been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Fred Allison, has returned home.

Rev. C. F. Wiggins and Mrs. Wiggins spent Wednesday in Amherst.

On Thursday last Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Allison kindly put their house at the disposal of the ladies of St. Paul's church, who held a very successful five o'clock tea on that occasion. The tea, which was a most delicious one in every respect, was extremely well attended. Among the ladies who took ap active part in the affair were, Mrs. W. B. Dixon Mrs. W. C. Milner, Mrs. Thomas Estabrooks, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Tupper, Mrs. Fawcett, Mrs. Murray, Miss Masters, Miss Croskill, Miss Bell, Miss Fawcett, Miss Willis, Miss Towse and Miss Robinson. Miss Ida Foster and Miss Mabel Rainnie presided over a most tempting leoking table laden with homemade candy. A neat sum was realized which will be devoted to church purposes. Miss Greta Ogden has returned from a trip to Halifax and other places.

The first reception of the term was held at the ladies college on Wednesday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Borden received the guests, who one and all spent a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. B. B. Teed entertained a number of his friends on Monday to a drive and dance at his home in Dorchester. The party arrived at their destination about nine o'clock and dancing was carried on with vigor until the "wee sma' hours." A delicious supper was served at midnight. A number of Dorchester people were present which added not a little to the evening's enjoyment. uesday last the children of the presbyterian Sunday school had an entertainment in Memorial hall. A nice programme was carried out consistin of singing, dialogues, and recitations, after which reti huents were served.

Mr. R. W. Hannington, of St. Join, was in St. Andrews Wednesday and Thursday of last week. It almost seems as if I had to chronicle more sickness than fun this week, but hope that none of the illness will be very serious, and try to console ourselves as I have heard an oid lady a few days ago, with "sure dear, it's the time o' year for "." Among those who are ailing are Mr. Will Burton, his son Vere and Mr. Durell Grimmer's little daughser Annie.

Mrs. T. Williams is slowly improving in health. Miss Jessie Whitlock spent a few hours with friends here last Tuesday.

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Neville G. D. Parker entertained a merry party of little folks in celebration of the home coming of her daughters, Bee and Daisy.

Miss Morrell has taken a school at the Ledge. Mr. W. B. Morris came from St. Stephen on the Arbutus Thursday.

Miss Lottie Coates is teaching at Musquash. Mrs. G. Herbert Lamb held an at home last Thursday evening. The guests were all ladies. Messrs. A. H Gilmor, M. P., Dan Gillmor, of Montreal, and John O'Brien, of St. George, have been making a flying visit to St. Andrews.

The many friends of Mrs. E. Andrews, Minister's Island, are glad to learn of her recovery from a severe illness.

Capt. and Mrs. Simpson have gone to Calais to live, much to the regret of their friends here.

Mr. J. Newton Breed, who has been the guest of Geo. F. Hibbard, Esq., leaves to morrow for Togus, Me., in search of health and to have his eyes which were injured in an explosion, treated by a specialist. Mr. Breed will be accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Hibbard, who will go on to Boston and pay a visit to friends there.

Miss Balkam, of Eastport, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton.

For the last few weeks eight of our young folks have been visiting occasionally at each others houses and with the help of some older members of the different families, in the way of prompting and playing for them, have been learning to dance, the lancing leaves considerable to be desired, but dent when asking for a descripton of the German the young society men of St. Stephen, and Calais, arranged for their own enjoyment last Wednesday evening. It has been learned however, that whist and singing occupied the first part of the evening, and afterwards dancing, and an oyster supper at twelve o'clock. It probably was a most happy, and jolly evening, but strange to say, the young ladies interested have a fixed idea that it was dull, immeasurably dull, and that the dancing was slow, at any rate those who know say the party dispersed at an early hour and very little is said about the glorious time by the "Neglected favors" who arranged and attended it. Mrs. R. K. Ross and her daughter Miss Reta Ross left on Monday for Boston. Mrs. Ross will spend a few days in the city and Miss Roas will remain at the children's hospital, to take a course of training as a children's nurse. Miss Ross is one of our favorite young ladies and there are many regrets to lose her even for a short period of time. Mrs. Frank McKenzie has given invitations to a children's party, at her residence tomorrow, it be.

ing the occasion of her young daughter's birthday. Miss Maude McKeown, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George J. Clarke. Miss McKeown has numerous friends here, who are delighted to see her in town again. Hon. Llewellyn Powers, speaker of the house of representatives, at Augusta, Maine, will make the opening and leading speech on Saturday, at the formal opening of our new steel bridge between our town and Calais. The exercises are to be of an international character, and it is expected there will be a number of visitors from out of town.

Dr. Seymour, of Calais, has been making a brief visit in St John.
