PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by Master A. D. Campbell. JAN. 22.—The rink has been opened this week and a goodly number of young people enjoyed the capital skating, Messrs. Fraser, and Stephen, certainly deserve great praise and generous patronage for providing such an inviting place. Just a little practice is necessary before one dares expatiate too loosely upon individual efforts but a little experience in close curves and it will be a charming sight for all eyes; to watch the pleasing panorama move to the excellent music of the A. M. B. band. The Barquet which was given on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Amherst board of trade to Hon. A. R. Dickey, secretary of state, was largely attended and a great success from all points. The I. C. R. Dining hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion with bunting and an inscription of welcome to the honored guest, while the table decoration and sumptuous menu were enough to tempt the appetite of the most fastidious government official in the local Dominion. EMILE ZOLA.

The Prince of Realistic Fiction.

Thus looks the master of realism. This is the man who has produced more work, excited more comment, probed more moral anatomy, than any living author. Needing a strengthening stimulant, Zola drinks "Vin Mariani," of which he says that "it is the elixir of life, combating human debility, and giving vigor, health and energy." This is high praise, but it is consonant with what has been said about this great tonic-stimulant, by all the celebrities of the day. "Vin Mariani" is the great nourisher. It strengthens the enfeebled constitution, makes the convalescent strong and well; is very palatable, never produces constipation, but rather aids digestion and assimilation. If you send your name to Lawrence A. Wilson & Co., Montreal, you will receive a little album of portraits of celebrated people, and you will thus learn something, not merely of the celebrated coars-stimulant, but of the great people who drink it.

GRANDLAKERS AND LOVERS OF LABELS A THING OF THE PAST.

Judges, lawyers, bankers and merchants of Montreal have visited the Bordeaux Claret Company's cellars, and have pronounced their $3.00 and $1.00 wines, excellent and wonderful value. The cellars contain over twenty thousand dozens of Claret, Burgundy, Sauterne, Ports and Sherris all guaranteed pure and direct from the vineyards of France. Address for price list to the Bordeaux Claret Company, 30 Hospital Street, Montreal.

Miss Bessie Hickman, who has been the guest of Miss Jennie Kennedy, Halifax, for quite a time returned home on Tuesday. The Band gives one of their excellent concerts this evening, assisted by local talent which will make a first appearance consequently they will add to their popular and high class entertainments.

The Delsarte and Kirmess entertainment which has been so pleasantly anticipated for some time came off on Monday evening to the satisfaction of everybody, a large audience greeted the charming performers who certainly excelled in their various exhibitions of graceful posing and expressions. Misses Jones and Hanson are artists of true merit and did their work in a thoroughly professional manner, they were assisted in the programme by Miss Tizler who sang a very sweet solo. The Misses Hillson and Weeks who played some excellent selections. Mr. J. M. Curry gave a song in very best style and Prof. Sterne was indispensable all the various movements being performed to a piano accompaniment which would go according to time and melody which needless to say was perfect. The pole and ribbon dance by a number of winsome little lassies who looked and danced so prettily that I forgot to get their names, among the prettiest things of the evening a dream of ancient Greece which was wonderfully developed by Misses May Brown, Maggie Archibald, Bessie and Aggie Munro, Helen and Maggie Farley, Gwendolin Main, Grace Clarke, Mazie Harris and Elia Hillson was a vision one would gladly have last for a much longer time than was devoted to it. The harp drill was beautifully done the pretty effect of the pale pink robes as a background to the silver harp was decidedly theatrical and worthy of any Greek ancient or modern. It would be useless for me to do more than reiterate for it was so beautiful and unique that I just must sum up the tableaux and other performance by the Greeks in pink as a composite picture of perfection. The Statute's story was a pleasing picture, Miss Hudson as Laureance, and Dr. Hall as the sculptor, were finely given. "Je Quante Minors," by Miss Hudson and Jones was beautifully given and finished with the required flourish of Miss Jones was irresistible as ye heard while Miss Hudson displayed an equal amount of winning grace. Dr. and Mrs. Allan left on Saturday for St. John, where they will make a stay of ten days, en route to Boston to make an effort to regain his health which is not of the best in this severe climate. Alien purposes returning home the first of the week.

The ladies of Christ church are preparing an entertainment which will take place on Lent. A number of the cleverest ladies will take part, and something of a high order is on the tapis.
