The "Lily Fete," given by the ladies of Park St. Church, last week, was certainly unique and succeeded in drawing a very large audience, although the evening was very wet and disagreeable. The tables were prettily decorated and were presided over by a charming bevy of girls representing lillies. After a sumptuous repast had been served the gathering was called to order by Master Harry Burns who in a charming daffodil costume acted as Master of ceremonies and introduced the various performers. An excellent programme was given the chief feature of which was "Beilamys" grand march of Time. Eight ladies gravely and decormusly went through a stately march, highly interesting to the spectators. There were also songs by Miss Copeland, Mesdames, Stead and Ellis; a reading by Miss Hall, violin solo by Mr. Grant and several other numbers completed a very successful and enjoyable evening. The ladies of Pa k St. church are no doubt highly pleased with the auccess which crowned the Lily fete.

The Doering Brauer Conservatory of music annonnces that the second historical concert will take place on Tuesday evening, March 26th in the ac.d. emy of music. I understand that the programme promises the composers Beethoven 1770 to Schumann 1856. Herr Ernest Doerings cello solo is the beautiful concerto by Schumann. Herr Karl Doering who has proved a valuable member of the musicat community at Halifax will sing the Fidelia Aria and song by Schubert and Schumann. Miss Minnie Doyle will sing an aria from the "Freebooter" by Weber; Herr Bruno Siebelts violin solo will be the concerto by Mendelshn. Frau Doerings numbers are Sonata, by Beethoven, and Papillions by Schuman Besides these, there will be trios and the orchestra.

The Harmonic Quartette, assisted by Mr. and Mirs. Walther, will give a concert in St. James church, Dartmouth, on the 23rd instant.

The Owing to the unfavorable weather only a few were attendance at the schools is decreasing in cons qu ence of the prevalence of the disease.

Mey. Mr. Gandier's reputation for gallantry is in serious danger. He has pitted himself against woman suffrage and that course in this advanced age calls down the condemnation of the weaker sex (pardon the expression) upon the devoted head of any man brave eLough to express himself as opgrosed to this great movement. However Mr. Gandier will likely survive the storm. One portion of his remarks was especially pleasing to me and for the benefit of others I reproduce them: "The highest possible compliment that can be paid to a young woman as to her attainments is to say that she is a good housekeeper, that she knows how to make and manage home and grace it with her presence. The young wonen who can keep house and make home attractive on a moderate income are the greatest treasures society possesses, whether they be wives, or sisters, or daughter."

The recital of the Halifax Conservatory of Music the other evening was exceedingly interesting and gave great satisfaction to the large audience present who expressed their admiration of various numbers in no uncertain way, particularly those of Master Max Fyshe and Miss Anna Fyshe. The playing of these interesting little midgets was surely one of the features of the evening; Miss Lottle Hobreck er's renedition of Vol Che Sepete was a beautiful smooth flowing melody, well suited to her voice A difficult number by Charles Robson was also finitiesaly rendered and showed very careful training. Misses Lowry and Stephens also deserve much praise for their instrumental numbers which were highly complimented.

At St. Lukes' cathedral last Sunday evening the chair gave Stainers "Crucifixion" in the presence of by people, and the family have their deepest syma very large congregation. The rendition showed a decided improvement in the choir since last year. The cantata was prefaced by a few remarks from the rector, on thoughts suggested by the text. The solos and recitations were sung by Mr. West, Capt. Chartson, Mr. Tremaine, Mr. Emmerson and Mr. Wiswell; while associated with Capt. Clarkson was Mr. Wainwright and choiristers Robinson and Harvey in the beautiful quartette-one of the choicest numbers in a very choice programme. The singing far exceeded all expectations and was done in the very best manner and with excellent effect. The service closed with the hymn "It is finished Blessed Jesus." The organist and choir master, Mr. Gatward is to be congratulated on the success he has met with in his musical efforts.

The festival of the great patron Saint of the green Isle was observed with about the usua amount of enthusiasm. The Lyceum, the Academy and the rink all had their own special attraction. The Irish society had their annual dinner at the "Halifax," a large number of members were present and the hospitality was also extended to many favored guests. The menu was up to the usual standard of the Halifax which is saying a good deal. The decorations were very pretty and in the best of taste, so that altogether the event was one of note and passed off with considerable
