Set on has more genuine sorrow been expressed upon the death of any citizen of St. John than that which greeted the intelligence that Ex-Mayor T. W. Peters had died on Saturday evening. The deceased was one of St. John's best and most progressive citizens and his loss to the city, as well as his own immediate family circle will be very deeply felt. His funeral which took place on Tuesday afternoon was one of the largest ever witnessed in this city. One of the last requests of Mr. Peters was that there be no display, in the way of flowers; and realised orders attendant upon the funeral obsequies and through various societies of which he has been an honored member attended in a body it was simply as private citizens. The services at St. Stephen's church, by Rev. Dr. Melick was of a very solemn and impressive nature, and the solemnity was added to by the fact that the first hymn sung "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was an especial favorite of Mr. Peters. The church was thronged with people and many were unable to obtain entrance. Mr. Peters was a comparatively young man being only 47 years of age. His wife and little daughter have the warm sympathy not only of those who knew the family personally, but of thousands who had met the deceased in his public life. North End. Miss Hattie Lawrence, of Truro, is being entertained by Miss Jennie Fraser, West side. Conolly and Gordon. Miss Esther received her guests in a gown of pink muslin, while Miss Rachel wore a figured chaille with red trimmings. The ladies all looked so remarkably well that I hardly think it judicious to select from among so many fair maidens—a belle.
