harry Cracker, John Roy, Gordon Graham, Archie Bowman, John W. Grant, A number of other friends were invited who owing to previous engagements, could not attend.

Mrs. W. S. T. Ball left here on Friday last for Montreal, Mr. Falls left here with a gripe. The first of a series of socials, in aid of the episcopal church, will be held on Monday evening next, at the residence of Mr. C. T. Bent. An excellent programme is being prepared. Luncheon will be served.

It is whispered that in a very short time a delightful dance will be given at the home of one of our leading citizens.

Miss S. O'Brien returned yesterday from Antigonish, where she was spending vacation.

A dinner party at the residence of Mr. Graham Fraser, "River Bank," was one of the social events of last week.

James D. McGregor left to-day for Halifax to attend the legislature.

Mr. George Patterson has returned from New York.

Principal Solene returned from Boston yesterday.

Miss S. McGregor goes to Halifax this week to visit friends and will probably remain until spring.

Mrs. G. Arthur Ings, returned from Quebec on Thursday.

The Misses Anna Sutherland and Jean Bell were visiting in Stellarton.

Mr. Will Smith left yesterday for Pine Hill Seminary to continue his studies.

Miss Sadie Brown, entertained a number of lady friends last Tuesday evening.

Mr. McRae returned to town on Monday.

Miss Minnie Grant, of Cow Bay, spent Sunday in town previous to her departure for Antigonish.

Misses Helen Brown and Christie Fraser, are visiting in Hantsport.

Mr. L. E. Hart, of Guysboro, paid New Glasgow friends a visit while en route to Halifax.

Mr. James Keith, is visiting in Pictou this week.

Miss Jennie McGregor, left yesterday for Montreal to continue studies at McGill University.

BRIDGE TOWN.

[Progress is for sale in Bridge Town by Miss B. Elderkin.]

JAN. 9.—Miss Bertha Ruggles returned on Saturday from Middleton, where she has been spending her holidays.

Mr. Alfred Ellis spent Sunday in town.

Miss Nellie Hoy returned to Perrott on Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Taylor and Miss Esther Clark, who have been visiting here, returned to Halifax on Tuesday.

Miss Emily Dakin, Digby, is the guest of Mrs. F. C. Harris.

Mrs. E. L. Simonds, and little daughter, who have been the guests of Mrs. A. Hoyt for a week, went to Deep Brook on Monday.

Mrs. Pryor returned to Halifax on Saturday, where she has been spending the holidays.

Mrs. and Mrs. Will Chute spent a few days here last week with Mr. Chute's parents.

Mr. Arthur Johnson, of Halifax, was the guest of Mr. T. D. Luggis last week.

Mr. W. J. Gencross, of New Westminster, is in town.

On Thursday evening gave a very pleasant party for Mr. G. Marshall for her little daughters, Pauline and Rita.

Miss Jennie Bartling returned to Liverpool on Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Polley and child, who have been the guests of Mrs. James McGivern, returned from Lunenburg on Tuesday.

GRANVILLE FERRY.

[Progress is for sale at Granville Ferry by W. A. Irvine.]

JAN. 9.—The Solomon Grundy party given by Mrs. Hatheway last Thursday evening was a decided success. The house was beautifully illuminated with wax candles, and the handsome costumes of the ladies added greatly to the pretty scene which the room presented. Mrs. Hatheway was a charming hostess, and received in a handsome dress of pink silk with an overdress of black lace. Small tables were arranged in various rooms and soon the guests were deeply interested in the different games, which continued until twelve o'clock, when the prizes were presented to the fortunate winners. Miss Jennie Pizgott won the ladies' first prize, a very pretty gold and silver orange spoon; Mr. A. D. Mills won the corresponding gent's prize, a half dozen best cigars; Miss Blanche Reynolds, the ladies' booty, a Chinese doll; Mr. G. M. Harris, a beet tied with a pale blue ribbon. After the presentation of the prizes, when the room was cleared, those present were Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Piggitt, Mr. and Mrs. Weatherpoon, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Pickup, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mills, Capt.

"K. D. C. has proved itself. The Greatest Dyspepsia cure of the age. Try it! It will prove for yourself and be convinced of its Great Merit."

Talmage says "Dreams are midnight dyspepsia." K. D. C. will cure midnight dyspepsia or indigestion at any time or in any form. Try it. It will prove for yourself and be convinced of its Great Merit."

Talmage says "Dreams are midnight dyspepsia." K. D. C. will cure midnight dyspepsia or indigestion at any time or in any form. Try it. It will prove for yourself and be convinced of its Great Merit."

Talmage says "Dreams are midnight dyspepsia." K. D. C. will cure midnight dyspepsia or indigestion at any time or in any form. Try it. It will prove for yourself and be convinced of its Great Merit."

and Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Sutherland, the Misses Reynolds, Miss M. Mills, Miss Lent, Miss Mills, Miss Piggitt, and Messrs. Irvine, Hall, Troop, Mills, Harris and McCormick.

Mrs. C. H. Mills looked extremely handsome in a mauve silk, and was undoubtedly the belle among the married ladies.

Mrs. Weatherpoon wore an exceedingly rich costume of green silk, trimmed with passementerie.

Mrs. A. D. Mills looked particularly well in a navy blue satin trimmed profusely with point lace. Mrs. Mills was greatly admired in a costume of black satin with natural flowers.

Miss Grace Reynolds, cream cashmere and white lace.

Miss Blanche Reynolds, Nile green with chiffon trimmings.

Miss Hall, figured chaille with old rose trimmings.

Miss Piggitt, fawn and Nile green velvet.

Mrs. Coleman, black satin trimmed with yellow chiffon.

Mrs. Pickup, black satin and diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Sutherland, green ottoman silk.

Mrs. Pizgott, black satin trimmed with passementerie.

Mrs. Alfred Mills, black lace costume trimmed with jet.

Miss Bertha Lent, from Brighton has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Reynolds.

Mrs. A. D. Mills has been confined to the house for several days with a severe cold.

Miss Josie Hall entertained a number of her friends on Wednesday evening.

Miss Belle Troop is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. A. Piggitt.

Mrs. C. W. Mills gave a dinner party at six o'clock on Thursday evening, to a party of friends.

There was a very pleasant gathering at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weatherpoon on New Year's Day.

After being confined to the house for several weeks, Mr. Robert Mills is able to be out again.

There is talk of having a sleigh party to Bridgetown next week.

Mr. Ernest Mills, who was home during the holidays, returned to St. John on Saturday.

JAN. 11.—Quite a number gathered the other evening at the residence of Mr. John Oliver's, and had a very enjoyable time, the evening being spent partially in games and partially in listening to music, rendered by Mrs. Samuel Mills, who performed upon the organ, and Mr. Dan Parker with the violin.

Miss Annie Hall gave a concert in Temperance hall Saturday evening before New Years, and it proved a success. One interesting feature of the performance was a "wand calothenic drill" by a number of little boys who reflected great credit upon their mother, Miss Hall. The proceeds were in aid of missions.

Miss Grace Reynolds and Miss Mary Mills have returned to Windsor. Miss Mills, during the vacation, gave readings to a Bridgetown audience and received much applause.

There is talk of having a sleigh party to Bridgetown next week.

Mr. Ernest Mills, who was home during the holidays, returned to St. John on Saturday.

JAN. 11.—Quite a number gathered the other evening at the residence of Mr. John Oliver's, and had a very enjoyable time, the evening being spent partially in games and partially in listening to music, rendered by Mrs. Samuel Mills, who performed upon the organ, and Mr. Dan Parker with the violin.

Miss Annie Hall gave a concert in Temperance hall Saturday evening before New Years, and it proved a success. One interesting feature of the performance was a "wand calothenic drill" by a number of little boys who reflected great credit upon their mother, Miss Hall. The proceeds were in aid of missions.

Miss Grace Reynolds and Miss Mary Mills have returned to Windsor. Miss Mills, during the vacation, gave readings to a Bridgetown audience and received much applause.

There is talk of having a sleigh party to Bridgetown next week.

Mr. Ernest Mills, who was home during the holidays, returned to St. John on Saturday.

JAN. 11.—Quite a number gathered the other evening at the residence of Mr. John Oliver's, and had a very enjoyable time, the evening being spent partially in games and partially in listening to music, rendered by Mrs. Samuel Mills, who performed upon the organ, and Mr. Dan Parker with the violin.

Miss Annie Hall gave a concert in Temperance hall Saturday evening before New Years, and it proved a success. One interesting feature of the performance was a "wand calothenic drill" by a number of little boys who reflected great credit upon their mother, Miss Hall. The proceeds were in aid of missions.

Miss Grace Reynolds and Miss Mary Mills have returned to Windsor. Miss Mills, during the vacation, gave readings to a Bridgetown audience and received much applause.

There is talk of having a sleigh party to Bridgetown next week.

Mr. Ernest Mills, who was home during the holidays, returned to St. John on Saturday.

JAN. 11.—Quite a number gathered the other evening at the residence of Mr. John Oliver's, and had a very enjoyable time, the evening being spent partially in games and partially in listening to music, rendered by Mrs. Samuel Mills, who performed upon the organ, and Mr. Dan Parker with the violin.

Miss Annie Hall gave a concert in Temperance hall Saturday evening before New Years, and it proved a success. One interesting feature of the performance was a "wand calothenic drill" by a number of little boys who reflected great credit upon their mother, Miss Hall. The proceeds were in aid of missions.

Miss Grace Reynolds and Miss Mary Mills have returned to Windsor. Miss Mills, during the vacation, gave readings to a Bridgetown audience and received much applause.

There is talk of having a sleigh party to Bridgetown next week.

Mr. Ernest Mills, who was home during the holidays, returned to St. John on Saturday.

JAN. 11.—Quite a number gathered the other evening at the residence of Mr. John Oliver's, and had a very enjoyable time, the evening being spent partially in games and partially in listening to music, rendered by Mrs. Samuel Mills, who performed upon the organ, and Mr. Dan Parker with the violin.

Miss Annie Hall gave a concert in Temperance hall Saturday evening before New Years, and it proved a success. One interesting feature of the performance was a "wand calothenic drill" by a number of little boys who reflected great credit upon their mother, Miss Hall. The proceeds were in aid of missions.

Miss Grace Reynolds and Miss Mary Mills have returned to Windsor. Miss Mills, during the vacation, gave readings to a Bridgetown audience and received much applause.

There is talk of having a sleigh party to Bridgetown next week.

Mr. Ernest Mills, who was home during the holidays, returned to St. John on Saturday.

JAN. 11.—Quite a number gathered the other evening at the residence of Mr. John Oliver's, and had a very enjoyable time, the evening being spent partially in games and partially in listening to music, rendered by Mrs. Samuel Mills, who performed upon the organ, and Mr. Dan Parker with the violin.

Miss Annie Hall gave a concert in Temperance hall Saturday evening before New Years, and it proved a success. One interesting feature of the performance was a "wand calothenic drill" by a number of little boys who reflected great credit upon their mother, Miss Hall. The proceeds were in aid of missions.

Miss Grace Reynolds and Miss Mary Mills have returned to Windsor. Miss Mills, during the vacation, gave readings to a Bridgetown audience and received much applause.

There is talk of having a sleigh party to Bridgetown next week.

Mr. Ernest Mills, who was home during the holidays, returned to St. John on Saturday.

Mrs. Morris entertained a few young people on Wednesday evening of last week. Those present were: Miss Jane Curry, Miss Maizie Curry, Miss Nora Blanchard, Miss Fletcher, Miss Cummings, (Londonbury) Miss Lawson, and Messrs. Liffner, Sangster, Ed. Reid, P. Lionel, Dimock and Falkner.

Mr. James Brand, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Bossance, returned to Halifax on Saturday.

Miss Maggie Bossance is visiting friends in Halifax.

Mrs. Frances Woodworth spent a few days in Grand Pre last week.

Miss Fletcher, who has been visiting Miss Jennie Burgess, returned to Londonderry on Saturday.

Mrs. Lawson entertained a number of friends at progressive euchre this evening.

On Saturday evening Miss Belle Crandall entertained a few of her friends.

Miss Graves and Franklin Lack of Acadia seminary, Wolfville spent a few days with Mrs. A. E. Shaw last week.

Master Charlie Forsyth, who has been spending his vacation at home, returns this week to Horton.

Miss Mamie Ward is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Doran.

There are out for an anthem to be given at "Claremont" for Miss Sadie Locke on Saturday.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Jan. 9.—Miss Annie Roy, is visiting her school friend, Jean Mitchell, at New Glasgow.]

Miss Mabel Putnam has returned from a visit at Yarmouth.

Edgar Putnam and Frank Smith who have been spending their vacation at home have returned to the Pictou Academy.

Miss Mary Allen is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, "Atholton Hall."

The social in the basement of St. David's Presbyterian church was a great success. The programme was a good one and well carried out. There followed such a luncheon as only Maitland people know how to prepare, and the appreciation shown for it was well marked to need comment.

Mr. C. W. Browne, principal of the school is spending his vacation with Doctor McLean at Shubenacadie.

Miss Mary Roy has returned to Truro, where she is attending the Normal school.

Mrs. Barbrick and Miss Bessie, returned from Stellarton on Tuesday. Mrs. Barbrick was called there to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Sydney Smith a well known and highly respected citizen of that place, and for many years a citizen of Maitland.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Jan. 9.—Miss Annie Roy, is visiting her school friend, Jean Mitchell, at New Glasgow.]

Miss Mabel Putnam has returned from a visit at Yarmouth.

Edgar Putnam and Frank Smith who have been spending their vacation at home have returned to the Pictou Academy.

Miss Mary Allen is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, "Atholton Hall."

The social in the basement of St. David's Presbyterian church was a great success. The programme was a good one and well carried out. There followed such a luncheon as only Maitland people know how to prepare, and the appreciation shown for it was well marked to need comment.

Mr. C. W. Browne, principal of the school is spending his vacation with Doctor McLean at Shubenacadie.

Miss Mary Roy has returned to Truro, where she is attending the Normal school.

Mrs. Barbrick and Miss Bessie, returned from Stellarton on Tuesday. Mrs. Barbrick was called there to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Sydney Smith a well known and highly respected citizen of that place, and for many years a citizen of Maitland.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Jan. 9.—Miss Annie Roy, is visiting her school friend, Jean Mitchell, at New Glasgow.]

Miss Mabel Putnam has returned from a visit at Yarmouth.

Edgar Putnam and Frank Smith who have been spending their vacation at home have returned to the Pictou Academy.

Miss Mary Allen is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, "Atholton Hall."

The social in the basement of St. David's Presbyterian church was a great success. The programme was a good one and well carried out. There followed such a luncheon as only Maitland people know how to prepare, and the appreciation shown for it was well marked to need comment.

Mr. C. W. Browne, principal of the school is spending his vacation with Doctor McLean at Shubenacadie.

Miss Mary Roy has returned to Truro, where she is attending the Normal school.

Mrs. Barbrick and Miss Bessie, returned from Stellarton on Tuesday. Mrs. Barbrick was called there to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Sydney Smith a well known and highly respected citizen of that place, and for many years a citizen of Maitland.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Jan. 9.—Miss Annie Roy, is visiting her school friend, Jean Mitchell, at New Glasgow.]

Miss Mabel Putnam has returned from a visit at Yarmouth.

Edgar Putnam and Frank Smith who have been spending their vacation at home have returned to the Pictou Academy.

Miss Mary Allen is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, "Atholton Hall."

The social in the basement of St. David's Presbyterian church was a great success. The programme was a good one and well carried out. There followed such a luncheon as only Maitland people know how to prepare, and the appreciation shown for it was well marked to need comment.

Mr. C. W. Browne, principal of the school is spending his vacation with Doctor McLean at Shubenacadie.

Miss Mary Roy has returned to Truro, where she is attending the Normal school.

Mrs. Barbrick and Miss Bessie, returned from Stellarton on Tuesday. Mrs. Barbrick was called there to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Sydney Smith a well known and highly respected citizen of that place, and for many years a citizen of Maitland.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Jan. 9.—Miss Annie Roy, is visiting her school friend, Jean Mitchell, at New Glasgow.]

Miss Mabel Putnam has returned from a visit at Yarmouth.

Edgar Putnam and Frank Smith who have been spending their vacation at home have returned to the Pictou Academy.

Miss Mary Allen is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, "Atholton Hall."

The social in the basement of St. David's Presbyterian church was a great success. The programme was a good one and well carried out. There followed such a luncheon as only Maitland people know how to prepare, and the appreciation shown for it was well marked to need comment.

Mr. C. W. Browne, principal of the school is spending his vacation with Doctor McLean at Shubenacadie.

Miss Mary Roy has returned to Truro, where she is attending the Normal school.

Mrs. Barbrick and Miss Bessie, returned from Stellarton on Tuesday. Mrs. Barbrick was called there to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Sydney Smith a well known and highly respected citizen of that place, and for many years a citizen of Maitland.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Jan. 9.—Miss Annie Roy, is visiting her school friend, Jean Mitchell, at New Glasgow.]

Miss Mabel Putnam has returned from a visit at Yarmouth.

Edgar Putnam and Frank Smith who have been spending their vacation at home have returned to the Pictou Academy.

Miss Mary Allen is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, "Atholton Hall."

The social in the basement of St. David's Presbyterian church was a great success. The programme was a good one and well carried out. There followed such a luncheon as only Maitland people know how to prepare, and the appreciation shown for it was well marked to need comment.

Mr. C. W. Browne, principal of the school is spending his vacation with Doctor McLean at Shubenacadie.

Miss Mary Roy has returned to Truro, where she is attending the Normal school.

Mrs. Barbrick and Miss Bessie, returned from Stellarton on Tuesday. Mrs. Barbrick was called there to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Sydney Smith a well known and highly respected citizen of that place, and for many years a citizen of Maitland.

her of the choir of St. Martin's church is disabled. The choir, however, is slowly recovering.

Miss Clara Bateman, returned to Mount Allison this morning.

Miss Eva Welling left on Saturday for Elgin Albert county, where she takes charge of a school.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dickie are to close up their house this winter. Mr. Dickie goes to St. John on the 15th where he embarks for Liverpool with Capt. Bray, his brother-in-law. Mrs. Dickie will live in Moncton until his return. Their daughter is attending Mr. Allison.

Mr. Sydney Mills arrived from St. John this week.

A bar of a large and successful driving party on Friday evening, which was followed by a delightful supper at Mr. J. McFadden's.

On the same evening Mrs. Geo. Welling and the Misses Welling entertained a number of friends at cards. An enjoyable evening was spent by all. Among those who had the good fortune to be present, might mention, Miss Ingham, Miss McRidgely, Miss Eva Cannon, Miss Ruth Bateman, Miss Clara Bateman, Miss Henrietta Bateman, Messrs. Geo. Wilbur, A. Bateman, J. Bateman, John L. Welling, Daniel A. McQueen, Geo. H. Murray and John H. Murray.

There are rumors of another dancing assembly this week.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wallis in St. John, D. F. Frost's.]

JAN. 10.—The Current News club met at the residence of Captain and Mrs. McAllister and enjoyed a most instructive and interesting evening on Thursday last.

A large party of friends surprised Miss Mattie Harris, one evening last week, it being the occasion of her birthday. Miss Harris was presented with a handsome card table, from her friends, among whom she is a general favourite. This was the most pleasant party Calais society has enjoyed this winter.

Mr. C. H. Clarke, invited a party of ladies to drive to the Ledge on Friday afternoon, and take supper at Rockaway cottage, but was obliged to postpone it until this week owing to the snow storm.

Miss Margaret Todd, has gone to Montreal to visit friends. She also intends to visit Ottawa.

Miss Beatrice Todd, has returned to Fredericton, having spent several weeks among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. O. S. Newnam, gave a very pleasant tea to a number of young ladies, on Thursday evening at Christ church rectory.

Mrs. John Clark, entertained a small party of friends at her residence on Monday evening, in honor of her daughter Esther's birthday.

The Misses Whitlock were "at home," to their friends on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Mowatt and her young daughter have returned to their home in Amherst, after a fortnight spent most pleasantly here.

Mrs. C. F. Todd left on Thursday for Augusta, Me., where she will visit for a short time before she goes south for the winter.

Messrs. Vernon Clarke and Bert Clifton, of St. Andrews, were in town during this week.

Miss Carrie Barker and Miss Josie Ham have returned to Boston to resume their musical studies at the Boston conservatory of music.

Miss Daisy Stewart has returned to Woodstock, after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Duncan Stewart.

Miss Mattie Young is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Nadie McCormick, who was Miss Mabel Clarke's guest during this week, has returned to her home in St. John. Miss McCormick will soon leave for Norton, Mass., to resume her studies at the Wheaton Academy.

Mr. James Thompson, Jr., has returned to Colby college.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wallis in St. John, D. F. Frost's.]

JAN. 10.—The Current News club met at the residence of Captain and Mrs. McAllister and enjoyed a most instructive and interesting evening on Thursday last.

A large party of friends surprised Miss Mattie Harris, one evening last week, it being the occasion of her birthday. Miss Harris was presented with a handsome card table, from her friends, among whom she is a general favourite. This was the most pleasant party Calais society has enjoyed this winter.

Mr. C. H. Clarke, invited a party of ladies to drive to the Ledge on Friday afternoon, and take supper at Rockaway cottage, but was obliged to postpone it until this week owing to the snow storm.

Miss Margaret Todd, has gone to Montreal to visit friends. She also intends to visit Ottawa.

Miss Beatrice Todd, has returned to Fredericton, having spent several weeks among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. O. S. Newnam, gave a very pleasant tea to a number of young ladies, on Thursday evening at Christ church rectory.

Mrs. John Clark, entertained a small party of friends at her residence on Monday evening, in honor of her daughter Esther's birthday.

The Misses Whitlock were "at home," to their friends on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Mowatt and her young daughter have returned to their home in Amherst, after a fortnight spent most pleasantly here.

Mrs. C. F. Todd left on Thursday for Augusta, Me., where she will visit for a short time before she goes south for the winter.

Messrs. Vernon Clarke and Bert Clifton, of St. Andrews, were in town during this week.

Miss Carrie Barker and Miss Josie Ham have returned to Boston to resume their musical studies at the Boston conservatory of music.

Miss Daisy Stewart has returned to Woodstock, after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Duncan Stewart.

Miss Mattie Young is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Nadie McCormick, who was Miss Mabel Clarke's guest during this week, has returned to her home in St. John. Miss McCormick will soon leave for Norton, Mass., to resume her studies at the Wheaton Academy.

Mr. James Thompson, Jr., has returned to Colby college.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wallis in St. John, D. F. Frost's.]

JAN. 10.—The Current News club met at the residence of Captain and Mrs. McAllister and enjoyed a most instructive and interesting evening on Thursday last.

A large party of friends surprised Miss Mattie Harris, one evening last week, it being the occasion of her birthday. Miss Harris was presented with a handsome card table, from her friends, among whom she is a general favourite. This was the most pleasant party Calais society has enjoyed this winter.

Mr. C. H. Clarke, invited a party of ladies to drive to the Ledge on Friday afternoon, and take supper at Rockaway cottage, but was obliged to postpone it until this week owing to the snow storm.

Miss Margaret Todd, has gone to Montreal to visit friends. She also intends to visit Ottawa.

Miss Beatrice Todd, has returned to Fredericton, having spent several weeks among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. O. S. Newnam, gave a very pleasant tea to a number of young ladies, on Thursday evening at Christ church rectory.

Mrs. John Clark, entertained a small party of friends at her residence on Monday evening, in honor of her daughter Esther's birthday.

The Misses Whitlock were "at home," to their friends on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Mowatt and her young daughter have returned to their home in Amherst, after a fortnight spent most pleasantly here.

Mrs. C. F. Todd left on Thursday for Augusta, Me., where she will visit for a short time before she goes south for the winter.

Messrs. Vernon Clarke and Bert Clifton, of St. Andrews, were in town during this week.

Miss Carrie Barker and Miss Josie Ham have returned to Boston to resume their musical studies at the Boston conservatory of music.

Miss Daisy Stewart has returned to Woodstock, after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Duncan Stewart.

Miss Mattie Young is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Nadie McCormick, who was Miss Mabel Clarke's guest during this week, has returned to her home in St. John. Miss McCormick will soon leave for Norton, Mass., to resume her studies at the Wheaton Academy.

Mr. James Thompson, Jr., has returned to Colby college.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wallis in St. John, D. F. Frost's.]

JAN. 10.—The Current News club met at the residence of Captain and Mrs. McAllister and enjoyed a most instructive and interesting evening on Thursday last.

A large party of friends surprised Miss Mattie Harris, one evening last week, it being the occasion of her birthday. Miss Harris was presented with a handsome card table, from her friends, among whom she is a general favourite. This was the most pleasant party Calais society has enjoyed this winter.

Mr. C. H. Clarke, invited a party of ladies to drive to the Ledge on Friday afternoon, and take supper at Rockaway cottage, but was obliged to postpone it until this week owing to the snow storm.

Miss Margaret Todd, has gone to Montreal to visit friends. She also intends to visit Ottawa.

Miss Beatrice Todd, has returned to Fredericton, having spent several weeks among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. O. S. Newnam, gave a very pleasant tea to a number of young ladies, on Thursday evening at Christ church rectory.

Mrs. John Clark, entertained a small party of friends at her residence on Monday evening, in honor of her daughter Esther's birthday.

The Misses Whitlock were "at home," to their friends on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Mowatt and her young daughter have returned to their home in Amherst, after a fortnight spent most pleasantly here.

Mrs. C. F. Todd left on Thursday for Augusta, Me., where she will visit for a short time before she goes south for the winter.

Messrs. Vernon Clarke and Bert Clifton, of St. Andrews, were in town during this week.

Miss Carrie Barker and Miss Josie Ham have returned to Boston to resume their musical studies at the Boston conservatory of music.

Miss Daisy Stewart has returned to Woodstock, after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Duncan Stewart.

Miss Mattie Young is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Nadie McCormick, who was Miss Mabel Clarke's guest during this week, has returned to her home in St. John. Miss McCormick will soon leave for Norton, Mass., to resume her studies at the Wheaton Academy.

Mr. James Thompson, Jr., has returned to Colby college.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wallis in St. John, D. F. Frost's.]

JAN. 10.—The Current News club met at the residence of Captain and Mrs. McAllister and enjoyed a most instructive and interesting evening on Thursday last.

A large party of friends surprised Miss Mattie Harris, one evening last week, it being the occasion of her birthday. Miss Harris was presented with a handsome card table, from her friends, among whom she is a general favourite. This was the most pleasant party Calais society has enjoyed this winter.

Mr. C. H. Clarke, invited a party of ladies to drive to the Ledge on Friday afternoon, and take supper at Rockaway cottage, but was obliged to postpone it until this week owing to the snow storm.

Miss Margaret Todd, has gone to Montreal to visit friends. She also intends to visit Ottawa.

Miss Beatrice Todd, has returned to Fredericton, having spent several weeks among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. O. S. Newnam, gave a very pleasant tea to a number of young ladies, on Thursday evening at Christ church rectory.

Mrs. John Clark, entertained a small party of friends at her residence on Monday evening, in honor of her daughter Esther's birthday.

The Misses Whitlock were "at home," to their friends on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Mowatt and her young daughter have returned to their home in Amherst, after a fortnight spent most pleasantly here.

Mrs. C. F. Todd left on Thursday for Augusta, Me., where she will visit for a short time before she goes south for the winter.

Messrs. Vernon Clarke and Bert Clifton, of St. Andrews, were in town during this week.

Miss Carrie Barker and Miss Josie Ham have returned to Boston to resume their musical studies at the Boston conservatory of music.

Miss Daisy Stewart has returned to Woodstock, after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Duncan Stewart.

Miss Mattie Young is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Nadie McCormick, who was Miss Mabel Clarke's guest during this week, has returned to her home in St. John. Miss McCormick will soon leave for Norton, Mass., to resume her studies at the Wheaton Academy.

Mr. James Thompson, Jr., has returned to Colby college.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wallis in St. John, D. F. Frost's.]

JAN. 10.—The Current News club met at the residence of Captain and Mrs. McAllister and enjoyed a most instructive and interesting evening on Thursday last.

A large party of friends surprised Miss Mattie Harris, one evening last week, it being the occasion of her birthday. Miss Harris was presented with a handsome card table, from her friends, among whom she is a general favourite. This was the most pleasant party Calais society has enjoyed this winter.

Mr. C. H. Clarke, invited a party of ladies to drive to the Ledge on Friday afternoon, and take supper at Rockaway cottage, but was obliged to postpone it until this week owing to the snow storm.

Miss Margaret Todd, has gone to Montreal to visit friends. She also intends to visit Ottawa.

Miss Beatrice Todd, has returned to Fredericton, having spent several weeks among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. O. S. Newnam, gave a very pleasant tea to a number of young ladies, on Thursday evening at Christ church rectory.

Mrs. John Clark, entertained a small party of friends at her residence on Monday evening, in honor of her daughter Esther's birthday.

The Misses Whitlock were "at home," to their friends on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Mowatt and her young daughter have returned to their home in Amherst, after a fortnight spent most pleasantly here.

Mrs. C. F. Todd left on Thursday for Augusta, Me., where she will visit for a short time before she goes south for the winter.

Messrs. Vernon Clarke and Bert Clifton, of St. Andrews, were in town during this week.

Miss Carrie Barker and Miss Josie Ham have returned to Boston to resume their musical studies at the Boston conservatory of music.

Miss Daisy Stewart has returned to Woodstock, after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Duncan Stewart.

Miss Mattie Young is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Nadie McCormick, who was Miss Mabel Clarke's guest during this week, has returned to her home in St. John. Miss McCormick will soon leave for Norton, Mass., to resume her studies at the Wheaton Academy.

Mr. James Thompson, Jr., has returned to Colby college.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. John Lorne & Co.]

Wanted—A good smart boy to sell PROGRESS on the streets.

JAN. 10.—The Presbyterian Sunday school festival was held on Friday evening. A high tea, with a Christmas tree and good programme made a very pleasant entertainment.

Rumors of a dance are once again heard.

Mrs. John C. Window, is visiting her daughter, Miss A. J. Robert, in Montreal.

Mrs. Howard James, with her daughters, Mrs. Ross and Miss James left for New York last week.

Miss Lily Jordan left for Northampton the first of the week.

Miss Bell returned from St. John Monday.

Miss Ella Gilman spent the holiday season with friends in Woodstock.

Messrs. Alex. and George McPhail, of Kincairdine and Mr. James McPhail, of Andover, were in town this week.

The question for debate at the society meeting on Friday was: "Resolved that there is no such thing as human nature as unselfishness." The debate was not concluded, but it is to be hoped that the men of our town, in "solemn concave," will hesitate ere they decide that they exist without usefulness.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. John Lorne & Co.]

Wanted—A good smart boy to sell PROGRESS on the streets.

JAN. 10.—The Presbyterian Sunday school festival was held on Friday evening. A high tea, with a Christmas tree and good programme made a very pleasant entertainment.

Rumors of a dance are once again heard.

Mrs. John C. Window, is visiting her daughter, Miss A. J. Robert, in Montreal.

Mrs. Howard James, with her daughters, Mrs. Ross and Miss James left for New York last week.

Miss Lily Jordan left for Northampton the first of the week.

Miss Bell returned from St. John Monday.

Miss Ella Gilman spent the holiday season with friends in Woodstock.

Messrs. Alex. and George McPhail, of Kincairdine and Mr. James McPhail, of Andover, were in town this week.

The question for debate at the society meeting on Friday was: "Resolved that there is no such thing as human nature as unselfishness." The debate was not concluded, but it is to be hoped that the men of our town, in "solemn concave," will hesitate ere they decide that they exist without usefulness.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. John Lorne & Co.]

Wanted—A good smart boy to sell PROGRESS on the streets.

JAN. 10.—The Presbyterian Sunday school festival was held on Friday evening. A high tea, with a Christmas tree and good programme made a very pleasant entertainment.

Rumors of a dance are once again heard.

Mrs. John C. Window, is visiting her daughter, Miss A. J. Robert, in Montreal.

Mrs. Howard James, with her daughters, Mrs. Ross and Miss James left for New York last week.

Miss Lily Jordan left for Northampton the first of the week.

Miss Bell returned from St. John Monday.

Miss Ella Gilman spent the holiday season with friends in Woodstock.

Messrs. Alex. and George McPhail, of Kincairdine and Mr. James McPhail, of Andover, were in town this week.

The question for debate at the society meeting on Friday was: "Resolved that there is no such thing as human nature as unselfishness." The debate was not concluded, but it is to be hoped that the men of our town, in "solemn concave," will hesitate ere they decide that they exist without usefulness.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. John Lorne & Co.]

Wanted—A good smart boy to sell PROGRESS on the streets.

JAN. 10.—The Presbyterian Sunday school festival was held on Friday evening. A high tea, with a Christmas tree and good programme made a very pleasant entertainment.

Rumors of a dance are once again heard.

Mrs. John C. Window, is visiting her daughter, Miss A. J. Robert, in Montreal.

Mrs. Howard James, with her daughters, Mrs. Ross and Miss James left for New York last week.

Miss Lily Jordan left for Northampton the first of the week.

Miss Bell returned from St. John Monday.

Miss Ella Gilman spent the holiday season with friends in Woodstock.

Messrs. Alex. and George McPhail, of Kincairdine and Mr. James McPhail, of Andover, were in town this week.

The question for debate at the society meeting on Friday was: "Resolved that there is no such thing