Bad Effects Entirely Eliminated by Hood's Sarsaparilla. C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen-In April last, through the effects of a dose of strychnine taken in mistake for another drug, I was laid up in St. John, N. B., for ten days. After this I never seemed to regain my former health, and continually suffered from indigestion and heart palpitation, for which I could get no relief. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking one bottle, I felt a little better, so continued using the remedy until I had consumed

If women only had perfect health nineterths of all the worrying which they now do wou'd be avoided. When a woman is sick she cannot help worrying.

Now. the cause of nearly all woman's sickness arises from the same source. Men get sick from various causes, but a woman's troubles are peculiar to berselt. I went to a doctor and was examined and began treatment. Well, I kept on in this way, doctoring and doctoring, tor a long time, but the disease kept gaining and getting worse. From mere kidney trouble at first, it seemed to have spread all over my system. My stomach became very weak and rebelled at food; my head at times ached badly: then across my back and sides were sharp, darting pains, or a dull heavy ache. My whole system seemed poisoned with uric acid, and I was terribly bloated. I tried doctor after doctor without getting any reliet. As doctors had proven such a hopeless tailure, I concluded that nothing wolud make me worse anyway. So I began my first bottle of that grand medicine, Warner's Safe Cure. Before I had finished it, I felt it was doing me good. I gladly kept on, for every bottle was worth its weight in gold to me. The bloating began to leave me and continued to do so until it was all gone, and everything I had tried before failed to do me any good in this way. My stomach became stronger, my headaches Theodore P. Graham. and pains across me disappeared. In fact, I felt better every way. I gladly recom cured, and I can never tell how wonderfully A.C. I took about six bottles in all and felt like a new person; all my old symptoms, headache and all, were entirely gone. I owe a great deal to Warner's Sife Care, and gladly recommend it."

Mrs. M. J. Walker, Hamilton, Ont. 'Some time ago, I suffered terribly from pain in back, also accompanied by chills and ague. I tried several doctors, but none seemed to help me.
