HIS is the Bicyle light yet strong. (Fit subject for praise in story or song) Which was made in the factory large and clean, The best of its kind as may be seen. Where was built the quadruplet, I mg and slim, On which were mounted taut and trim, The effemnions four, who led the way When JOHNSON flew o'er the course that day. And broke the record so hard to gain;

The record which stands, though with might and muin The flyers struggle to regain The laurels won by the rider trim, Who followed the qualruplet long and slim And won on the bicycle

"Fine Feathers Make Fine Birds"

Women are not all Beautiful but all women are attractive who are beautifully dressed.

Beauty unadorned may do in poetry, but the nicely fitting gown is the desire of every true woman. Priestley's dress ARE WRAPPED. fabrics have done much to realize a woman's ideals by offering, in their texture, appearance, fit and wear, a character and distinction, which no other derss goods, however excellent, have quite attained to. And now Priestley's have something new. The "Eudora" is all the rage. It is even better than the Henriettas so much admired. The "Eudora" has something which the Henrietta lacks-to wit: greater width, greater weight, and a superior dust shedding quality. And then it has an exquisite surface which gives it an almost regal presence. Wrapped on "The Varnished Board," and the name, Priestly, stamped on every five yards.

Have struck the popular fancy and are going with a rush Now let us call attention to our
