Miss Oliver and Col. Austruther were the victims of what might have been a very serious accident recently. They were enjoying, with others, a little tobogganing on Citadel Hill, and as they were coming down the hill the tobbogan, as it neared the fence near the new cricket grounds, took a bound to one side and struck against the fence. Fortunately Miss Oliver had rolled off previous to it reaching the fence, and thus sscaped uninjured but Col. Austruther sustained a few slight bruises.

We seem to be having no end of lectures these days and each a treat in its own way. Mrs. Jean Morris Ellis has just closed a s ries of particular y brilliant lectures in Dartm uth and it is to be hoped that her labors wil not be lost upon the young people. No doubt I shall, as one of the results of her work, have some very interesting events to announce shortly.

Hockey seems to be engaging so much time and attention just now that our sports and amusements are for the time being pushed into the back ground. However, the ice sports of the 63rd rifles attracted considerable attention and were very greatly en-

The funeral of Miss Kate Winifred Shannon, youngest danghter of the late Hon. S. L. Shannon in whose death the bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends, took place from the family residence, Spring Garden road Monday atternoon and was largely attended. The services were conducted by the Revs. Mr. Lathern and Rogers.

The Doering Brauer concert' given in St. Lukes hall on Tuesday last drew forth a very good and most appreciative au lience. Miss Dora Burgoyne's song "The Fairy of the Sea," was very sweetly rendered as was also "The Fairies" by Miss Edith Hennigar. Indeed the entire programme was in every way quite equal to any previous entertainment of the kind given here.

On Wednesday evening of last week the civilian subscribers to the private afternoons gave a very delightful and successful rink party and music was supplied by the band of the 66th P. L. F. and it is needless to say it was all that it should be. The viands provided were most acceptable to the skaters whose appetites were sharpened by the healthful exercise. This event was one of the most enjoyable that has taken place for a long tim .

Last Saturday af ernoon Mrs. G. E. Kenny left per steamer Vancouver for Liverpool from whence she will proceed to the south of France. Her many friends in this city will wish her and the children bon voyage, improved health, and a safe return.

On Friday evening of last we k Mrs. W. B. Torrance, of Inglis street, gave a very delightful, and quite large dance; it was notable for the very many Messrs. Robert G. and John Bauld are soon to start on a trip around the world. This is an excellent way of spending superfluous time, although not many young men have the wherewithal to indulge in the fancy.

Miss Olive's many friends are glad to note her return to the city. She is looking very well after her stay in M ntreal. Miss Stayner has also been paying a short visit to Kentvil'e and reports a very pleasant time. Miss Helen Jones of Weymouth is a guest at Mrs. Stayner's, Church street. Mrs. Cameron and Miss Cameron, Victoria Road, leave very soon for a visit to England.

Mr. Harvey, of the Union bank, leaves shortly on a trip to England, by the Vancover. He will also wisit Paris before he returns. The Academy of music will not be wanting in attractions from Easter until November 23rd, among them] wil be "Faust" "Richelieu" "She" "Land of the midnight Sun" "Jane" "Fast Mail" "Jack Mason and Marion Manola in "Friend Fitz" W.S. Harkins plays for four weeks and several which promise something very nice and choice in the way of amusement. The marriage of Miss Ada Jean Dunn to Mr. Courtney Henry, of Antigonish, well known in this city, removes from Halifax another bright young lady as the happy couple will reside in Ashville, N. C., for which city they left immediately after the marriage ceremony which was performed by the Rev. A. J. Rogers at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John Dunn. The presents were costly and numerous and included many checks. The many friends of Mr. Clyde Donaid, both here and in Darthmouth were glad to welcome him home again for a brief visit after an absence of six years.

His stay among us was quite short.

A service of song, entitled "Jessica's first Prayer" was given by the St. Andrews church mission band in the lecture room last Thursday evening. It was very interesting and those taking part acquitted themselves most creditably.

I have to again report the visit of the grim messenger and this time he has taken from us two citizens who were very well known here, viz. Mr. Joseph H. Just who died suddenly this week from heart failure and Mr. John Newman and the former had been in the employ of Lawson, Harrington & Co., for eighteen years and had resided in Haufax since by hood; he leaves two sons and two daughters. Mr. Newman carried on a large b ot and shoe making business and was well liked by all with whom he came in contract. He was 84 years of age, and both men were good, estimable citizens and will be much missed.

The entertainment at St, Matthews church Tuesday night was sufficiently varied to please any number of tastes. R. v. Mr. Carruthers in his own inimitable humorous way read several extracts from the "Merchant of Venice" which were great y en-loyed. I might also mention here that Mr. Carruthers also de ighted a large audience in Coburg road hall the night pevious with his pathetic and humorous readings. At the St. Matthews entertainment the choir furnished some excellent duets and trios, and everything passed off very success-

The Scotch concert by Miss Muir's pupils, was held in the school room of Park street church. The programme rendered was excellent and much enjoyed by all present Scotch airs seem to appeal in some way peculiarly their own, to the heart. An entertainment of this kind uever fails to draw a very large and enthusiastic audience. The vocal numbers, instrumental selections, and readings were all well rendered, and I heard very many flatering comments on the general excellence of the whole

The "L'ly fete" by the ladies of Park street church will be held on the fourteenth too late for an account of it in this week's issue of PROGRESS. Something very interesting and quite up to date is promised. I hope to have something nice to report cone raing it next issue. The proceeds will go towards the pipe organ fund.

The Colwell-Gentles wedding was an event of the Colwell-Gentles wedding the residence of last week and was solemnized at the residence the bride's father, Ochle loney street, Darimouth, by Rev. Thomas Stew r. The br de wore a daik brown travelling dress with hat to match; the bridesmaid Miss Allie Gentl s also wore a very tasteful costume of brown. The groom was attended by Mr. Frank Bennett, of Halifax, The presents, included several catequis, were numerous and costly.
A string of flags from Simson Bros. to John Silver
& Co's across Buckingham street in this was, city

And still another dinner a Government house to report this week, just as enjoyance also as the last, I am told. Indeed Government house functions are always so brilliant and enjoy in honor of the event. house functions are always so brilliant and enjoy able that success in this direction is always assured beforehand. On Tuesday, the 5th, the date on which the latest dinner took place, the following gentlemen were present: Hon. L. & Power, senator, Mr. Justice Meagher, Hon. G. H. Murray, M. E. C., Hon. C. McIsaac, M. E. C., Hon. J. McNeil, M. L. C., Hon. H. M. Robichau, M. L. C., Hon. D. McDonald, M. L. C., Rev. Dr. Bullock, Rev. Thos. J. Daly, Rev. E. P. Crawford, Mr. B. H. Dodge, M. P. P., Mr. J. D. cussed. The talented lecturer scored a decidedly good point in his reference to the amount of success which depends upon a good manner, and strongly emphasized the fact that good manners were strangely lacking in many classes of Halifax people. The lecturer was suffering from a very severe cold, but he could be distinctly heard in every part of the hall. The attention paid by the listeners was perfect.
