JAN. 80 .- Mrs. W. L. Campbell entertained a large number of young people on Monday evening. Dancing was the amusement of the evening, with which some very pleasant hours were spent.

Mrs. T. R. Jolly gave a card party on Thursday to a few friends. A very pleasant evening was spent

The Humorous Lecture) given in Boston Marine was very ably and cleverly delivered. The hall was well filled, and the directors of the Y. M. C. A., deserve thanks for bringing such men in our midst. Mr. Miller also addressed a crowded meeting in the Y. M. C. A., on Sunday afternoon, and again preached in the presbyterian church on Sunday evening, to another large audience.

Mr. Arthur Stoneman has left Yarmouth for a time to attend business college in the States. Whether he will again return here permanently is uncertain. Mr. Stoneman will be greatly missed among the people of Yarmouth. h Hon. L. C. Baker went to Halifax on Wednesday wast, to attend the legislative council. I He was accompanied by Mrs. Baker.

Mr. W. C. McKinnon went to Boston on Saturday evening for a short visit. Mrs. H. B. Hilton has gone to the States for a few weeks. Mrs. M. Fisher, of Berwick, is visiting in Yarmouth. She is accompanied by her daughter. Invitations were out for two or three sleighingparties to Tusket, for this Tuesday and Wednesday. but rain came and spoilt it all. However, the invi-tations will probably hold good, when the snow

JAN. 29 .- The residence of Mr. Robert Miller was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday evening, Jan. 24, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Laura B. Miller to Mr. W. B. Dawson, of Buffalo, New York. The hour for the ceremony was put at nine o'clock, but owing to the train from Campbellton which brought a number of the guests being late, it was a fall hour and a half before the nuptial knot was tied, this being very efficiently done by the Rev. W. C. Matthews, Mendelshon's wedding march being played by Miss Nellie Williams, of

JAN. 31 .-- On Wednesday evening last Mayor C H. Clerke, threw open his handsome home, and en tertained his friends with a sumptuous supper. Over a hundred gentlemen were present, who offered their congratulations to their host on his accession to the position of mayor. The decorations of the supper table were lovely, and showed great taste in their arrangement. The color used was pink. In Hall, on Saturday evening, by John De Witt Miller, the centre of the table was a huge block of ice, which was hollowed out and filled with oysters. The ice, was banked around with moss, smilax and primroses. On each side of 'he ice were pink jardineres filled with pink primroses. A row of smilax, and primroses, went all around the long table, and two tall candelabras with pink candles threw a soft pink light over all. Small tables, were placed through the drawing rooms and halls, and every guest enjoyed the delicious and bountiful supper. It was not until midnight that the guests bid their host good night, and turned away from one of the jolliest and pleasant affairs that have been given here for some time. Mr. A. L. Drake entertained the curling club at supper on Friday evening at the Windsor hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cleaves celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day on Thursday evening. About a hundred guests gathered at their residence to do them honor and to congratulate them. A fine literary entertainment occupied the first part of the evening. Afterwards supper was served. The presents of gold were numerous, besides ornaments, dishes and spoons in gold, there were seventy five dollars in gold coin. It was a most delightful evening, and was greatly enjoyed by the guests. Miss Alice Todd, entertained the Mic-am wis snow shoe club in the most charming manner at her residence in Milltown, on Thursday evening. The snow shoe tramp to the mountain and vicinity was greatly enjoyed and the coasters highly appreciated the excellent coasting. Those who did not care for outdoor sports remained at Miss Todd's and spent eleven o'clock and at one o'clock the guests departed for their homes. Invitations were given this week by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Markee to the marriage of their daughter Berta to Mr. Harry Webber, at their residence tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. The Misses Whitlock are "at home" to their friends tomorrow afternoon. Hon. Archibald MacNichol is this week visiting party of friends to join them on Friday evening for a snow shoe tramp to the old ridge. It was a frosty bright night and those who enjoyed it had a most delightful time. Snow shoe parties have been very popular lately, the moonlight giving a grand chance to visit the country and this tramp was one of the olliest that has ever been given here.

Miss Nellie Smith's friends will be sorry to hear she has been quite ill in Somerville, Mass, from vaccination and an attack of la grippe. She is now much bett r. Mrs I. R. Nickerson, is visiting Mr. and Mrs.

Irene Glover in Roxburry, Mass. Mrs. Walter bradnee left on Friday evening for New York, where she will take passage for England.

Mrs G. Ganong gave invitations yesterday to her lady frien is, to an,"At Home," on Thursday (tomorrow) afternoon from four to six o'clock. Rev. Mr. Thomas the new rector of St. church Calais, preached two most able and eloquent sermons on Sunday, which were most acceptable to his congregation. Mr. Wallace Broad, is contemplating a trip Southern Africa early in the spring. Mr. William Harper, has returned from St. Andrews, where he was called by the death of his Miss Pauline Rounds, left on Monday night for Germantown, Pa., where she will be a pupil at the Philadelphia school o fine arts. Mr. Ailan H tycock's friends and relatives on the St. Croix are delighted to know that his singing at a St. Celila concert at Hudson, New York has rummings been highly complimented by those who heard him, and also by the press. Mrs. Waterbury invited a number of ladies of Trinity congregation to spend Monday evening with her. The evening was devoted to bright conversation, and making some very pretty aprons and caps, to adorn the young ladies who will act as waiteresses, at the "high tea," given in trinity school room tomorrow vening. Cakes and chocol-ate, were served at eleven o'clock. and directly after the ladies left for their respective homes. Mrs. Mary Thomson of St. John is the guest of Mrs. G. W. Ganong

Mr. Fisher had been twice murried, his first wife being Miss Robinson, of Halifax, who was the mother of the Misses Madeline, and Minna, and Mr. Charles. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Addison, of Georgia, and who has had two children, a son who died a little over a year ago and a daughter born on Tuesday, four days after the fathers death. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, services being held in the house and the methodist church. The casket was cov. red with a protusion of beautiful flowers, among them being a harp, with the words "At Rest." Other tributes were: Mrs. G. F. Fisher, a pillar of roses, with the word, "Father," from Madeline, Minna and Charlie, a bunch of illies with "Mother" on ribbon, securing them, from Mrs. Henry Fisher, a cross, and cut flowers, from Mr. and Mrs. C. H. B. Fisher, an anchor. Mr. and Mrs. Waiter Fisher, from Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, a cross, from Mrs. Charles Connell and family, (Woodstock), a wreath, from Mr. and Mrs. Bebbington, and son, a cross, from Mr. Wm.
