A very large number attended the meeting, on Wednesday evening at Brunswick House, of Miss Estabrook's "Waitz Club," and a most eujoyable thme was passed by all present. Miss Gwennie Shewen, Miss Gladys Shewen and Master Mausel Shewen left on Friday for St. John, where they will in future reside. The Misses Shewen and Master Maunsel will be very much missed by their many friends. Mrs. Estabrooks and Miss Daisy Estabrooks have returned from a trip to St. John. Beethoven Hall was flied with a tashionable audience on Friday evening last to listen to the very interesting Pupils Recital given by them under the direction of Miss Charlotta Lachs. The programme direction of Miss Charlotta Lachs. The programme of sixteen numbers was listened to with the deepest attention. Miss Laura Deacon was heard to great advantage in her first number, a Spanish serenade. Her second selection a Luilaby (Ernest) completely captured the andier ce, but Miss Deacon w uid not respond to a most enthusia-tic encore. Miss Wilson, Miss White and Miss Davton rendered their different selections most beautifully. The duet "Over the stars there is rest" by the Misson The duct "Over the stars there is rest" by the Misses The duet "Over the stars there is rest by the Misses Hart was well received. Miss Gibson's voice was heard to good advantage in "O, Robert! Beloved" (Meyerbeer) and a Svis echo song. The quartette "Spring is Coming" by Misses Deacon, Wilson, Smithand Gibson, was extremely well one and the singers were compelled to respond to an encore. Miss Crompton played the accompaniments with her usual finish. Miss Lachs has every reason to feel proud of her pupils who one and all acquitted themselves so admirably.
