Miss Maria Murray is visiting in town, the guest Mrs. Vavasour, Court House Square. The concert in the city hall on Monday evening, under the auspices of the methodist church, has been the most successful musical aflair here for a ong time, Mrs. Harrison, Sackville's sweet singer, completely charming the house. The quartette, by Messrs. Buchanan, Lawlor, O'Brien and Doherty was nicely rendered and they received an encore. Next was a solo by Mr. Mayes which was beautifully given and showed his rich full voice to perfecof course he received an encore. Then little Miss Hatt gave a piano solo which was very nicely executed and she looked very sweet. The next number was a solo by Mrs. Harrison, and for an encore she gave a "Military," which was very fine. Miss Alice Gibson gave a violin solo which was smoothly rendered. Mrs. John Black was next and as she is always such a favorite she was listened to with rapt attention, her voice always rich and full did not show off so well in this selection, but in her encore "Home Sweet Home," it was simply perfect. Mr. Mayes song, "Thy Sentinel Am I," was beautifully given. Mrs. Harrison sang that beautifully sentimental song, "The Angel Came," and gracefully responded to an encore with that little favorite song, "The Fairies," playing her own accompaniment. The charm of Mrs. Harrison's singing is her ment. The charm of Mrs. Harrison's singing is her beautiful enunciation, and her range of voice is henomenal, and in the high upper notes is exquis ite. Mrs. James Gibson gave a piano solo, which was very brilliantly executed. The crowning song of the evening, in which Mrs. Harrison excelled herself, was a selection from La Travita. Mrs. L. C. McNutt, who was the accompanist of the evening, kept up to the full her reputation. The ladies were all the recipients of beautiful bouquets, and Mrs. Fred. Fisher, expects to leave about the first of for Georgia, where she will make her future me. She will be accompanied by Miss Mina Fisher, who goes to visit friends for a time, and Miss Fisher, will visit friends in Ottawa. At the close of the presbyterian prayer meeting this evening the pastor, Rev. Willard MacDonald, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,-Yielding to the urgent request of the larger number of your Electorate, who, represented to me that during the coming civic year my long experience at the civic board would be of advantage to the city at large, I present myself as a candidate for the office of MAYOR at the election to be held on the 17th April instant, and respectfully solicit your votes.

I am in favor of economy in expenditure as far as may be consistent with civic interests AND THE EFFICIENCY OF THE DEPARTMENTAL

I am opposed to any increase of our BONDED INDEBTEDNESS for any purpose, unless the revenue derivable therefrom will pay the sinking fund and interest, the property thereby obtained becoming a valuable asset. Allow me to say that I am of opinion that no one seeking a representative position at the Common Council should be hampered in the exercise of his judgment by a PLATFORM or PLEDGES determined upon or made previous to the question in all its details being open for consideration and an opportunity afferded for enquiry and a decision

I am in hearty accord with most of the principles contained in the different election cards now before you and seek your suffrages as THE PEOPLES CANDIDATE asking that my PAST RECORD be taken as a guarantee of my FUTURE C. URSE, Your obedient servant,

I have been able however this winter to go out every day without exception and attend to my business, thanks to Dr. Laviolette's Syrup of Turpentine which I have been taking for a few months past. I am to-day almost completely cured and the steady improve ment taking place from day to day in my health, by the use of this Syrup, gives me entire confidence in a certain cure,

Mr. Raphael Filion, grocer, 134 Victoria St., St Sauveur, Quebec city, says: I have suffered for a long time from a terrible hacking cough, with violent fits of coughing especially during the night, for which I have used some of the best known cough preparations without any apparent success. A short time ago, about midnight, during one of my bad coughing spells I got up and took my first tablespoonful of Dr. Laviolette's Syrup of Turpentine. It gave me immediate relief. I returned to bed and slept soundly for the rest of the night and before I had finished a small 25 ct. bottle my cough had completely disappeared. I am telling my friends and customers of it far and near as I consider it simply a miraculous remedy.

Mr. Z. Turgeon, Leather merchant, 282 Queen St., St. Roch, Quebec City says. Having used Dr. Laviolette's Syrup of Turpentine for a most severe cold, and cough which caused me much suffering for two months, and after using only two bottles the cough having completely disap peared, I can conscientiously recommend this preparation to any one who may be suffering from a bad cold.

Capt. C. E. Holiwell, Army and Navy Stationer, Quebec, says: I suffered from a severe attack of Bronchitis and a most violent cough, being laid up in the house for three months. Hearing of Dr. Laviolette's Syrup of Turpentine i thought I would try it, and after using three bottles, according to directions, I have lost all my cough and am now strong and hearty as
