JAN. 2 .- The younger portion of society er joyed a most de ig htful party at the Windsor hotel on New Year's evo. The party was arranged by a unmber of young society men on both sides of the river, and no pains was spared to make it a success. The dining hall in the Windsor was used as a ball room, and was most tastetully decorated for the occasion with evergreen, holly and flowers. The party was matronized by Miss W. F. Todd, Mrs. Lewis Dexter, Mrs. Henry B. Eaton and Mrs. Frank Woods, who rendered much assistance in making the party pleasant and enjoyable. Dancing was the chief feature of the evening, and to the strains of Herrick's mont excellent orchestra waxed long and merry until the midnight belis had tolled the old year out, and joyfully rang in the uew. Cards and various games were provided in the parlors for those who did not care to dance. Supper was served at one o'clock, but not before three o'clock did the dancing cease. The trilettes of the ladies were most varied and stylish. I will try and give a description of a few of them.
